GENERAL MERCHANT - - PORT LAW

Farmers, Take Notice.

I have ceased working for McCormack machines, not that I had any fault with the implements, but Jackson & Hannah, of Markdale sold a McCormack six foot binder to Mr. Wilson McMullen last harvest for $125.00 on three pays, and his old Patterson binder and then sold the old binder for $1.50, and on next year's terms they are charged to those that perhaps they get them for less than I do. Why don't they sell them to Markdale farmers for the same? This I can prove. I have contracted with Peter Hamilton, of Peterborough, to sell his implements at Markdale and Flesherton. I will sell the binders, six foot on one pay $110, 2 pays $115, three pays $120; drills, one pay 12 hoe drill $61, 2 pays $63, three pays $65, and other sizes to correspond, smaller or larger. I will be at Markdale after the first of March every Saturday. Any one wanting machines or repairs will find me on Saturdays. I have some second hand Drills on hand, some only worked one and two years, Noxon, Oshawa and Peter Hamilton. Also agent for the Cockshutt Plow, Paris Manure Spreaders and on Thresher.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

Easter-Tide Reflections

[The following article was intended for last week but was crowded out. It is, however, still seasonable—Ed.

To the thoughtful mind the root idea suggested by this season of the year is—Achievement. As we reflect upon this idea, our thoughts instinctively revert to the great achievement—the resurrection of our Lord, His complete and eternal conquest over sin and death. And while in this mood other great instances of achievement readily occur to us; the mighty workings of Nature in all her varied aspects, and the still greater accomplishments of human endeavor in the realms of matter, mind and spirit. All these have their Easter-Tide. All have conditions amidst which they work, all have laws by which they are governed, and through all must run the thread of obedience, of submissiveness, or otherwise achievement is broken, mutilated, imperfect, abortive

Now it is not my purpose to enter either of these fields, rich and inviting as they are, but rather to seek to cultivate a narrower, more circumscribed plot, and to do it as effectively as I may. And yet I would fain have the greater theme overshadow and pervade and color the lesser as we shall thus be helped to a better understanding and appreciation of the latter.

The plot I propose to consider is the child's mind in relation to the work of the school—certainly not a paltry topic. I do not claim to be able to say anything new on this subject, but I do want to punctuate what I say with all seriousness and earnestness, so as, if possible, to leave an impression that will achieve something worthy.

In many respects the mind of the child is like a plant. The plant has life, middle age and maturity. It grows. Its development depends upon its environments of soil, light, warmth and moisture. To the extent that any of these is withheld, to that extent it withers and dies. All the conditions necessary for the full and healthy development of the plant must therefore be constant qualities.

Now we all recognize the necessity for the fulfilment of these conditions in the case of the plant, and we recognize the same principle in all the walks of life with the strange exception of the training of the child. The farmer recognizes it with regard to his seed and stock. The merchant and mechanic do the same in their business or calling and surely the child merits at least equal consideration with these. How long would a business man in any community tolerate an employee who would absent himself repeatedly from his duties for half days and days and weeks during the year? And yet this is what is constantly occurring in our school. During the quarter of 1907 just ending there have been 63 half days of absence in the principal's department, which is over one half day for every school day of the term; and the same thing is true of the other departments. And it is not only half days, but in numerous cases days and in some cases weeks. Now it will surely be admitted that this is not favorable environment for the proper development of the mind of the child. We might as well expect a sieve to hold water as for a child's mind to retain and assimilate knowledge under such conditions. Owing to his frequent absences the child often misses the essential relation that exists and must be established between all parts of real, organized knowledge, and has to accept instead, isolated, disjointed fragments of knowledge, like so many broken links of a chain. No wonder the poor child falters and fails when the inexorable test is thrust before him.

But I must break off here less I wound the feelings of the printer. I have barely hinted at the heart of the subject. That heart is character. Many vitally important things must be left unsaid but I trust enough has been written to result in the achievement of a profounder interest in all that pertains to the truest success of our school. Believe me friends, the Home, the Church and the School are the three noblest institutions in our community. Let us stand by them and let this glad Easter-Tide be our admonisher.

HOW CONSUMPTION STARTS.

Tired When You Waken—Languid All Day—Nervous Worn Out—Snap All Gone.

Your limbs feel "dragey" and excessively weak. A nights sleep seldom brings satisfying rest. Continuous headaches, exhaustion and nervous sensations destroy your health. Soon every spark of vitality is used up. Then you catch tuberculosis.

Start to-day. Build up, get new nerve force, and overcome this process of decay. Use Ferrozone, which physicians consider the most vitalizing, uplifting tonic ever made.

Ferrozone cures because it can furnish the body with sufficent nutriment and building material.

Think of the instant effect—at once the appetite increases, delightful color in the cheeks proves that rich, red blood is being circulated.

Tired muscles are invigorated, flesh and weight are added. Nerve force develops, and bounding, joyous health is firmly established.

This is certain—Ferrozone restores failing strength from any cause. The experience of Mr. Thos. Dowd, of Schreiber, Ont., proves this:

"Household worries and cares had about exhausted my strength. I was weak and miserable. My cheeks lacked the color of health, and occasionally I had spells of rheumatism. Then my appetite fell off, and nothing could tempt me to eat. Worn-out feelings, chills and despondency filled my very being. I became anaemic and dwindled down to a shadow. Consumption was very near. Ferrozone put strength in my body with a rush. It built me up, strong, virile and happy, and I have been well ever since"

Ferrozone cures sickness by curing the real cause—lack of blood and nerve tone. It keeps people at their best—fit, ready and anxious for work. In 50c. boxes only, six for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston Ont.

PASTOR AND PEOPLE PRAISE PSYCHINE

(PRONOUNCED SÍ-KEEN)

A Marvellous and Triumphant Record of Victory Over Disease.

No medicine has ever effected as large a number of wonderful and almost marvellous cures as Psychine. It has had one continuous record of victories over diseases of the throat, chest, lungs and stomach. Where doctors have pronounced cases incurable from consumption and other wasting diseases Psychine steps in and rescues numberless people even from the very verge of the grave. Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Chills, Night Sweats, La Grippe, Pneumonia, and other like troubles, all of which are forerunners of Consumption, yield quickly to the curative powers of Psychine.

Mrs. Campbell, one of the many cured, makes the following statement:

I cannot refrain from telling all who suffer of my remarkable recovery with Psychine. In April, 1902, I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and gradually led to consumption. I could not sleep, was subject to night sweats, my lungs were so diseased, my doctor considered me incurable. Rev. Mr. Mahaffy, Port Elgin Presbyterian Church, recommended Dr. Slocum's Psychine to me, when I was living in Ontario. After using Psychine for a short time I ate and slept well, the night sweats and cough ceased.

Months ago I stopped taking Psychine, as I was perfectly restored to health and to-day I never felt better in my life. Psychine has been a godsend to me. MRS. ANDREW CAMPBELL, Cottonwood, N.W.T.

PSYCHINE never disappoints.
PSYCHINE has no substitute.
There is no other medicine "Just as good."
