Collingwood High License

So far as the work of the council is concerned, all arrangements are complete for the submission of the by-law raising license for shops and taverns to $2,500. That it will receive the assent of the ratepayers appears, as far as can be ascertained, a foregone conclusion. If local option could secure a majority of 250 last January it is only reasonable to conclude that a similar by-law will easily obtain a handsome majority at the coming municipal elections

It is stated on the streets, with how how much accuracy we are not able to say, that the liquor interests will not make a special effort to defeat the measure as they are persuaded they can have it upset by the courts. If such is the case it is not easy to forecast the result or to see what benefit the liquor men expect to gain by a legal controversy. A letter was shown the members of the council from the Provincial Secretary stating that the Government would bear the expense of testing the by-law in the courts if it should be carried there.

Besides, the best legal opinion supports the course pursued by the temperance people as being perfectly valid, and it has been undertaken at the suggestion of Premier Whitney himself, at whose altar the liquor men are now worshipping. Further, if the matter should go to the courts it is more than probable that the Government will recommend that no licenses be granted till a decision has been granted as they did in the case of Owen Sound last year.—Bulletin.

How to cure a cold.

The question of how to curea cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have reccommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Joke Was on the Magistrate

One of the best jokes we have heard for some time was related to us the other day by a gentleman from a neighboring town who is a truthful man and vouched for the accuracy of the story. A citizen of the place had been placed on the Indian list, but that did not prevent him from frequently getting as drunk as the proverbial "boiled owl." and it was then decided to haul him up and have him fined as a probable cure for his bibulous propensities. Some difficulty was found in securing a magistrate who would try the case, but eventually one was discovered—a county official who is said to be always willing and anxious to accommodate suffering humanity desirous of "lawing" their fellow citizens A summons was issued for the appearance of the bibulous one but he succeeded for some time in eluding the vigilance of the officer appointed to serve the summons but eventually was caught. Costs and fine as imposed by the mighty limb of the law amounted to twenty-five dollars, with time given to pay. One day the bibulous one met his judge on the street, and handed over seventeen dollars on account, taking a receipt therefor. The magistrate then turned on his heel but in some manner happened to drop the money, which was immediately impounded again by the man who had just paid it over. Later in the day he went up and paid over the remaining eight dollars of his fine. The fine, therefore, only cost the bibulous one eight dollars, and the magistrate had to put up the remaining seventeen himself. He will no doubt get even on other poor victims.

The Best Paper for Family Reading

The contents of THE YOUTH'S COMPANION are chosen with a view to the interest of all tastes and ages. The father, as well as the son, enjoys the tales of adventure; the mother renews her girl-hood in the stories for girls, while the paper always abounds in stories, long and short, which may be read aloud in the most varied family group to the keen pleasure of all.

Full illustrated Announcement of THE COMPANION for 1908 will be sent to any address free with sample copies of the paper.

New subscribers who at once send $1.75 for 1908 (adding 50 cents for extra postage on Canadian subscriptions) will receive free all the remaining issues of 1907, besides the gift of THE COMPANION'S Four-Leaf Hanging Calendar for 1908 in full color.

Avoid Panic

Once more The Sun would warn farmers against the danger of giving way to sudden panic over the feed situation. That situation is serious enough but it does not justify the payment of a cent a pound for hay and nearly two cents for grain, on the one hand, or the sale of good cows at $10 and $20 on the other. We believe that a man with feed enough to last him during February would be justified in holding onto all the stock that is worth holding, and the deferring of buying the food necessary to see them through to spring until the necessity of buying arrives. In seasons similar to the present very high prices in the fall have been followed by much lower prices before spring, and it looks as if history will repeat itself this year. At the same time it should be remembered that there are on Ontario farms every year a lot of scrub stockers and inferior cows which do not pay for the feed put into them. It is folly to maintain such at any time; this year wisdom will be shown by knocking these useless feed-consumers on the head and realizing on the hides and tallow.—Weekly Sun

A Certain cure for croup—Used for ten Years without a failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has reccommended it to his friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

They are Thankful

School teachers and pupils—for the short holiday.

The Farmers—That the price of all farm produce stays up longer and higher than the St. Louis balloons.

W. Bentham—That his ducks and rooster came back.

Ye Editor—That creditors cannot get at him for the next three weeks.

C. Munshaw—That so many new hands are desirous of joining the band.

Geo. Stuart—That a change in the handling of live stock is as good as a rest.

J. Nuhn—That his new residence is nearly completed—a cement block building, the first of its kind here, and an imposing edifice.

Seven Years for Bigamy.

Owen Sound, October 25th—Thomas A. Richardson, convicted bigamist and thief, was sentenced this morning to seven years in Kingston penitentiary. Married September 2nd, he was arrested for bigamy on October 19th, and committed for trial. Arraigned this morning before his Honor Judge Widdifield on the bigamy charge and one of theft of a fur-lined overcoat from Mr. J. S. Findlay, a former employer, Richardson pleaded guilty to both charges and was sentenced to seven years in penitentiary for the bigamy charge and three years for theft. The sentences will run concurrently.

Jas. J. Farr of Maple Hill has a gold mine in six Oxford Down ewes, compared with which a Cobalt claim is not in it. This is their record. This year these six ewes had twelve lambs. Last month he sold ten of these lambs for $120 in hard cash. For the other two lambs he has been offreed $22, making $142 for the lot. From the ewes he clipped $16 worth of wool, the total proceeds being $158 And yet a great many people can't see any money in sheep.
