Mr. Chas. Thexton met with a painful accident at the furniture factory on Friday last. In operating the buzz-planer his hand came in contact with the knives and had his thumb and first fingers so badly lacerated that amputation was necessary. The operation was performed by Dr Heming and the patient is improving nicely.—Meaford Express.

Joseph Stovell, a teamster, working for Airth and Galbraith, lumber merchants, was loading a car at the C. P. R. station at Chatsworth when an engine scared his team. One horse threw itself backward falling upon Stovell and so firmly was he caught that the harness had to be cut from the horse before he could be released. His collar bone was broken as well as several ribs, and there is a fear that he is seriously injured internally.

James McEwen, 8th line, met with a serious misfortune on Thursday night last in having his barn and contents destroyed by fire. The contents consisted of five horses, sixteen hogs, all his implements, and this season's crop of grain and hay. The insurance will cover about one-third the loss. Such a blow is staggering to a man in ordinary circumstances. Next morning he found part of a set of harness hanging on the fence in the lane and the hair cut off the tail of one of his horses, which would go to show that somebody had been playing hallowe'en tricks on him. A lighted match may have been the cause of the fire.—Creemore Star.

How Consumption Starts

Tired When You Waken—Languid All Day—Nerves Worn Out—Snap All Gone.

Your limbs feel "draggy" and excessively weak. A night's sleep seldom brings satisfying rest. Continuous headaches, exhaustion and nervous sensations destroy your health. Soon every spark of vitality is used up. Then you catch tuberculosis.

Start to-day. Build up, get new nerve force, and overcome this process of decay. Use Ferrozone, which physicians consider the most vitalizing, uplifting tonic ever made.

Ferrozone cures because it can furnish the body with sufficient nutriment and building material.

Think of the instant effect—at once the appetite increases, delightful color in the cheeks proves that rich, red blood is being circulated. Tired muscles are invigorated, flesh and weight are added. Nerve force develops, and bounding, joyous health is firmly established.

This is certain—Ferrozone restores failing strength from any cause. The experience of Mr. Thos. Down, of Schreiber, Ont., proves this:

"Household worries and cares had about exhausted my strength. I was weak and miserable. My cheeks lacked the color of health, and occasionally I had spells of rheumatism. Then my appetite fell off, and nothing could tempt me to eat. Worn-out feelings, chills and despondency filled my very being. I became anaemic and dwindled down to a shadow. consumption was very near. Ferrozone put strength in my body with a rush. It built me up, strong, virvile, and happy, ever since."

Ferrozone cures sickness by curing the real cause—lack of blood and nerve tone. It keeps people at their best—fit, ready and anxious for work. In 50c boxes only, six for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston. Ont.

A little three-year-old daughter of J. J. McArthur, Edgar, was trampled to death by a horse. The child was playing outside near a team that had been left standing for a few minutes. The horses took fright at something and started suddenly, one of them tramping on the child.

A case of intererest to hotelkeepers was tried at recent sitting of the Division Court at Orillia. A commericial traveller who was a regular patron of the Orilla House lost an overcoat and he sued for the loss. He hung the coat in a place which he was accustomed to do, but did not give in to the the care of the proprietor or any of his assistants. The coat was stolen and the traveller sought to make the proprietor of the hotel responsible, but failed, being non-suited by Judge Ardagh. His Honor bases his decision on the fact that Mr Hessey had provided a place for valuables, and has disclaimed responsibility in his register for any appearl not placed in the custody of the hotel clerk. At the same time, it was held that there was responsible ground for the traveller's contention.

When Illness Comes

Have you near at hand a remedy that will alleviate pain and help till the doctor comes? A wise thing is to have right in your home a bottle of "Nerviline" which gives instant relief, and prevents disease from spreading. Nothing known for the stomach and bowels that equals Nerviline. For cramps, indigestion, heartburn and headache, it's indispensable. For fifty years Polson's Nerviline in 25c bottles has been a family stand-by. Get it today.

A Kansas editor, since the ruling of the Interstate commision cut off his pass, has dropped the time-table from his paper and prints this line:—"Trains are due when you see the smoke."

Chapped hands are quickly cured by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price, 25 cents. For sale by W.E.Richardson.

The extent to which our wide-awake neighbors to the west of us were interested in the recent North Wellington bye-election may be gathered from the following paragraph in last week's Harriston Review:—"The seething excitement over the election on Tuesday would not eclipse a sidlitz powder to any great extent. Lots of people within half a mile of the poll did not know there was any election and lots more did not know who was running or what House they were running for."—Ex

Guelph Mercury: A husky looking young fellow named Hunt, of Palmerston, an ex-brakeman and fireman of the Grand Trunk, came down to Castle McNab, in charge of a constable, this morning to spend the winter. Hunt, it appears, while a very quiet fellow when sober, goes out on a toot occasionally. On Monday last he tackled the fluid extract of hops and got into a peck of trouble. He was out with the boys and had imbibed rather freely, when—so he says—he was given some morphine pills. He then started out to paint the town. By the time Hunt struck the Queen's he was going like a whirlwind and soon made the house look as if a cyclone had passed. He was arrested, and the mills of justice did not delay in turning him out a four month's sentence.

A sad accident occurred a few days ago on a Southern railway at Auburn, N. C. which resulted in the loss of three lives and the injury of a number of other persons. When the conductor was called before the Coroner's jury for examination he said "I simply forgot my orders—that's all" "That's all," as one writer has said, "That's all, is all too much." "I forgot it" is a poor excuse, but an exceedingly popular one. A young man in businesss has no business to forget. Every man ought to have a memory system of his own by which the forgetting of certain things would be an absolute impossibility. Success in life often pivots on a good memory,

Biliousness and Constipation

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by W.E.Richardson.
