Remember some of the old time songs, religious and secular? And how everybody was singing "Everybody's Doing It", "Daisy, Daisy, give me your answer do, I'm half crazy all for the love of you, it won't be a stylish marriage, for I can't afford a carriage, but you'll look sweet on a seat of a bicycle built for two"; "In the Good Old Summer Time", "Take Me Out to the Ball Game", "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly", "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard, Sliding Down Your Cellar Door", "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" and others.

What has become of the old deep bass songs and the lyric tenor ballads?

Remember such favorites as "Old Kentucky Home", "Sweet Adeline", "In the Good Old Summer Time", "When You Wore A Tulip" and "Juanita", "Do You Ken John Peel", "Sweet Rosy O'Grady", "My Wild Irish Rose", "The Bell in the Light House", "The Vagabond", "Cruising Down the River", "The Bells of St. Mary's", "Shipmates of Mine", "Roses of Picardy" and many others?

What has become of the old orchard with its Yellow Transparents, Red Astrachans, Russets, Spies, Talman Sweets, Duchess, Pippins, Baldwins and the crabapples? What has become of the pears, peaches, green gage plums, green and blue grapes, thimble berries and gooseberries?
