The prohibitionists of Dufferin have put up a candidate to contest that constituency against Mayor McKeown of Orangeville, the Conservative candidate, in the coming bye-election for the Legislature. Notwithstanding the fact that railway excursions have been more numerous than ever this summer, every one of them has been well patronized and all have been money-makers for the societies under whose auspices the excursions were run. This certainly denotes that people in this county are living on easy street and are in a position to enjoy recreation and sight-seeing when the opportunity offers.

R. D. Legate, son of Mr. R. P. Legate of Ceylon, passed peace fully away on Saturday afternoon last after an extended illness of consumption, at the age of 28 years: The young man contracted the disease a few years ago while working in Ottawa. He paid a visit to the sanitarium at Gravenhurst, but was not benefitted and had continued to grow weaker, until Saturday, when the spirit took wing. Rob. was a young man of sterling qualities and was a favorite with all. The remains were interred in Flesherton cemetery Monday afternoon, followed by a large concourse of people and accompanied by the Flesherton Citizens' Band, of which he was an enthusiastic and respected member until weakness made him desist. His parents, brothers and sisters have the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Word was received here Tuesday of the death of Ida, second daughter of Rev. S. D. Gaudin of Cross Lake mission, Keewatin, from diphtheria, which sad event occurred about three weeks ago. This is the third child Mr. and Mrs. Gaudin have lost while in the far north, the last a little girl of 5 years was taken last fall. The afflicted parents, with three children, are at present on their way east and will arrive in Flesherton on Friday of this week.

Mr. S. H. Eastman of Meaford called on The Advance one day last week. He had been visiting friends at Priceville, where he taught school three years ago. Mr. Eastman was a favorite at Priceville, in fact his sunny nature makes him a favorite wherever he goes. He is also an exceeding clever scholar and a young man of ambition, who will doubtless be heard from in the affairs of this country. We have marked him down for something good if his health holds out. He has just graduated from Toronto University, taking his B. A. also winning the Mackenzie scholarship in history, value $375 in cash. He purposes continuing his studies, but whether in Canada or Paris he is not certain. We always feel like taking off our hat to a young man of Mr. Eastman's stamp.

Mr. M. K. Richardson, Agent for the Children's Aid Society, for this district, was in town Saturday. He was out to James Hogg's in Melancthon, where there are five small children in charge of their father, a feeble old man eighty years of age. The young mother died a year ago last spring of pneumonia and the children are in a deplorable state and the home in a very unsanitary condition. The old man objects to give up the children to the care of the society and it is probable the law for their protection will have to be enforced. Mr. Richardson's work covers a large area including the counties of Bruce, Grey, Dufferin and Simcoe, and the Georgian Bay Islands. His sound judgment and sympathetic nature specially fit him for his work of mercy. —Dundalk Herald.
