MILLINERY OPENING

- - ON - -

Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday

March 27, 28 and 30.

We extend to our many lady customers a cordial invitation to attend our millinery opening on one of the above dates. Our display this year will be larger and of a greater variety than ever shown before and will consist of a number of beautifully trimmed hats which were made by Miss Reid and Miss Henderson in Toronto. Our milliners this year will work at a great advantage because of the extra time and attention given to the work in Toronto, Miss Reid and Miss Henderson both having worked in the work rooms in Toronto and made themselves thoroughly acquainted with all the latest novelties and designs.

Don't fail to call and inspect our beautiful Display.

MISS REID IN CHARGE OF THE SHOWROOM

Our new Spring goods are Arriving Daily. In Ladie's wear we have all the newest designs and shades. Special prices in Dress goods, Muslins, Prints, Ginghams, etc.

J. & W. BOYD

Flesherton, Ont.

Hatherton

Miss Clara Grummot spent a few days with friends in Dundalk last week.

Miss Alice Scilley, of Toronto, is spending a few days with her parents.

Mr. J. H. Scilley, accompanied by his sister Miss Sadie, and Miss M. Winters visited with friends near Markdale.

Little Miss Ethel Winters, of Port Law, was the guest of her little friends, Miss Viva Scilley and Wilma Down.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, of Melancthon, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on wednesday, March 13th, when their eldest daughter, Sadie Mae, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Scilley of the 4th line, Osprey. Rev. W. Ryan officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Sadie Scilley of Hatherton, cousin of the groom. The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Mr. Johnston. The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk and the bridesmaid in seal brown silk. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome fur coat; to the bridesmaid a brooch set with pearls. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Winters, of Hatherton. The happy couple took the 5 o'clock train for Toronto amidst showers of rice and good wishes. They will be at home to their many many friends after March 20th. We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Scilley our heartiest congratulations and wish for them a long and happy life.

The Soiree held here on 5th March was a success, although the night was very stormy and roads in bad condition, yet a goodly number turned out to listen to an excellent program. Our worthy Township Clerk, Mr. Thos. Scott, made an excellent chairman. Mr. R. J. Pedlar, the entertainer from Eugenia, gave some good selections in his usual humorous manner. Mr. Fairey, of Maxwell, gave some very fine selections accompanied on the organ by Mr. Harry Guy. Messrs. Gordon Blakey and Guy gave some excellent instrumental music on the violin and organ. To those young men much of the success of the evening is due. There were four dialogues by Mr. Robert Ring and others and a number of recitations by little girls, also a reading by Miss M. Winters, entitled "Counting Eggs" and a recitation "A Mother's Prayer" by Mrs. Harry Down. The meeting came to a close by the audience joining heartily in singing God Save our King.

Priceville.

Our township assessors have been at work valuating the farms and other property in this vicinity, C. W. Bellamy on the Artemesia side and John A. McDonald on the Glenelg side of our town line.

Mrs. Colin McLean of the suburbs went to Toronto on the 12th inst, and underwent an operation in the hospital. We understand she is doing well and will likely be home soon again.

Death has again removed another pioneer from our midst. Mr. Alexander McLean, south line, passed away suddenly about noon on the 12th inst. Heart failure seemed to be the cause. Deceased was about 78 years of age, and has lived on lots 4 and 5, 2nd south, Artemesia, since the early fifties. Mr. McLean was much esteemed as a neighbor and friend, and all who knew him acknowledged that he lived a christian life. He was known to frequently sacrifice his own interests in order to live in peace and quietness with neighbors and friends. A number of years ago Mr McLean was elected an elder in the Presbyterian church here, which office he faithfully filled until he received the summons last week to "come up higher." A very large number of people escorted the remains to the church on Saturday afternoon when the pastor, Rev. J. A. Matheson, held appropriate service. The remains were then placed in the basement of the church awaiting the arrival of one son from the west on the night train. Interment took place at the close of the sacramental service on Sunday afternoon in the village cemetery, where one son was laid about seventeen years ago. The pall bearers were four brothers-in-law—John, Malcolm, Alex. and Donald McMillan—John McLean and John Burnett, neighbors, all of the south line. Deceased's family consists of wife, five sons—Neil, Allen and Hector, who have been for some time out west; Colin, a farmer on the gravel road west of this village; and Donald, at home—also five daughters—Mrs. McLaughlin, Cheyenne, Wyoming; Mrs. H. McDonald, village, Mrs. McMillan, Manitoba; Mrs. Barnard, Owen Sound; and Miss Emma, at home.

John C McInnes of Cheboygan, Mich., formerly of Bunnessan, died of pneumonia on Feb. 22. His brother, Dan, of Bunnessan, attended the funeral.

Mr. D. McCormack, village, has been seriously ill for about a week. We understand he is improving but still weak.

Malcolm McInnes, gravel road, Glenelg, had a successful auction sale on the 12th. He rented his farm and has moved to the village this week.

Herb Watson and Geo. Arrowsmith are busy repairing the steam shovel and other outfit. We hear that about 100 horses have been bought and will be distributed along this section of railroad for construction work this spring.

A number of people have read with interest the "Mother's letters" in late issues of the Advance, and many who have frequently traded from $15 to $40 each time they went to Markdale, say that they have now turned their back upon that whiskey centre and will in the future trade elsewhere. A number of the ratepayers also seem interested with R. R. Fawcett's letter in last issue of The Advance and say "Them's my sentiments few."

The Women's Institute met at the home of the President, Miss A. James, on the 7th. The topic for the day was the various uses of apples. Next meeting will be held the 1st Thursday in April at the home of Miss J. McArthur. The subject will be "housecleaning."

Remembering the Pioneers

The ratepayers of Vandeleur public school section will erect a monument this coming summer to the memory of the pioneers who were instrumental in forming the section. The stone will be placed on the school ground and will be erected at a cost of about $175. It will be an eight foot granite column with urn top, placed in cement base, and will contain about fifty names of those who lived in S.S. No. 11 when it was formed. It is believed that this is the first monument of the kind erected in Ontario, and the good people of Vandeleur are certainly to be congratulated upon taking the initiative in such a praiseworthy undertaking, and one which we hope will be followed by many other school sections throughout the country. The pioneer who laid the forests low and placed the corner stone of our present magnificient educational edifice was certainly deserving of having his name locally preserved so that coming generations may know whom to honor and to thank for the heritage which is theirs.

The names to be engraved on this monument are as follows: Wm. and Matilda Buchanan, James and Jane Boland, John and Bessie Chadwick, Colwell and Mary Carson, D. Campbell and Jane, his wife, Mrs. Coney, Andrew and Elizabeth Graham, Thomas and Rosanna Gilbert, Thomas and Eliza Gregston, John and Hannah Holley, Wm. and Eliza Hall, James and Agnes Jones, Thomas and Sarah Ann Kells, Wm. and Sarah E. Knight, Joseph and Maria Lomas, Thomas and Mary Lackey, Alex Melvin and wife, Richard and Eliza Jane Smith, Wm. and Mary Ann Smith, Arthur and Rachel Sewell, Robert and Eliza Shannon, Jacob and Eliza Teets, Wm. and Elizabeth Webber, Robert and Sarah Warling, John and Mary Williams

We understand that the unveiling of this monument will take place on Dominion Day, when no doubt the event will attract a great deal of attention and a large crowd.
