The average woman can bury her troubles, says a lady writer. Sure and then start hunting for more trouble.

"Your friend Mrs. Strong Called You!"

Do you occasionally get personal messages relayed through your neighbor's telephone? Have you considered installing a telephone in your own home? Its cost is moderate — only a few cents a day. It is so much more convenient to talk direct with your friends. And there is no bother for your neighbors.

In addition to making life more enjoyable because it brings your friends so near, the telephone is a business asset. It helps you sell your farm products, it enables you to get the best prices.

There is hardly a thing you can think of which gives so much for so little.
