Methodist Anniversary

The Methodist Sabbath School entertainment goes on record this year as a decided success. Those who worked so hard are indeed to be congratulated on the success of their efforts and the management of the school are gratified with the financial results of the anniversary. The tables were laid in the basement of the church and the ladies of the congregation supplied eatables in abundance. After all had tea the program, which was of unusual excellence, was commenced in the body of the church. Recitations and readings, were given by Miss Ella Karstedt, Gladys Cornfield, Howard McCauley, Elda Karstedt and Mable Richardson, and little Florence Bunt recited "The Goblins will get you if you Don't Watch out" in an inimitable manner. Elda Karstedt sang a solo. One of the best selections on the program was a motion song, a duet "Nearer my God to Thee" was sung by Misses Christene Richardson and Florence Thurston while little miss Lillian Bunt, on the platform went through motions illustrative of the song. She was dressed in a long white robe and her hair was hanging about her shoulders, while her silent interpretation of the song was simply perfect in every detail and produced favorable coment from all who saw it. "The Jolly Soldier Boys" was a cute drill by a number of little boys and created much amusement. Misses Lillian and Laura Armstrong sang a duet. A selection by a quartette, composed of Misses Zilla Trimble and Florence Thurston and Messrs. R. Wilcock and E. Bentham was well received. Master "Bobs" Trimble and little Renie Cargo gave a unique duet. Miss Irene Wilson sang a solo and was heartily encored. Miss Irene's charming voice is well known to Flesherton audiences and is always appreciated. "How Santa Claus Comes," by eight little boys and girls, was a startling illusion illustrating Santa coming down the chimney head first, and caused intense amusement. Misses Elsie Wright, Gladys Cornfield and Irene Wilson created a favorable impression in a Japanese Drill. The costumes were Japanese in style and the various movements of the drill were gracefully given. The main event on the program was the cantata, "Santa Claus' Dream," in which a number of scholars took part. The children did their parts well and a good moral was brought out. The Cantata included a duet which was capably given by Misses Christene Richardson and Florence Thurston.

The proceeds of the anniversary amounted to $66.00 and the school is reported in a flourishing condition. In the neighborhood of one hundred books were added to the library during the past year to take the place of damaged or out of date books.

Born,—To Mr. and Mrs. Will Gordon, a daughter.

Mrs. Adam Smith met with a painful accident one day last week, when she ran a nail in her arm, which caused a nasty wound.

Mr. Henry Cairns has purchased Mr. Walker Sloan's drive shed and had it moved near his own store, to accommodate the public.

Hatherton

Christmas is over and we wish you, Mr. Editor, and staff a happy and prosperous new year.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell of Toronto spent Christmas holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Scilley.

Mr. and Mrs. Crombie of the Centre Line took Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winters.

Mr. A. Hawman and sister, Mildred, of Collingwood, are the guests of their cousin, Miss Mabel Winters, and other friends.

Mr. J. Loughead and family spent Christmas with his brother near Singhampton.

Mr. H. Down was appointed trustee in place of the retiring trustee, Mr. John Arnott.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Robert Arnott, but trust she will soon take a change for the better.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Will Beaty to our neighborhood and join with their many friends in wishing for them a long and happy married life.

Died—On Sunday, Dec. 29, at the residence of his sister-in-law, Mrs. John Winters, sr., Mr. Samuel Winters, aged 70 years. He had been in failing health for the past year. He ate his Christmas dinner with the family and during the afternoon was seized with a stroke and never regained consciousness. He lingered until Sunday morning at 1 o'clock, when he passed peacefully away, the funeral taking place Tuesday afternoon to Maxwell. A short service was held at the house, when his pastor, Rev. Mr. Ballantyne, spoke from the words, "Prepare to meet thy God," which was solemn and impressive. It is true that in the midst of life we are in death. Deceased leaves behind him one remaining brother out of a family of eleven, Rev. David Winters, Presbyterian minister living near Philadelphia. A number from a distance attended the funeral of their uncle, including Mr. and Mrs. Crombie of Crombie's Crossing, Mr. and Mrs. R. Scilley from Stayner, and Mrs. Service from Singhampton.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Badgerow of this line celebrated the 20th anniversary of their marriage on Dec. 28. A number of friends and acquaintances were invited to spend the evening, where a most enjoyable time was spent in social chat and music by Mrs. J. L. Wood of Ceylon on the organ accompanied on the banjo and autoharp by Mr. H. R. Dyson. A six-o'clock dinner of roast fowl and other delicacies was served, to which ample justice was given by the guests. Mr. and Mrs. B. received many beautiful presents in china, linen and glassware, and the toast of the evening was that they might be spared many more years of happy married life together. The company joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again."

A Cure for Corns.

Cheap acid preparations are useless—use the old standard—Putnam's Corn Extractor. For fifty years Putnam's has been the one painless cure.

Mr. Andrew Frost of this place has been appointed road-master of the Owen Sound branch of the C. P. R. with the headquarter at Orangeville. Mr. Frost entered upon the duties of his new position on the 23rd of Dec. His appointment is a very popular one both with the officials of the company and the men, as he is looked upon as one of the most competent men for the position in the service of the company. He had the offer of a similiar appointment on the new line to Sudbury about a year ago but declined. Mr. Frost will move to Orangeville early in the new year.—Norwood Register.

Don't Neglect Your Cough

You may dislike taking medicine—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "Catarrhozone"—it isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor, full of pine escences and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that's congested is healed, irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleared out, and all symptons of cold and catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, so sure, so pleasant as Catarrhozone. In 25c and $1.00 sizes at all dealers.
