The Standard Oil Company of the United States has been fined $29,240,000 for illegal acts. This is considerable of a fine but we suppose the Company can stand it. Watch the price of oil soar.

The cement sidewalk laying goes steadily on in town, and will last for some time yet. We are decidedly of opinion that Flesherton is getting a cheap job. We notice by Collingwood papers that that town is paying 10½ cents for plain walk and 11½ for crossings. The contractors found it unprofitable, even at that price, owing to the distance it was necessary to draw gravel.

Flesherton Citizens' band will be in attendance.

A horse belonging to Thomas Nichol, Priceville, created a little excitement one day last. The animal got frightened at some falling brick and ran away with the buggy. A young man who was driving into town with his sister saw the animal coming and jumped for his life, chivalrously leaving his sister to look after the horse and herself, too. The wheels collided, but fortunately the young woman held her seat and was not thrown out. Both buggies were damaged and the horse was stopped shortly afterward.

The village of Mar, in Albermarle township, is to have the best rural school in Bruce county The section is known as No. 2. The building will be 32x42, practically two stories with basement, in which will be separate play rooms for boys and girls. It will be heated by a furnace, and will contain all modern improvements in the way of cloak rooms, closets, etc.

Last Thursday as Mr. W. T. Blackburn 4th line Nottawasaga, was entering his barn the high wind which was blowing forced the door out suddenly against him and threw him off the drive way. The bridge is quite a high one and Mr. Blackburn's wrist was broken as a result of the fall.—Stayner Sun.

W. T. Wheatley of the Sovereign hotel, Creemore, was fined $50 and $4.45 costs for selling liquor on Sunday.

A New Pastor.

Rev. G. C. Little, the new pastor of Chalmers church, preached his inaugural sermon to a large congregation on Sunday afternoon, taking for his text Acts 26-28: "Then Agrippa said unto Paul, almost thou persuadest me to be a christian." This text, though a rather common one, was handled in a very interesting manner, and was divided into two heads, first why was Agrippa almost persuaded to be a christian; second, why did Agrippa not become a christian? Mr. Little has a powerful but pleasing voice, a free delivery, uses choice language, and was lisined to with very deep interest. He does not attempt any flowery flights of oratory, but delivers a plain, practical sermon which holds the attention of his hearers from beginning to end without wearying. We bespeak for him a successful pastorate.

A beautiful quartet was rendered at this service by Mesdames Blackburn and Henderson, Messrs Tucker and Dr, Hendsrson.

The induction service was held Tuesday afternoon.

We notice by the Chatham daily Pianet that the people of Bothwell, to whom Mr. Little ministered for four and a half years, on the eve of his departure presented him with an affectionately worded farewell address, accompanied by a purse of gold and handsome suit case. Presents were also given Mrs. Little, Mr. Little's mother and his two children. Mr. Little had a wearying experience on the railways, he having accompanied his stock to look after them. At one point his way freight car was shunted on a siding for a full day.
