The school concert to be held at Port Law on the evening of the 19th inst., promises to be the best ever held in that section. Among the numerous good things there will be dialogues, recitations, drills, choruses, music by the Port Law string band, etc. It is expected that outside talent will also assist. Don't fail to attend. See bills for further particulars. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Messrs. L. C. Karstedt and H. Down succeeded last week in selling $840 worth of hotel stock. This will leave some $2870 yet to be raised, but $1200 more would place the affair on a sound financial foundation. The $870 raised last week will place the property beyond any immediate danger. The canvassers could not spare any more time, but would ask that voluntary subscriptions be handed in to any of the directors.

The Swiss Bell Ringers gave a concert in the town hall last Thursday evening under the auspices of the Citizens' Band. This company has appeared here on several previous occasions and the verdict of those who heard them this time was "better than ever." The hall was packed with an enthusiastic audience which was treated to an excellent program, including in addition to the bells, trick violin playing, marimbaphone, musical glasses, aluminum chimes, musical rattles and comic singing and acting.

There is an advertisement appearing in many of our local exchanges that to our mind no honorable newspaper man should wish to publish. This is in the form of a reading notice with no advertising marks to identify it and gives what is apparently an innocent prescription that can be filled in any good pharmacy, making a sure cure for certain ills. This prescription is made up of a number of ingredients, but one of these is a proprietary article and the prescription is given simply to sell that article. The reader is put in such language that it appears to be the editor himself who authorizes its publication. It is surprising that editors will lend themselves for money to such a prostitution of their calling. Any medicine that cannot stand on its own merits without resorting to such underhand means of foisting itself upon the attention of sufferers can be put down every time as useless. It is born of fraud and cannot be anything else than a fraud of the first water. Its success is bound to be ephemeral and the papers that publish it will suffer in prestige when the public opens its eyes to the imposition.

Baptist Anniversary

The anniversary services on Sunday last in the Baptist church were considerably marred by bad weather. Rev. J. H. Cameron, B. A., B. D., of Collingwood, conducted both services, preaching two strong sermons.

The concert in the town hall was also unfavorably affected by rain, but those who were present enjoyed a program of rare excellence. Short, pithy, humorous, addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Caldwell, I. B. Lucas, M.P.P., Rev. Mr. Little, and Rev. Mr. Cameron of Collingwood. Recitations of more than ordinary excellence were given by Miss Christene Richardson and Ellwood Genoe. A couple of Scotch choruses were rendered in fine style by the choir and Miss Lee gave a mandolin solo. The star entertainer of the evening, however, was Miss Etta Irving of Owen Sound, who gave four solos, among them being "I Love You," "Spring is Coming," and "The King is Coming." Miss Irving has a clear, strong, sweet soprano voice under perfect control and of great calibre. Should she favor us here again she will meet with a hearty reception. Rev. Mr. Kipp fulfilled the onerous duties of chairman in a perfectly satisfactory manner. We would like to report some of the golden nuggets of wisdom that fell from the lips of the various speakers, but space forbids. The proceeds of this, the first public anniversary of the Baptist church, although the edifice has been erected over twenty years, would pay expenses and still have a little to the good. Had the weather been propitious the receipts would probably have been doubled.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffon, Ind., Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal, go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brillancy, go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Mr. W. H. Dodson, of Buffalo, N. Y., has sold to Mr. A. E. Hopkins, of Euphrasia, the Rocklyn hotel property. Mr. Hopkins takes possession next spring.

A young chap, named Dixon, of Tarbert while practising with a shotgun the other day for a shooting match lost the middle finger of the right hand by the gun exploding.

The list of municipalities in Ontario which will vote on the local option by-law in January has now passed the hundred mark. Of the 101 now in line 35 are incorporated towns. The total number of liquor licenses effected is almost three hundred. All of these, with the exception of five, gave majorities for prohibition in the referendum.

Have You Warts?

You can cure them painlessly by Putnam's Corn and Wart Extractor. Never known to fail. Be sure you get "Putnam's," in 25c bottles.

On Friday evening last Mr. Thos. Silver, of the townline of St. Vincent and Collingwood, suffered a severe loss in the burning of his residence. The fire started from a defective chimney. Most of his household furniture was saved, but notwithstanding Mr. Silver is a heavy loser. We understand he had $600.00 insurance on the house.—Reflector.

W. J Ferguson, a prominent farmer living about two miles from Shelburne was drowned Tuesday morning in a well. Just how the accident occurred is a mystery, as no one saw it. A neighbor called to see Mr. Ferguson and his wife sent him to the barn, but he could not find him there, and, in searching around they noticed the well uncovered, where the dead man was found in about fourteen feet of water.

On Monday evening one of Dr. Campbell's handsome drivers slipped the bridle off her head at the drug store and ran away. Next morning she was found in Sam Platt's farm with one of her fore legs broken, no doubt caused by jumping some of the deep ditches. An effort is being made to save the mare, but it is most probable that her days of usefulness are over. The beast was a high spirited animal, an excellent hurdle jumper, and her loss to the doctor is not measured by monetary value. He prided himself in a good horse.—Grand Valley Star.

Messrs. Hickling Bros. have disposed of their coal and wood business to Mr. D.G. Cooper who will continue it at his premises on Huron street. Messrs. Hickling Bros. came here about a year ago from Maxwell and have since enjoyed a good business, but owing to certain changes in their affairs concluded to accept the offer made by Mr. Cooper.—Collingwood Bulletin.

To Stop A Crying Baby.

It may be cramps, perhaps colic, pain gas on the stomach,—but in any case a few drops of Nerviline soothes the pain and allows the child to sleep peacefully. Nerviline cures minor ills such as colds, headache, internal and external pains as well as any doctor,—safe to use because a small dose is required. Mothers, you will find Nerviline an invaluable aid in preventing and curing sickness. Keep a bottle right at hand, some day you will need it badly. Sold everywhere at 25c.
