One day last week Vera, the 12 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Loucks, fell a short distance out of a tree and cut herself very severely in the groin on some object. A well attended meeting of citizens in the town hall Monday evening completed details for the monster holiday demonstration on July 1 next at which $400 in prizes will be given. The day will be the greatest ever—twelve hours of solid fun and enjoyment. The carrying out of this programme which will be thoroughly advertised, ought to put everybody who attends in the best of mental condition for the next twelve months and knock all chronic cases of dyspepsia. Watch for the programme.

Mr. J. J. Kaitting of Feversham was in town on Saturday and showed The Advance a new saw that he has recently patented. The saw will operate either as a cross-cut or rip saw with equal facility and with greater speed than the old style. The new idea is all in the formation of the teeth. Mr. Kaitting had just returned from a trip to Galt, where he made arrangements for the manufacture of his saw by the big saw manufacturing firm of Shirley & Dietrich. We hope the new idea will prove a money-maker for Mr. Kaitting.

He has been preaching for almost a quarter of a century (24 years) and his natural strength is not abated. At the recent Owen Sound N. B. C. contests we note the following prize-winners: Rapid calculation, C. D. McMillan, Priceville, first; best spelling, Alice Nicholson, Flesherton, second; best letter copying, John A. Cairns, Ceylon, second; best kept set of books, Eugenie Duncan, Feversham, fourth. The prizes, which are presented by the Principal, were more keenly contested this year, on account of the large attendance. The presentations were made by Rev. H. S. Calkins, Rev. W. H. Chantler, J. C. Miller, secretary-treasurer Harrison & Sons, Limited, and H.H.Burgess I.P.S.

The horse fair on Saturday could not be set down as an unqualified success, there being only four animals shown. Of course these were the cream of the class and consisted of Mr. Patton's two clydes, also Mr. Cairns' and Mr. Burnett's clydes. Of these, three are well known, and the fourth—Greys Gartley—owned by Mr. Jos. Cairns, was much admired. He is a pretty animal, very finely proportioned, in excellent trim, and will, no doubt, prove very popular. Mr. Paton's Merry Mason and Spaurelbank are in the pink of condition, as also is Mr. Burnett's Dunure Mac. These are all choice animals and there is plenty of room for them. Mr. Cairns, we believe, will travel his new horse over the route travelled last year by his Grownslow Charming.

A Flesherton citizen informs The Advance that while in Markdale on Friday last he witnessed a foot race of an exceedingly amusing nature. A lady inmate of the House of Refuge took it into her head that "Liberty or death" should be her motto in future, and accordingly bolted up and through the town towards the green fields that to her were so enticing. Manager Harness was not in the pink of condition for running that morning but necessity knows no law, and he had to get after that woman, which he proceeded to do at his usual pace of about a mile in fifteen. Going up main street he put on a spurt owing to the encouragement vouchsafed by hundreds of spectators, and gained slightly on the lady, but as they disappeared over the grade towards the station the woman appeared to be gaining once more on the perspiring manager. We have not learned the result of the race, but it looked like a draw to our reporter. Later—The runaway was captured, but not by the manager. To Mr. Baines belonged that honor. The manager is said to have been considerably incapacitated, physically, by his extraordinary exertion.
