Eugenia.

Several lodges of Orangemen intend spending the ever-glorious Twelfth with their brethren at Eugenia. A hearty welcome will be given to all and a good time is expected. A good dinner and other refreshments will be served, as usual.

Mr. Joseph Fenwick and sister, Mrs. Thomas Paul, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Fenwick of Chesley.

Master George Williams is visiting friends at Chesley and other places in Bruce County.

Mr. Deagle spent the past week at Toronto and Brantford.

All were shocked at the sad death of Miss Annie Jamieson, aged 20 years, a sweet young life cut off so soon. Truly God moves in a mysterious way. Her remains were brought from Toronto for burial at Salem. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of all this community in their great sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Leitch of Mt. Forest are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. T. E. Fenwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey of Meaford were guests over Sunday of Mrs. Adam Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Duckett have returned to their summer cottage for a time and hope their old customers will patronize them as usual.

Mr. John Williams' barn was considerably damaged by lightning during the severe storm of Tuesday last. His horses were made completely deaf and some young fowl were killed by the shock.

Mrs McCallum has gone to visit her children at Portland, oregon.

Osprey Council.

The Council of Osprey met at Singhampton on Saturday, June 20th. The members were all present, Minutes of the last meeting and minutes of the Court of Revision were read and adopted. Communications were read from the Dundalk public library asking for a grant. Reports were read from the Road and Bridge committee regarding the building of Feversham bridge, also regarding the building of a bridge on the gravel road opposite lot 37 and on the Centre Line opposite lot 32. Robt. Brown presented an account of $20.58, gravel got from him in 1907.

McCallum—Taylor—That the request of the Dundalk library for a grant be not entertained.—Carried.

Down—Stephens—That the commissioner for Division No. 4, Wm. L. Taylor, be instructed to have a bridge built on the gravel road opposite lot 36, according to plans and specifications submitted to this Council.—Carried.

Stephens—Down—That the report of the Road and Bridge Committee regarding the bridge on the Centre Line be adopted and that the Reeve be instructed to have the said bridge built according to plans and specifications submitted to this Council.—Carried.

Stephens—Down—That the report of the Road and Bridge Committee regarding the building of Feversham bridge be adopted, and that the committee get plans and specifications prepared and have the said bridge built.—Carried.

Orders were issued on the treasurer to pay Robert Brown $20.58 for gravel got in 1907; Wm. L. Taylor, E. W. Norman, A. E. McCallum, $5 each for service on Road and Bridge Committee.

Bylaw No. 508, authorizing the construction of drain No. 2, and for borrowing $1900 for completing the said drainage works, was read a first and second time and ordered to be published in the Dundalk Herald.

Council adjourned to meet as a Court of Revision on drainage bylaw at Maxwell on Saturday, July 25 next.

THOS. SCOTT, Clerk.

Ceylon

Last week Mr. Jos. Phillips of Proton Station delivered the record spring lamb at this station. The chunk of mutton weighed exactly 100 lbs. and was purchased by Mr. R. Cook.

On Thursday last D. D. McLauchlan plead guilty, before magistrate McMullen, to a charge of "permitting liquor to be consumed on his premises by others than his family or guests." The charge was laid by Inspector Halbert, and Mr. McLauchlan was soaked $20.00, the full penalty of the law for a first offence.

Two of our young men, Roy Fletcher and Rob Tucker, who have been attending the Collegiate at Owen Sound, at time of writing are in durance vile—quarantined. They were exposed to small-pox and so the M. H. O. shut them up. It will be a pity if these young men are not liberated in time to write on their exams as they have both shown great ability in their studies.

"Capt." D. D. McLaughlan is making good progress with his new hotel. The brick work is nearing completion. To all appearance it will be a very creditable building.

Mr. Sangster Hemphill too has made a good start with his new residence, which is to be of cement.

We understand that D. Madill also in the event of not being able to sell out, purposes to erect a new residence.

Mr. Jas. Pattison is erecting an addition to his store, with a cellar beneath, this will make his store 20 feet longer and it will no doubt be a great advantage to him.

Mr. Roddie Stuart raised his new barn on Monday and Mr. Wm. Meades raised his new barn on Tuesday.

Gorden and Charles McMullen, having spent some time with their parents and other friends in this vicinity have returned to resume their duties in Toronto.

Mr. John Chislett is at present prostrated with stomach and liver trouble and other ailments. He suffers considerably and is very weak, but we hope he will soon be around again.

Mr. Alex McRae jr. has commenced hay-making, which will soon be the order of the day.

We are pleased to be able to report that Master James Sargent is able to be around again after about two weeks illness.

