Lingering cold

Withstood Other Treatment but Quickly cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by W. E. Richardson.

What's to be Done?

To the Editor of The Advance.

"How are you going to spend the long winter evenings? Where are your young people to meet for entertainment this winter?" These questions and many more of a similar character were asked the other day by a visitor in town, what could I answer him? Only that we had had a debating society, a choral class, also a public libary but that now there was not one organization of a popular nature in Flesherton. We have societies under the varios churches but these appeal almost entirely to those religiously inclined and of the particular denomination.

Flesherton needs some form of popular entertainment and instruction where the people of all the town can meet accasionally, why not have a debating or literary society, meeting, say, every two weeks? I care not the exact nature of the organization only let us have something.

By the way, what's become of the public libary? Since the telephone office was changed, the libary has been closed. No one seems to be in charge of it or care what is its fate? Where is the trustee board? Gentlemen, please wake up and open the doors so we may read the long evenings. The town will not desert you if money is needed to make it go again. Give it another trial, please.

Charity and Local Option

In spite of the great influx of poor peopls from the old country the amount spent by Owen Sound to help the needy is steadily decreasing, says The Sun. The figures for the first nine months of the past five years are:

1903	$528.50
1904	518.86
1905	655.64
1906 (local option)	469.50
1907 (local option)	410.70

One of the Saddest Stories.

First it was a cold, neglected of course and catarrh developed. Nothing was done and consumption followed. Watch the little cold, keep it from growing by using "Catarrhozone." Nothing simpler than inhaling the germ-killing vapor of this grand remedy. Colds and catarrh flee as before fire. Every trace of throat and bronchial trouble yields immediately. Catarrhozone is scientific and absolutely guaranteed for preventing and curing catarrh and kindred ills. Two sizes, 25c and $1.00 at all dealers.

Additional Locals

Miss C. Gardner of Kemble visited with Mrs. W. H. Thurston on Monday.

Mr. Andrew Wickens lost one of his working horses on Saturday by farcy.

Mr. Dunlap of Toronto visited last week with Mr. J. McLocklin.

Mrs. Robt. Richardson spent a few days of last week with her parents in Vandeleur.

Miss May Jamieson returned home this week for an extended visit with her mother here.

Dr. Sproule is having the tail-race, from the planing mill in town, built. We hope soon to hear the busy hum of industry from this factory.

Mr. T. Sled, while helping to move a threshing machine, slipped and the front wheel passed over his foot badly bruising and injuring his toes.

Stock for Sale—One good driving pony; one young cow due to calve in January; will be sold reasonable and on terms to suit purchaser.—W. W. Trimble.

The Presbyterian church shed has been remodelled whereby the building is transformed into a commodious, enclosed shed, instead of the former L shaped one This is now the finest church shed in town.

The following delegates from here are attending the W. M. S convention of the Owen Sound district at Owen Sound this week: Mrs. Jos. Clinton, Mrs W A. Armstrong, Mrs. W. H. Thurston and Miss Ella Karstedt.

The Epworth League service in the Methodist church last Monday evening was unusually interesting. The form of entertainment was a Missionary Salad about China Miss Gardner of Kemble favored the audience with a solo and three girls sang a tro.

The steamship Collingwood, built by the Collingwood Shipbuilding Co., was successfully launched on Wednesday of last week. The Collingwood is 406 feet long, 50 feet beam and 28 feet deep and was built for the Farrar Transportation Company.

Several oil and gas prospectors from Niagara were in town last week. They have procured options to drill on several thousand acres in the vicinity of Honeywood, Reddickville and Shrigley. We understand they will also make some tests in the south of Proton, near Keldon, and across the townline in East Luther The expense they are to shows faith in their undertaking. We understand their plan is give a royalty on the product of any strikes they may make if in sufficient quantities to develop.—Dundalk Herald.
