Old Boreas gave us another whack on Saturday last. Five days of nice mild weather was followed on Friday night by a sleet storm and all day Saturday a raging snowstorm whirled over the country. As a result of the sleet, telephone and telegraph wires were down. The Saturday morning train from Toronto became stalled three miles this side of Shelburne and did not get through until 11 a. m. Sunday. A special went down from Owen Sound Saturday a. m. and arrived in Toronto on time.

Mr. Frank Chard had a cow with a swelling, this winter, behind the fore shoulder, the cause of which he could not fathom. The other day he called a neighbor, Mr. R. Best, in consultation, and together they opened the lump. Inside they discovered a hat pin eight inches long, one of those with a big, round head. This was extracted and the swelling is healed. The pin had been lost in the field by Mrs. Chard last summer and in some manner the cow must have got it into her stomach. The funny part is how the big head followed the point out as far as the hide of the animal. The pin was found to be not even bent when extracted.

Mrs. Wm. Neil Dead

Mrs. Martha Neil, relict of the late Wm. Neil, died at her home here on Monday, after a few day's illness of paralysis. She was seized with the stroke Wednesday of last week, while apparently in excellent health, and lingered totally unconscious until 5 a. m. Monday, when her spirit took its flight. She was 69 years of age, and was born in Darlington, her maiden name being Martha Nay. She was married to Wm. Neil 46 years ago this coming March and settled with her husband on the farm now owned by Mr. R. Waller, west back line, Artemesia, Twenty-seven years ago they moved to this village, where they have since resided. Mr. and Mrs. Neil were not blessed with any family. The deceased lady was very highly respected and was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. The funeral on Wednesday afternoon of this week was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Little, the remains being taken to the Presbyterian church, where service was held previous to interment by the side of her husband who predeceased her only a few months ago.

Aunt Jerusha in Town

Aunt Jerusha Dow of Toronto was in town last week and gave an exceedingly amusing exhibition of her family album to a large audience in the town hall Wednesday evening. The stage was so arranged that a door represented the album cover and this door opened to exhibit the subjects, one by one. The subjects were all local characters dressed up in costumes of bygone days, representing individuals and groups. Aunt Jerusha exhibited these with a running fire of witty comment—when the cheering and laughing audience would allow her to be heard. The part of Aunt Jerusha was represented by Miss Belle Thompson of Toronto, who was all that could be desired as l aoquacious but warm hearted old successor of her famous "ancestors." She also gave a reading that was thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Irene Wilson and Master Elmer Wright gave a charmingly rendered Scotch duet in costume, "When ye gang awa', Jamie." Mr. J. Patton supplied violin music. The house was a good one, netting a good round sum for the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church. Receipts at the door were $46.

The ladies desire to thank those who assisted them by preparing the stage.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

"'Don't trifle with a cold,' is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be a slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold." Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Miss Evelina Smith has returned home from the city on a visit to her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams spent Sunday with Mrs. Paul of Lady Bank.

Mr. Jonathan Latimer, who was so ill for some time, is able to be around again.

Mrs. John Walker of Flesherton was the guest of Miss Beecroft for a few days.

Miss Ella Pedlar, who has been spending some time in Toronto, has returned home

Miss Bertha Williams was the guest of friends in the valley for a few days recently.

Mrs. Boland of Vandeleur was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Munshaw, the past week.

Miss Annie Hislop of the valley was the guest of the Misses Williams the past week.

Mr. William Hislop of the valley had the misfortune to lose one of his horses the past week from distemper.

A number of Vandeleur folks came on a surprise party to Mr. and Mrs. Munshaw, of the Eugenia House. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

We expect soon to hear the wedding bell ring for one of our young bachelors. Once the weddings start the snow will soon go. Oh, may it be soon.

News of interest is rather scarce. The storm king still reigns supreme, and the roads are past all records for drifts. Visitors to our village are scarce as it would take a man with nerves of steel to venture out through the drifts.

A Prized Cough Cure

"I have not been without a bottle of Coltsfoote Expectorant in the house for over nine years. At that time I procured it for a bad cold I had. It worked such wonders then that it has been a household remedy ever since, and we will have no other for coughs and colds—it is so pleasant to take, and all of my children look for it as soon as they get a cold at all. Nearly all of them have been subject to croup, and that's when I find Coltsfoote Expectorant useful. You are welcome to use this testimonial as you wish."

MRS. LEWIS NIGH.

Free Sample of Coltsfoote Expectorant

will be sent to any person sending their name and address and naming this paper. It has established a wonderful record as a successful cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and all irritated conditions of the throat and chest. It is the prescription of a great specialist in medicine. At all good druggists, 25c. Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, Toronto.
