GENERAL MERCHANT - - PORT LAW

Farmers, Take Notice.

I have ceased working for McCormack machines, not that I had any fault with the implements, but Jackson & Hannah, of Markdale sold a McCormack six foot binder to Mr. Wilson McMullen last harvest for $125.00 on three pays, and his old Patterson binder and then sold the old binder for $1.50, and on next year's terms they are charged to those that perhaps they get them for less than I do. Why don't they sell them to Markdale farmers for the same? This I can prove. I have contracted with Peter Hamilton, of Peterborough, to sell his implements at Markdale and Flesherton. I will sell the binders, six foot on one pay $110, 2 pays $115, three pays $120; drills, one pay 12 hoe drill $61, 2 pays $63, three pays $65, and other sizes to correspond, smaller or larger. I will be at Markdale after the first of March every Saturday. Any one wanting machines or repairs will find me on Saturdays. I have some second hand Drills on hand, some only worked one and two years, Noxon, Oshawa and Peter Hamilton. Also agent for the Cockshutt Plow, Paris Manure Spreader and Clinton Thresher.

Address to Orangemen

To the Members of the Orange Order of East Grey.

BRETHREN,—Through the ever guiding hand of kind Providence we are again permitted to assemble for our annual duty in connection with the well being of our association. I welcome you, one and all, and am pleased to see and know that so many have, by their presence, shown an interest in the work of our noble order.

We have been blessed during the past year with peace, harmony and contentment in our ranks, unusual progress in the development of our order, and a commend ableadvancement towards the elevation and betterment of the Institution. There has been a marked increase in the membership of our Association during the past year, and, if I remember correctly, there have been 65 new lodges organized during that time. In Newfoundland there has been a large increase in number of new lodges, which speaks volumes of good for the people of that historic island. We must admire them for their steadfast devotion to liberty of conscience, their veneration of the British crown, and their Orange principles. It is encouraging to us to know of the rapid progress of our Order in British Columbia, the North West Territories, and I might say in the Yukon as well. About twenty-five years ago there was not an Orange lodge west of Port Arthur, and now we are safe in saying that there are over a thousand. They are doing a good work in these new portions of our great Dominion, with all its possibilities and resources.

My brethren, none of us could be engaged in a nobler work than sowing the seed of our Order among the present and rising generation of those new Provinces, where there is room for millions of the human race, knowing as we do, and as every unprejudiced or thinking man must admit, that wherever the Orange Order exists, or is best known, that locality and its surroundings are more prosperous, more God-fearing and better in every sense of the word. In speaking of the progress of our Order it would not be right on my part if I omitted making special mention of the city of Winnipeg, where rapid strides have been made since the erection of the Scott's memorial hall, which speaks of their loyalty and independence. I am told that the city of Winnipeg has made more progress than any other city in the Dominion during the past year. We pray and trust that their progress and prosperity may never be hindered, but that they, and we, shall continue to be imbued with those broad national principles of one flag one language and non sectarain schools, which things are essential to make up a country or nation. We have no desire to be separated from our fellow citizens, no matter of what creed or nationality they may be, but we desire, for the advancement and prosperity of this country, to unite in having one grand national school system, independent of any particular church, with the best possible attainments that can be secured. We trust that our Order may make greater progress than ever and that the people may be awakened to the fact that they require something in the way of an organization for protection against encroachments on their religious liberties for which their forefathers shed their blood in days gone by.

I want to say a word in reference to our glorious twefth of July which recalls to our memories events of the past. The demonstrations of last year were unusually successful and attractive, and were witnessed with approval and admiration, by thousands of our friends, who are not connected with the Association, but who come out, as we do, to celebrate one of the greatest victories that has ever been achieved by the British nation. That victory laid broad and deep the platform of religious liberties that, not only you and I are enjoying to day, but all who are living under the British flag, irrespective of creed or nationality. I notice that whenever certain classes are driven out of other countries for their religion they are only too glad to take refuge under the Union Jack. Wherever that flag is unfurled to the breeze you will find the Orange flag beside it. The same liberties to all with special privileges to none are our principles and we have maintained them for over two hundred years, and I am proud to say they are stronger to-day than ever. Our banner stands for the fundamental principles of individual judgment, individual action, and civil and religious liberty to all.

Since our last annual meeting we have been called on to mourn the loss of several of our brethern, among whom were the late highly esteemed Brothers J. W. Morrow and Thos. Hanbury, who might be fairly regarded as the pioneers of Orangeism in Dundalk. Bro. Thos. Claridge, of Shelburne, and Bro. John Abbott, of Proton, were also good brothers who will be greatly missed. While we mourn their loss we should feel proud that we had among our membere men who were so highly respected in the community.

In conclusion I think I should say a word in praise of The Sentinel. I do so with more than the ordinary feelings of satisfaction. In its pages I find a constant source of information on public questions in which the members of the Orange Association are deeply interested. It is also full of information regarding the order, and the movements of protestantism throughout the world and no Orangeman can afford to do without it. With the utmost confidence therefore I again commend The Sentinel to the brethren, believing that the weekly persual of its contents will strengthen their zeal for the Order and improve their minds as citizens of this great country.

I trust that our deliberations to-day will be characterized by good fellowship, harmony and mutual forbearance and result with benefit and credit to the Order and the Empire.

Yours fraternally,
W. W. COLLINGBURN,
County Master.

Dundalk, Feb. 5th, 1907.

One of the pioneers of Proton, in the person of Mrs. Jane Ferris, relict of the late J. Ferris, sr., passed away Saturday, Feb. 23rd, at the home of her son, James, on the 16th concession. The deceased had been in failing health for some time and latterly was stricken with paralysis which resulted in death. She was 71 years old, was a native of Ireland, where she was married. She came to Canada with her husband over forty years ago, settling on the farm on which she died. A little over ten years ago Mr. Ferris passed away. The sons and daughters who survive them are: John, of Melancthon; James, on the old homestead; Joseph, in Artemesia; Mrs. John Plester, of Egremont; Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, in Michigan, and Mrs. Jos. Coulter, in Proton. They were all present at the funeral except Mrs. Armstrong. The remains were laid to rest in Salem Methodist church cemetery, near Swinton Park, on Monday, Rev. W. F. Roach, of Priceville, officiating. The pall-bearers were six grandsons of the deceased:—James, William J. and Thomas G. Ferris, (sons of John Ferris), Wm. Plester, Samuel and James Batchelor.—Herald.

Another Mother's Letter

To the Editor of the Advance:—

DEAR SIR,—I have never undertaken to write anything for a public paper, but I would like through your paper to say a few words of appreciation and encouragement to those mothers who have had the courage to take up the cudgel against the unjust three-fifths vote. I think they have just cause for doing so, when the vote of a bar room loafer counts for more in the government of their country than the vote of an upright, truthful christian man. Go on, mothers; your cause is just. God requires justice between man and man. Fight for the rights of your boys. The Master said, I came not to bring peace on the earth, but a sword. But let it be the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God. It is quick and powerful and sharper than a two-edged sword, and is sent forth conquering and to conquer. Teach your little boys, and your big boys, too, to love and obey the precepts of the Gospel, and you will soon have the kind of men you long for to send to parliament. Premier Whitney, when attempting to justify the position he had taken in regard to the vote, made the remark that the soul of the bar room loafer was as valuable as the soul of the gentleman. That is true. It cost the same price to redeem it. But that is no reason why his vote should count for more than that of the christian gentleman, and I would consider the bar room a very poor school in which to teach men or boys the value of their souls.
