Farmers, Take Notice.

I have ceased working for McCormack machines, not that I had any fault with the implements, but Jackson & Hannah, of Markdale sold a McCormack six foot binder to Mr. Wilson McMullen last harvest for $125.00 on three pays, and his old Patterson binder and then sold the old binder for $1.50, and on next year's terms they are charged to those that perhaps they get them for less than I do. Why don't they sell them to Markdale farmers for the same? This I can prove. I have contracted with Peter Hamilton, of Peterborough, to sell his implements at Markdale and Flesherton. I will sell the binders, six foot on one pay $110, 2 pays $115, three pays $120; drills, one pay 12 hoe drill $61, 2 pays $63, three pays $65, and other sizes to correspond, smaller or larger. I will be at Markdale after the first of March every Saturday. Any one wanting machines or repairs will find me on Saturdays. I have some second hand Drills on hand, some only worked one and two years, Noxon, Oshawa and Peter Hamilton. Also agent for the Cockshutt Plow, Paris Manure Spreader and Hinton Thresher.

Experiments With Farm Crops.

The members of the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union are pleased to state that for 1907 they are prepared to distribute into every township of Ontario material for experiments with fodder crops, roots, grains, grasses, clovers and fertilizers. About 2000 varieties of farm crops have been tested in the experimental department of the Ontario Agricultural college, Guelph, for the last five years in succession. These consist of varieties fram nearly all parts of the world, some of which have done exceedingly well in the carefully conducted experiments at the college and are now being distributed free of charge for co-operative experiments in agriculture for 1907, as follows :

1—Three varieties of oats, 3 plots.
2a—Three var. 6-rowed barley, 4 plots.
2b—Two var. 2-rowed barley. 2 plots.
3—Two var. hulless barley, 2 plots.
4—Two var. spring wheat, 2 plots.
5—Two var. buckwheat, 2 plots.
6—Two var. of field peas, 2 plots.
7—Emmer and Speltz, 2 plots.
8—Two varieties Soy, Sola and Japanese Beans, 2 plots.
9—Three var. husking corn, 3 plots.
10—Three var. mangels, 3 plots.
11—Two varieties sugar beets for feeding purposes.
12—Three var. Swedish turnips, 3 plots
13—Kohl Rabi and two varieties of fall turnips, 3 plots
14—Parsnips and 2 var. carrots, 3 plots
15—Three varieties fodder and silage corn, 3 plots.
16—Three varieties Millet, 3 plots.
17—Three var. Sorghum, 3 plots.
18—Grass Peas and two varieties of vetches, 3 plots.
19—Field Cabbage and two varieties of rope, 3 plots.
20—Three var. clover, 3 plots.
21—Sainfoin, Lucern and Burnet, 3plots
22—Five var. of grasses, 5 plots.
23—Three var. of field beans 3 plots.
24—Three var. of sweet corn 3 plots.
25—Fertilizers with potatoes 8 plots.
26—Fertilizers with swedish turnips 6 plots.
27—Sowing mangels on the level, and in drills 2 plots.
28a—Two var. of early potatoes 2 plots.
28b—Two var. of medium ripening potatoes 2 plots.
28c—Two var. of late potatoes 2 plots.
29—Three grain mixtures for grain production 3 plots.
30—Three mixtures of grasses and clover, for hay 3 plots.

The size of each of the first twenty-seven experiments and Nos. 29 and 30 is to be two rods long by one rod wide; and in No. 28, one rod square.

Each person in Ontario who wishes to join in the work may choose one of the experiments for 1907, and apply for the same. The material will be furnished in the order in which the applications are received until the supply is exhausted. It might be well for each applicant to make a second choice, for fear the first could not be granted. All material will be furnished entirely free of charge to each applicant, and the produce will, of course, become the property of the person who conducts the experiment.

A Son Writes

To the Editor of the Advance:—

DEAR SIR,—Having read with interest a number of letters contributed to your valuable paper by the different mothers regarding local option, I thought I would voice my sentiments. We all know the stunning blow that has been meted out to local optionists by the Whitney government and our own representative, Mr. I. B. Lucas was a party to it having supported the objectionable clause in the new Liquor Act where it relates to the requirement of a 60 per cent. vote of the electors for the carrying of local option. Much pressure has been brought to bear on Mr. Whitney for the striking out of the objectionable clause, but all to no avail. Now, under the existing circumstances, what is the proper course for the temperance people to pursue? As Mr. Lucas supported the objectionable clause in the face of strong protests from many of his constituents it would only be reasonable to withdraw their support from him (something that we would rather not do) but we believe (and we believe we are voicing the sentiments of many more) in standing on the side of temperance and moral reform even though it does mean the sacrificing of party politics or even our best friends and until we throw our party politics to the winds and stand on the side of the temperance and moral reform we need not look for any sweeping reforms from either of the great political parties.

In conclusion let me ask of all who love their homes and our fair Dominion of Canada to do all in their power to push the temperance chariot along and so free our country from the damnable curse, the liquor traffic.

R. R. Fawcett, Kimberley.
