Having leased the Eugenia saw mill for this season I am prepared to do all kind of custom sawing. I also want any quantity of lath timber for which highest cash price will be paid at the mill.—Thos. E. Fenwick.

On Monday, Dec. 23rd, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McManus, Newmarket, was the scene of a quiet wedding, when their daughter, Eva, became the bride of Arthur Skelding, of Stand Off, Alta The bride is a niece of Mr. John Boland of Vandeleur.

Farm for sale cheap, lots 155, 6 and 7. con. 3. W.T. and S.R., Artemesia. 145 acres 20 acres bush and swamp, well watered large frame barn, comfortable house, good orchard. For price and terms apply to R. J. Sproule, Flesherton, or John Stewart on the premises.

At the annual school meeting on Thursday of last week Mr. W. J. Bellamy the retiring trustee, was re-elected by acclamation. There were just four ratepayers, besides the trustees, present at this meeting. The acute interest taken by the ratepayers of this section in their school affairs is quite surprising.

The annual meeting of the East and Centre Grey Liberal Conservative Association will be held in Haskett's Hall Markdale, Jan. 10th 1908 at 1 o'clock. Election of officers and general business will be attended to, and afterwards addresses by Dr. Sproule, M P., I. B. Lucas Esq., M. L. A. and others will be given.

Dr. E. K. Richardson of Toronto, and son of M. K. Richardson of this place, informs The Advance that he has received his commission for a Captaincy in the Canadian Artillery. The Dr. had the honor of being one in command of the 9th Battalion of Canadian Field Artillery, which Battalion was the first in the Brigade and fourth in the whole Dominion in point of excellence the past year.

A gentleman, who last week advertised in these columns a sum of money lost, has since found it in the pocket of his 5-year-old son. The child had taken a $10 and a $5 bill from his father's pocket and carried it around for two or three days without losing it. Watch that "Kiddie" when he becomes as old as Carnegie.

The Maxwell Methodist Sunday School and their friends presented the superintendent, Mr. A. N. Brownridge, with a beautiful writing desk in recognition and appreciation of his valued services as Superintendent of the school. For many years Mr. Brownridge has been faithful and untiring in his endeavors for the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom among the children and young people. We hope for him many years of useful service in the Master's Vineyard.—COM.

I am now prepared to take custom sawing of lumber, shingles and lath, at my mill in Flesherton. Also contracts for spring and summer sawing in quantity in any location. I have a first class moveable mill and can guarantee satisfaction. Good facilities for sawing barn timber. A small quantity of shingle timber, spruce and hemlock logs wanted Dry lumber and joists for sale. George Watson, Flesherton.

On Christmas evening about thirty of the young people from Vandeleur drove out to the home of Mr. and Mrs Robert Richardson in the suburbs and took them by surprise. A very pleasant time was spent by all. Just before retiring Mr. Wellington Graham, who was present with his camera, took a flash light picture of the merry company. Auld Lang Syne was then sung and all started for their different homes.

Constable Perigoe of Feversham passed through town Saturday evening for Owen Sound in charge of an elderly man named Healey, who is charged by an Osprey party with an offence under the Charlton Act. Healy has not been in the country long, and worked for Thomas Neil, who lives five miles east of Maxwell on the gravel road. It is his employer who makes the charge and the offence is alleged against a 15-year-old adopted daughter.

On the evening of the 28 inst. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Badgerow, 4th line, a very enjoyable evening was spent in celebrating the twentieth anniversary of there wedding day. Every one did justice to a choice wedding dinner. The evening was then spent by music, from Mrs. J. L. Wood and Mrs. H. R. Dyson, also solos by Mrs. H. Down and Pearlie Badgerow, recitations by Miss H. Stafford and Mrs. H. Down, and games and amusements and a pleasant evening was closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again."—COM.

Beatty—Shier

Christmas and wedding bells rang melodiously together at the home of Mr. Francis Shier, near Portlaw, when on Christmas afternoon Mr. Wm. J. Beatty of Osprey and Emma Lavina Shier were united in matrimony. The happy young couple, with the groomsman, Mr. S. H. Shier, and the bridesmaid, Miss Lavina L. Beatty, stood under a line of Christmas bells, while Rev. Dr. Caldwell performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony a well spread and bountiful Christmas wedding dinner was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty will reside in Osprey. The Advance joins with many friends in tendering congratulations.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Presbyterian Anniversary

On Christmas evening the Presbyterian Sabbath school gave their annual tea-meeting and entertainment. The tea-meeting part was ably handled by the ladies of the congregation, as was shown by the groaning tables which were spread in the basement.

The program, which was mostly supplied by the little folks, was also excellent. A cute little dialogue was given by Miss Marguerite Runstadtler and Master R. N. Cornfield. Lillian Stinson sang a solo. Recitations were given by Ruby Radley, Leone Thompson, Lillian Buskin, Pearl Radley, Gladys Cornfield and others. Several dialogues were given and Dr. R Henderson of Toronto sang a solo and responded to a hearty encore.

The report of the Sabbath school was as follows: Average attendance 39, total verses 3845, average 76, and the most any scholar is allowed to repeat per Sunday is seven verses. The number of scholars on the roll was 94, and two members were lost, one by removal and one by death. This last was the late Norris Tucker, who was a victim of the Caledou wreck, and a touching reference was made to his untimely death. Those most regular in attendance were Pearl Radley, S. Chard, Muriel McTavish, Etta LeGard, Geo. Harrison and Roy Thistlethwaite. Those receiving prizes in the various classes were: P. Radley, M. McTavish, E. LeGard, R. Chard, Geo. Harrison, R. Thistlethwaite, and Susie Chard. The financial report was as follows: Balance on hand, $24.16; amount on hand, $66. The main event of the evening was the rendering of a fine cantata. The costumes in this were good and those who took part were well trained. Mr. Wes. Buskin acted the part of Santa Claus, and a particularly fine one he made. The cantata embraced several violin solos, which were admirably rendered by Mr. Jeff Thistlethwaite.

The proceeds of the anniversary amounted to $65.90.
