The great Republican convention in Chicago last week chose William H. Taft as their candidate for the presidency of the United States. The Democratic convention will be held in Denver on July 7, when, doubtless, William Jennings Bryan will be the nominee. His nomination is said to be settled even now, "all but the yelling."

Some of the Liberal newspapers ...ll it a strange alliance that the ...rty and temperance party shoul... ...e on the same ticket in the recent election. Yes, it is rather strange, but not from their standpoint. The strangeness consists in the fact that the liquor interests allied themselves with the temperance forces, not the temperance forces with the liquor party. This was caused by the fact that the liquor party considers the three-fifths clause a good one for them; and the temperance people consider that Mr. Whitney has given them advanced legislation with the probability of more to follow. As a matter of fact it was not an alliance at all. Neither party felt justified in placing their trust in Mr. MacKay, and that is all there was to it.

Mr. M. K Richardson spent all of last week in Simcoe county looking after the neglected waifs in that district. When he has been at this work for a few years more Mr. Richardson will know Ontario like an open book. He has already covered Nippising, Muskoka, Simcoe, Grey and Bruce. He keeps in touch with all the little folks placed under his charge and some of the letters received by him are extremely interesting. We believe the government is doing its best work in the line of saving children and by its new method of reclaiming unfortunate women and giving them a chance to regain lost self respect. In these things the government is doing a really commendable work, and has practically proved that reformatories, such as the Mercer, are not a necessity where women are concerned.

Wedding Bells Rang

At "Sunnyside," the beautiful and commodious residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis, north of Flesherton, a pretty wedding took place on Monday, June 22, when their eldest daughter, Miss Winnie, was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Badgerow of Cooksville, near Toronto. As the hour of 11.30 a.m. came the Wedding March was played by Mrs. Davis, mother of the bride, and the young couple were married under a beautiful arch of evergreens and lilacs with a background of ferns. The ceremony of wedlock was performed by the bride's minister, Rev. Dr. Caldwell, of Flesherton. Glenn Davis, brother of the bride, and Miss Laura Davis, her only sister, efficiently performed the services of groomsman and bridesmaid. The bride looked charming in a dress of white gloria silk trimmed with applique and a veil of silk tulle, with a coronet of apple blossoms. The bridesmaid was dressed in navy blue with white silk waist to match. After the ceremony and congratulations the large company went to a plenteous and well-furnished dinner. The presents to the bride were beautiful and numerous, some coming from as far as Toronto and Manitoba, Preston and Leeds, and displayed attractive silver and glassware The young bridegroom is a farmer and gardener at Cooksville, and is a young man of sterling and excellent qualities. We all offer our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Badgerow as they go to their new home in Cooksville. The groom's present to the bride was a toilet set, to the bridesmaid a pretty locket and chain, and to the groomsman a swastika pin Mr. and Mrs. Badgerow will be at home after July 1 when they will receive their friends. The bride's going away dress was of grey plaid tweed trimmed with white applique and hat to match.

During the thunderstorm last Friday Mrs. Bennet, a woman who lives some distance north of Markdalke, came into close quarters with lightning. She was at the stove preparing supper when the juice struck the chimney and came down the stove pipe, jumping to Mrs. Bennet, and tore a shoe from her foot. She was stunned but not fatally hurt.

Mr. Hussey, of Phelpston, has reached the remarkable age of 105 years.

Not far from Kearney—on the road to Emsdale—there is a hollow near the roadside that is known as the "Devil's Wash Basin." It may rain in torrents but no water will be found in his Satanic majesty's wash basin. When the snow melts in the spring, pools will form everywhere else, but the "Devil's wash basin" is always dry. For this reason it received the sulphurous name given above; the general belief that hell is a hot place. But we hurl back with scorn the base insinuation that his Satanic majesty located his wash basin in this neighborhood because he found himself in congenial quarters.—Kearney correspondent to the Burks Falls Arrow.
