The Young People's Guild of the Presbyterian church held its first social—an enjoyable affair—last week. The society is but a few weeks out of port, with a membership of about thirty, and has already given evidence of being a seaworthy craft. May it have a steady hand upon the helm, and weather every storm.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held in the town hall on Tuesday, 31st inst., at 2.30 p. m. Subjects to be discussed: Patriotism—Our Flag; Spring sewing (Interchange of Patterns)—led by Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Bunt, and Mrs. R. Best. Visitors are invited to attend.

Mrs. Fred Tucker received a paper last week announcing the death of her grandmother, Mrs. David Fralick of Uxbridge, at the age of 87 years. The family, whose line is terminated by the death of this lady, enjoyed a record for longevity that is seldom equalled. The past record shows ages reached by other members of the family of 97, 95, 93, 82, 80, 87 and 88.

Mr. James Kester, residing with his son-in-law, Mr. Richard Porteous, at Rockvale, shot a small lynx the other day while the animal was trying to make a meal out of a plymouth rock rooster that it had captured in the barnyard about the noon hour. The cat was as poor as poverty and must have been nearly starved to death in order to make it so bold.

Mr. Jos. Cairns has been doing some deals in stallions recently. He has sold Grownslow Charming to McKenzie and Clinton of Redickville, and Grownslow Jr. to Baden and McDonald of Exeter, taking from the latter, in exchange, a magnificent imported Clyde, Gray's Gartley, which he thinks will be just what is wanted by the farmers of this district.

A successful box social was held at the Station on Wednesday night of last week under the auspices of L. O. L. No. 883. Forty-two boxes were auctioned by D. McPhail. W. G. Logan of Owen Sound gave recitations and singing in his usual amusing style. Miss McLeod and Miss Sproat gave an exhibition of Highland dancing. Music was supplied by Messrs. Donald McLeod, Geo. H Cairns, R. Brodie and Norman McLeod. Mrs. J. L. Woods presided at the instrument and Mr. Woods occupied the chair in his usual graceful manner.

Mr. Malcolm Ferguson had an exciting time on the valley road last Saturday. He was bringing a load of logs home and while coming down a steep grade the neckyoke broke and the whole outfit started off for the foot of the hill at breakneck speed—all but Mr. Ferguson. He jumped when the accident happened. Nearing the bottom the sleigh, not being guided, ran off the road, but the horses didn't—they kept on for a short distance, when one of them took to the bush. The other came on up the road for about a mile, when it was stopped. We understand that the harness was not badly damaged.

A jolly party of 31 neighbors paid a neighborly call on Mr. Lemuel Betts of the Collingwood gravel on Monday evening last to congragulate that young (?) gentleman, upon attaining his 89th birthday. Mr. Betts is hale and hearty still and wishes us to express his gratitude for the kindly visit of his neighbors. The latter enjoyed themselves, too, being served with a dainty supper, and afterwards enjoyed reminiscences, etc., of a nature generally indulged in by youngsters who have reached the three score years or less.

Saturday World: "John T. Caldwell and Minnie Caldwell of Flesherton have begun proceedings against the C.P.R. Co. for alleged negligence. They are claiming $15,000 damages. . . Henry Holman of Toronto (?) while a passenger on the C.P.R, met with an accident. Now he has issued a writ against the company, claiming unstated damages." The above cases, referred to by the World, are the outcome of the Caledon wreck. The company, we understand, made a settlement with Mr Holman for a few dollars the day after the accident, but subsequently serious complications set in and for weeks he has been in the hospital. It is claimed that Mr. Holman was totally unfit, mentally, to do business when the claims agent called on him and effected a settlement and the above case is the result. Dr. Caldwell and wife expressed surprise upon being shown the above, as they say they had not authorized their solicitors to name any sum.
