Mr. Lucas' Position.

In the budget debate in the Legislature on Thursday the member for Centre Grey got after the leader of the Opposition and gave him a rather warm time. During the course of his address Mr. Lucas said:

Another matter on which he proposed to touch was the temperance issue, if there was such a thing. He wished to make clear his personal views in regard to the three-fifths local option clause. He regretted that he could not believe that the leader of the Opposition and some of his followers were not actuated by partisan considerations in their opposition to the three-fifths clause. Mr. Clarke (Northumberland) had said that Hon. G. W. Ross was prevented from bringing down advanced temperance legislation only by a revolt in his party. Rumor says that the leader of the Opposition and Mr. Graham were leaders in the revolt. As any rate, at the Liberal convention the two gentlemen were the leaders of the liquor interest," said Mr. Lucas, who read a resolution of the Ontario Alliance, to the effect that the attitude of Messrs. MacKay and Graham dispelled all hope that the Ross Government would keep its temperance pledges. For himself, Mr. Lucas said he would not have adopted the three-fifths provision, although many prominent temperance men differed from him in opinion. There might be good results, but there were objections that the clause did not strike everybody as fair. Mr. Hanna had, however, offered a strong argument in its favor when he said it made for permanency. The clause should have a fair trial in Ontario. Experience might convince the Government that the provision was no longer neccessary for permanency of local option by-laws. Nevertheless, the Liquor License Law enacted by the present Government was the most advanced passed in many years, and there was a marked improvement in its enforcement. Legislation was the result of growth, and Mr. Lucas believed the Government was travelling in the righ direction.

The Collingwood Bylaw Quashed

Mr. Justice Britton gave judgment Thursday afternoon last quashing the high license bylaw passed in the town of Collingwood. By this enactment the $2500 fee for liquor licenses, decided on by Collingwood Council, is knocked out. His Lordship holds that the Legislature in passing the law which permitted this action by the Council, did not intend that prohibition should be obtained in such a manner. The proper fee for a place like Collingwood, he thinks, is about $450, and for large cities $1200. If $450 is not enough he is of the opinion that a figure between $450 and $1200 would be proper. Instead of that, he says, they have fixed a fee which, as far as he knows is the highest in the world.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanoga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

An Indian named Steve McGregor, who lives at Cape Croker, escaped with his life but suffered a heavy loss in the waters of the Georgian bay recently. He was on his way home from Wiarton with a load of baled hay and oats and was driving on the ice. When near Gravelly Point the ice broke and McGregor who was standing on the load jumped to solid ice but his team was drowned and the load disappeared in the deep water.

Preacher's Opinions

Rev. P. K. McRae, Forks Baddeck, C. B.: "I always count it a pleasure to recommend the Dr. Slocum Remedies to my parishioners. I believe there is nothing better for throat and lung troubles or weakness or run-down system. For speaker's sore throat I have found Psychine very beneficial."

Rev. W. H. Stevens, Paisley, Ont.: "Psychine seemed just the stimulant my system needed. I shall add my testimony as to its efficacy at every opportunity."

Rev. R. M. Browne, Amherst Head, N.S., "I have often recommended Psychine since taking it myself, for it is a cure for the troubles you specify."

Rev. Chas. Stirling, Bath, N.B.: "I have used Psychine in my family; the results were marvelous. I have visited people who state that they never used its equal. I strongly recommend it.

Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, Markdale, Ont.: "I have taken two bottles of Psychine and am pleased to say that I am greatly improved in health. I was troubled with my throat, but now I find it about restored to its normal condition. I find my work very much less taxing. I believe Psychine is all claimed for it."

These are earnest preachers of the gospel of Psychine. They know whereof they speak. Psychine cures all throat, lung and stomach troubles. It is a great voice strengthener, acting directly on the vocal, respiratory and digestive organs, thus specially adapted to public speakers. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Ltd., Toronto.

A Reminiscence of Early Days

A reporter of the Toronto Telegram has interviewed an old musician of that city who talks in a reminiscent strain of the old days in the 60's when he "called off" for dances in the counties of Dufferin, Wellington, and Grey. He says there were hotels every five or ten lots apart, the girls all chewed gum and wore crinolines. When asked if he had any adventures he replied with the following:

"One cold snowy evening some of us fellows who had organized a minstrel band, calling ourselves 'The Iron Clad Minstrels," struck Flesherton—we were booked for a show there, niggers and all the rest of it, and carried four brass instruments and a big drum.

Once inside the hotel where our performance was to to be held, I was struck by the number of people assembled, as the hour was early, and going up to the proprietor, remarked:

"I'm glad to see so many people here!"

"He looked at me rather queerly and said:

"'Yes, but do you know what they're here for? Last night a poor fellow fell down the stairs and broke his neck, and the inquest is being held here; and more than that, in the other room there, a horse thief is having his trial."

"It was true. Here we were, inquest, horse thief trial and minstrel show all on together. Well anyway we went on with the show, but there was one thing I couldn't stand. They showed me into a room where I was to black up for my part, and there lying before me, was the corpse. No, sir, there was no use talking, I couldn't go on then, not until they had taken it somewhere else, which they did at my request?"

[The above incident was an absolute fact and occurred in the year 1866. The victim was a traveller whose name is forgotten. He leaned against the cellar door at the Munshaw house and, the door giving way, he was precipitated down cellar, breaking his neck, and lived only a few minutes. At that time Host Munshaw had a negro hostler who carried the corpse across the road to Trimble's warehouse and brought it back again after the show. Wm. Paton of the Toronto line was bar tender for Mr. Munshaw at the time. The horse thief part of the above is a neat bit of fiction, however.—Ed. Advance.]
