Winter Weddings

McFADDEN—WALLER—On New Years day the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller of this township was the scene of a pretty wedding when their eldest daughter, Jane Elizabeth, was united in marriage to James Albert McFadden of Mono Centre. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Caldwell and was witnessed by a goodly number of friends of the bride and groom. The bride was prettily attired in navy blue ladies cloth with trimmings of white silk and applique. Miss Annie Waller acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was ably supported by his brother Robert of Mono. After the ceremony the young couple were tendered the hearty congratulations of their friends, after which the wedding party partook of a dainty wedding breakfast. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. McFadden bore testimony of the'r good will and esteem for them by many handsome gifts accompanied by good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. McFadden left on a short wedding trip of a few days to Owen Sound, Tara and Arkwright. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wish-bone brooch set with pearls, and to tha bridesmaid a harvest moon crescent brooch, and to the groomsman a tie pin. The young couple will reside in Mono Centre, where Mr. McFadden carries on a general store. Mrs. John Stuart played the Wedding March. The friends from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. McFadden, father and mother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Rutledge of Shelburne.

Davis—Breadner—A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Geo. Snell, Markdale, on Christmas day, when his sister-in-law, Miss Sarah M. Breadnor, was united in wedlock to Mr. Wesley Davis, eldest son of Trustee Wm. Davis of Flesherton. The bridal party was unattended save by a little flower girl, Miss Alma Johnston, who charmingly awaited on the bride. A quite unusual departure was the playing of the Wedding March by Mrs. Davis, mother of the groom, who in her younger days was an expert musician and whose fingers have not lost their cunning The bride was very becomingly gowned in pear grey silk and her going away gown was of prune-colored silk. About thirty guests witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. Sheppard, Presbyterian pastor. An exceedingly sumptuous Christmas dinner was served, after which the happy young couple left by the evening train for Toronto and other points. They will reside in Markdale. The Advance tenders hearty wishes for their future happiness.

GORDON—DAMUDE—On December 31, at the residence of Mr. Ernest Heyl, 3827 Grand Boulevard, Chicago, by the Rev. W. Covert, Rita Adelaide, youngest daughter of Mr. S. Damude of Balmy Beach, Toronto, to John Gordon, jr., of Winnipeg.

OSTRANDER—KNISELY—At the residence of Mr. Louis Frook, the bride's grandfather, by Rev. J. A. Matheson of Priceville on Dec. 24th, 1907, Mr. Eli B. Ostrander to Miss Carrie E. Knisley, both of Proton.

SNELL—SNELL—At Maple Grove farm, Egerement, on Christmas Day, by Rev. John Little, Miss Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Snell, to Geo. Snell of Ceylon.

HANNAH—LOVE—Married on Christmas Day at the home of the bride's parents Mr and Mrs. W. J. Love, Artemesia, by the Rev. J. Ferguson of Dundalk. Robert Hannah to Lila May Love, Miss Maude Robinson of Bethel, performed the duties of bridesmaid and Mr. M. Dever of Berkley ably assisted the groom.

PEDLAR—BENEDICT—At Glen Ewen, Sask., on Christmas Day, Alma Elmer Benedict, Glen Ewen, to Hugh Doherty Pedlar, formerly of Flesherton.

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.
