10th Line Osprey

Intended for last week

Threshing is the order of the day now and we understand that the yield of grain is rather small with but few exceptions.

Died,—On Friday Morning Oct. 4th, Ulrich Stall, aged about 70 years. Deceased was highly respected by all who knew him. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to Zion cemetry. The sympathy of the entire neighborhood is extended to the bereaved family.

We are sorrow to report the death of Mrs. Alex. Sinclair sr. Deceased fell down stairs on Friday last, receiving injuries from which she died on Sunday morning. The funeral took place on Tuesday.

Osprey township fair Friday last, was a grand success. The weather was fine and a great crowd gathered on the grounds in the afternoon. A good show both in the hall and outside. A great crowd attended the concert at night.

Mr. Sherman Ottewell has improved his threshing outfit by putting a blower on his machine and will be able to hold his own with the best of the threshermen now

A good many men are looking for farms to rent, there being four in this neighborhood wanting farms to rent now.

This Week's Items

The heavy rains are helping the pasture and cattle are looking better than they did two months ago.

Mr. R. Brackenbury has finished sawing for this serson and is out with his threshing outfit now. I understand he has about two thousand shingles to cut for Mr. James Crawford this fall yet.

The Sabbath school at Bethel closed on Sunday last. The average attendance through the summer was about twenty scholars. The scholars will be presented with neat presents purchased from the book room, Toronto, and a photo of their annual Sunday school picnic.

Mr. James Speers has sold his farm on the 12th line to Mr. Wm. Mullen for the sum of $4000, and Mr. Speers will retire from farming.

Mr. Geo. Thomson of Feversham has had a stone foundation put under his barn and stabling put on with cement floors which are a great improvement over the old style wood floor.

Mr. A. Hanley has erected a good large shed to his barn with stone foundation. Still the improving goes on.

Mr. Charles Barber, who had the misfortune to cut his leg in Julian's sawmill, about two months ago, is still using crutches and will be unable to work for same time yet.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings cured

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins of Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by W. E. Richardson.