A number from here took in the excursion to Guelph last week. Forty four tickets were sold at this station.

Rock Mills

David English, Minneapolis, is spending a few weeks at his parental home.

Mrs. Robert Phillips of Toronto is visiting relatives in this district.

Misses Dora and Nellie Pedlar spent a few days in Avening last week.

The evangelistic services being held here are attended by very large crowds and are very successful, large numbers professing a change of life. The evening service on Sunday was attended by a specially large crowd, many having to be turned away.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Phillips and Master Walter Akitt took in the excursion to Guelph last Thursday.

Mrs. John Hargrave, jr., accompanied by baby, Freddie, and Master Edgar Betts, attended the wedding of the former's cousin, north Egremont.

Mr. Fred Jordon is one of the men chosen to go to Quebec. He was an artilleryman in Sheffield, England, for six years.

Miss Hannah Stafford of the 4th line visited with Mrs. John Hargrave, jr., on Sunday.

Miss Annie Betts visited with her grand mother, Mrs. Gilliland, the past week.

Misses Effie and Jessie and Mr. Frank Phillips, Toronto, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs S. Hoy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Phillips, Toronto, are visiting at R. Hoy's.

David Murray, near Maple, mourns the loss of his fine barn, as result of trying to shoot a skunk which was seen to run under the building. Seeing the creature take refuge there Mr. Murray and the hired man procured a revolver and proceeded to blaze away, with the result that the building was soon in flames. So rapidly did the fire spread that Mr. Murray had only time to remove three horses, one perishing in the flames. A number of pigs were also burned. The loss is estimated at $1200, but the amount of insurance, if any, was not learned.

A GREAT DAY'S SPORT

A Happy, Good-Natured Crowd and Record Gate Receipts.

Flesherton had another record breaking day in the line of sports on Wednesday. The weather could not have been ordered more perfect, and the crowd more than fulfilled anticipation, the gate receipts alone amounting to nearly $370, while the sports were of a specially interesting character. Mr. W. Hull, proprietor of the Erin Advocate, acted as judge of the horse racing and never have we had a judge that gave better satisfaction. Mr. Hull told The Advance that some of the heats were as fine as any one would see at the Woodbine.

The trades procession in the forenoon was a feature for which Flesherton has become famous, and on this occasion to say it upheld its reputation is sufficient. Nothing but praise for the elaborate display was elicited from the crowd of spectators. The first prize for outfit was taken by J. & W. Boyd with a complete store, with all departments working, on wheels; the second by J. Nuhn with woollen machinery going. These two displays were extremely creditable. We cannot ennumerate all, but a few were: Norris Bros., tin shop on wheels, paroid roofing and raining from spray pumps, eavetroughing, etc.; McTavish & Williams, blacksmith shop on wheels, horse and portable forge; M. Wilson, 3-storey cage, lambs, gobbler, with fox (?) on top; Clayton's, shoe shop in operation; W. Armstrong, jewellery; Dental office, Dr. Murray, boy in chair squealing blue murder, and blood spurting from mouth; A. Wilson, barber shop; F.G. Karstedt, store. There were many other attractive things in the procession, not the least of which was the crowd of "unclaimed jewels." The four dog wagons were also a nice feature.

The procession was marshalled by ex-president R. N. Henderson of Winnipeg, followed by the local committee, ministers of the town, township councillors, Flesherton Citizens' Band, and the procession of trades.

The afternoon was given over to sports at the grounds which resulted as follows:

Three-minute race—W. W. Trimble's Paddy McKinley 1st, P. Stone's My Half 2nd, Beatty's Wanda 3rd.,

2.35 race—McKay's Trixie 1st, My Half 2nd, Wanda 3rd.

Open race—Vicky Clock 1st, My Half and Wanda divided.

Men's race, once around track—Stanley Thurston 1st, L. Watson 2nd, A Sproatt 3rd. There were thirteen starters in this race.

200-yard race—Harold Karstedt 1st, S. Whittaker 2nd, R. Wylie 3rd.

100-yard race—Geo. Dundas 1st, R. H. Campbell 2nd, E Whittaker 3rd.

Dog race—C. Crossley 1st, E. Jamieson 2nd, B. Whittaker 3rd.

Football—Kimberley vs. Feversham—Kimberley won by 3-0.

Slow race—Ed. Thompson 1st, D. McDonald 2nd.

The concert at night was a fitting finish to an ideal day of amusement, with Jimmy Fax and Donald McGregor as the supreme attractions. The concert was first class in every respect. Door receipts $175.

The total receipts will amount to about $550, and everybody got their money's worth.
