EDITORIAL DRIFT

Senate Reform is still a fruitful theme, although baldheaded with age. Everything about the Senate is baldheaded, but it seems to have discovered the fountain of life so diligently sought by Ponce de Leon and others. Its death has been prominently before the public for the past thirty years, yet there are no signs of dissolution. Mr. H. H. Miller, member for South Grey, is the latest candidate for executioner. He proposes to appoint no more members to the senate and when by attrition the chamber has been reduced to a few members they should be pensioned off and the Senate as an institution would thus die a natural death without any undue force being brought to bear. It's demise would not be accompanied by any prolonged agony or heartrending details for the yellow journals to gloat over. It strikes us that Mr. Miller's scheme is the best yet. It is humane, and gives the victim time to prepare for dissolution. What more could be desired in the way of an execution?

The result of snow blockades is again emphasized this year in business stagnation Every winter we see more or less of it—business held up for days while merchants drum their feet on counters and farmers dig out the woodpile and sit by the stove with never a thought of going out to see the merchant. Timbering operations cannot be proceeded with, and everybody gets lonesome for something to do. Snow seems to be our particular bete noir in this county owing, perhaps, to its geographical position between the lakes and embracing the highest altitude in south and eastern Ontario. It seems to us that the purchase of a few snow plows by our municipal fathers would go a long way towards mitigating circumstances. These plows, samples of which are privately owned in this township, do good work and it would not take long to open up all our main roads with a few of them after a heavy storm. Our township fathers should take this matter into their most serious consideration.

The statue of Liberty in New York harbor does not stand for nothing. She evidently holds out her torch to boodlers and murderers and criminals of all classes—provided they have enough money. It is money that "elocutes" with that funny old Liberty girl, as witnessed in the case of the unsavory Thaw trial which came to an end in New York last week. If we could be satisfied that Thaw would be held in Matteawan for the balance of his unprofitable life there would be some satisfaction in the verdict, but we are given to understand that there is such a thing as public sentiment in New York (public sentiment, forsooth!) which makes it imperative that he should dwell for a short time between the walls of a lunatic asylum and that he will then be returned to the bosom of his estimable family with the honors of war all his. When that happens let us hope that the newspapers will let the Thaw family drop into black oblivion. We never want to hear the name again, unless in connection with an execution, and that the shortest kind of paragraph. One or two of our Toronto newspapers have disgraced their pages with minute details of this trial, even going so far as to tell us that Thaw's wife said "Oh, Harry!" when she heard the verdict. Such minutea does not make good reading from our standpoint, and we think we are endorsed by the mass of right-thinking men and women.

Hay is selling in Ayton at $13.00 a ton with plenty off ring, and occasional load being brought back home for want of a purchaser. In this connection the Advance remarks that three months ago it was expected that by this time all the horses and cows in town would be piled on the bone heap, life being extinct because of lack of feed. It is not wise to anticipate trouble, nor to yell before you hurt.

On January 5th, John, father of Patrick McCurdy of 1st con. Elderslie, reached the century mark. In the fall of last year he took up with a fork all the potatoes on his son's farm and this winter has done nearly all the chores at the barn. Until four years ago he attended all his neighbors' threshings and might be seen alongside the feeder cutting bands with the dexterity of a boy. It is a very small percentage of people that live to be centenarians and if they do they are not usually enjoying such good health as the Elderslie man.—Chesley Enterprise.

Rev. B. J. O'Connel, of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, Mt. Forest, died suddenly on Saturday night. Deceased was 64 years of age. He has had charge of the parish for the last thirty years and was well known throughout Western Ontario. He was born in Limerick, Ireland.

The Mono Mills correspondent of the Orangeville Banner says: "While Mrs. Geo. McManus and her daughter, Miss Estella, were returning from service in the Presbyterian church two weeks ago last Sunday night, they met a horse and cutter being driven most furiously by a well known young man from Orangeville, which crashed into them, the shaft of the cutter penetrating their horses side behind the shoulder, breaking a number of its ribs and crushing the broken portions into the lung. The poor animal lingered for about two days before death ended its sufferings. The two ladies fortunately escaped serious injury."

It is a significant fact that almost every other Sunday thus far this year has been noted for stormy weather. We heard a lady remark the other day that possibly the storms were sent to try the patience of church-goers. Whether the storms have any religious significance or not it is worthy of note that many persons who habitually make the weather an excuse for their non-appearance at the church will brave the severest snow-storm to attend a hockey match or a concert —Meaford Mirror.

F. Sherratt shot a wildcat near his farm in Melancthon on Saturday and he is on the lookout for that big lynx which was tracked by Dundalk hunters out near his place a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Sherratt is one of the loyal veterans of the Fenian Raid times and we would not care to insure the life of any game that came within range of his musket.—Herald

Preacher's Opinions

Rev. P. K. McRae, Forks Baddeck, C. B.: "I always count it a pleasure to recommend the Dr. Slocum Remedies to my parishioners. I believe there is nothing better for throat and lung troubles or weakness or run-down system. For speaker's sore throat I have found Psychine very beneficial."

Rev. W. H. Stevens, Paisley, Ont.: "Psychine seemed just the stimulant my system needed. I shall add my testimony as to its efficacy at every opportunity."

Rev. R. M. Browne, Amherst Head, N.S., "I have often recommended Psychine since taking it myself, for it is a cure for the troubles you specify."

Rev. Chas. Stirling, Bath, N.B.: "I have used Psychine in my family; the results were marvelous. I have visited people who state that they never used its equal. I strongly recommend it.

Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, Markdale, Ont.: "I have taken two bottles of Psychine and am pleased to say that I am greatly improved in health. I was troubled with my throat, but now I find it about restored to its normal condition. I find my work very much less taxing. I believe Psychine is all claimed for it."

These are earnest preachers of the gospel of Psychine. They know whereof they speak. Psychine cures all throat, lung and stomach troubles. It is a great voice strengthener, acting directly on the vocal, respiratory and digestive organs, thus specially adapted to public speakers. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Ltd., Toronto.
