A Strange Suicide

Sad indeed was the pathetic story told by Mr. Goff over the mortal remains of Willie Ellison at Clarksburg on Thursday last. The deceased was well known to everybody in Clarksburg as an inoffensive, industrious young man, with no vicious habits; respectful and polite to all, cheerful disposition but intellectually weak. During the past summer he worked for Mr. Shields on his farm near Duncan, and had the care of a valuable team of horses. One animal contracted a sore shoulder and was hard to manage. One day it became ill and died. Paris green was found in its stomach, but as Mr. Mr. Shields had no enemies the circumstance became a mystery. A few days later Ellison went to Mr. Shields and told him that he had given the fatal dose. The horse had crushed him against the side of the stall and hurt him badly; there was a package of Paris green in the stable and he thought he would make the horse sick but had no intention of killing him. He promised to pay for it, and later walked all the way to Duncan and paid $31.00 on account either to Mr. Shields or to some one who claimed to be acting for him. He was told to get the balance within a short time, returned home, tried to borrow the sum among his friends and had letters written to relatives at a distance. In the meantime a letter was received, apparently not from Shields but a party whose name was not mentioned, stating the balance of the money must be paid in seven days. The agony suffered by the unfortunate young man was known to his friends, every strange face he met he believed to be a policeman to take him to prison. Six days passed and no word from relatives. He then bought 10 grains of strychnine at a drug store, waited until the time limit was up and apparently took the fatal dose, then started off with a hammer in hand to repair a fence. While on a back street on Tuesday morning a scream was heard and neighbors ran to the spot in time to see the poor fellow fall in convulsions, between the spasms he asked his friends to pray for him. Dr. Moore was soon on the spot but the poison had done its work and had taken its victim to a higher tribunal, where a righteous judge will know how far he was morally responsible for his self-confessed act.—Reflector.

Easy to Retain Health

Most important of all is proper attention to the bowles. Avoid constipation it's the health-killer of today. Harsh, griping medicine is ruinous—beware of it. Best results follow a true vegetable remedy like Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut which not only relieve costiveness in one night but cures the cause of the trouble and prevents its return. No distress or inconvenience attends the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills which are world famous for their mildness and efficency. Sold everywhere, 25c per box.

To Grant Exclusive Franchise

Special Agent of Semi-ready to show the New Fall styles.

George J. Atkinson, special agent for Semi-ready Tailoring, will be in town in a few days for the purpose of discussing the granting of an exclusive agency for these high-class garments.

Mr. Atkinson has all the new fall styles in fabrics with him, and it is the purpose of the Semi-ready Company to further extend their business in this district.

The Semi-ready Special Order department has helped this modern tailoring in its premier position. With the cloth samples and the fashion plate the agent can take orders for suits to be made from special measure. The saving is appreciable.

Eugenia

News of interest is rather scarce around Eugenia.

Mr. J. R. Hogg has moved his goods out west. He and his family will be much missed at Eugenia. However, it is hoped they will soon return here again.

Mr. Butler has rented Mr. Hogg's house and is moving into it.

Mr. Charles Hopps, who has resided in Collingwood for some years, is moving back to his home here. Poor health compels him to leave his business for a time and take a rest. He and his estimable wife are heartily welcomed by their many friends at Eugenia.

Miss Ella Pedlar and Miss Daisy Smith have gone to the city for a few months. They will be greatly missed in the churches, in which they were both active workers.

Messrs. Walker Sloan and Emerson Smith are both working at Markdale.

Mrs. F. T. Carr is up from the city for a short visit amongst her many friends at Eugenia.

Miss Maude Smith of Toronto is visiting her sister, Mrs. Munshaw, of the Munshaw House.

Mr. William Smith of Buffalo is visiting his brothers, Adam and Sidney.

Mr. Young has moved back to his farm at Wareham.

We all regret Mr. McDonald's decision to leave Eugenia. He and his wife will be greatly missed, as they are highly esteemed and always willing to assist in any good work. They are going to Mount Albert to continue in business.

Mr. Robert Williams has been the guest of Vandeleur friends recently.

Mr. Will Graham of "Boyne Villa" and Miss Ada Williams visited recently with Kimberly friends.

The woods are assuming their beautiful autumn tints and present a charming appearance, as is usual at this time of the year.

Mrs. James Jamieson of Flesherton is the guest of her Eugenia friends.

Mr. Beecroft is still in poor health.

There is talk of another Batchelors' Sale to be held here before all the girls are gone. The coming leap-year will give the girls a chance.

The Original Corn Cure.

No substitute has ever been devised that give the quick, painless results of Putnam's Corn Extractor. For fifty years its success has been unequaled. For safety and thorough cure use "Putnam's' only.

Another Railway Wreck

A serious freight train wreck occurred on the C. P. R. near Chatsworth at 5.30 a.m. Saturday Morning. Seventeen cars were wrecked and a loss of over ten thousand dollars incurred on the rolling stock and freight. Fortunately none of the train's crew were injured. The cause of the wreck was a broken rail. The engine and tender and three cars passed over the spot, but the succeeding seventeen cars were thrown in all directions. Eleven were converted into matchwood. A hundred men are engaged in salvaging the freight, a large quantity of which was damaged or destroyed, including two cars cars of whiskey in barrels and cases consigned to British Columbia points. The passengers' baggage and the express had to be transferred at the point of the wreck on all the trains on Saturday, but the line was cleared at 3.30 Sunday morning, the auxilliary plant being on the ground until the afternoon, when the damaged cars were burned. The freight was to have formed part of the Manitoba out Saturday evening, but she was compelled to clear with less than a load.

How to cure a cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have reccommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by W. E. Richardson.
