Last week we mentioned that a log barn belonging to Mrs. Jamieson had been burned by lightning. There was also a good frame barn burned despite the best efforts of a number of neighbors who worked hard to save it. These kind neighbors have Mrs. Jamieson's sincerest thanks.

Mrs. Lafayette Badgerow, of the 4th line, held the championship last year for picking wild strawberries, with 75 quarts to her credit, and bids fair to outstrip even this record with the present bumper crop. On Saturday she brought us a pail full of the finest wild berries we have ever seen—as large and clean a lot as one would see of tame berries some years.

Our old friend, "Squire" Stuart, of Parry Sound district, gave The Advance a welcome call one day last week. Mr. Stuart, who has a homestead north of Parry Sound, comes out to civilization a couple of times a year, and calls on his many friends in this section. The "Squire" is getting along in years but can still enjoy his three square meals a day and hold up his end of the fun during hunting season.

Hargrave--Daly

Married—"Fairbanks," the home of Mrs. Fred Hargrave, North Egremont, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when her eldest daughter, Miss Lizzie, was united in marriage to Mr. Peter Daly of Alpena, Mich., on June 17 at 6 o'clock p.m., to the strains of the Wedding March, gracefully played by Miss Hooper. The bridal party entered the lawn, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, when Rev. Mr. Berry of Priceville, in the presence of about 150 guests, pronounced them husband and wife. The bride was gowned in cream lustre trimmed with ribbon and lace, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern. Miss Jean Redderick acted as bridesmaid, gowned in white muslin trimmed with lace, and carried white lilies and maidenhair fern. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Geo. Hargrave, brother of the bride. After the ceremony and best wishes the bridal party sat down to a beautiful wedding dinner. The bride is one of the most popular young ladies and was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. The young couple will reside in Alpena, Mich.

Proton Station Garden Party

The Ladies Aid of the Proton Presbyterian church held their annual garden party last Thursday evening, and an enjoyable affair it was on Mr. Sherson's farm. The Port Law and Proton baseball teams fought a battle royal. All that could and need be said of the game is that at the end of the innings the score was only 28-22 runs, with Proton on top. Of course this result was no surprise. The Proton team had nice new uniforms, and all the girls to hoot for them. After the match everybody partook of the bountiful and tasty supper supplied by the Proton ladies, as only they know how.

A splendid, if lengthy, program, everything being of a high class, was given on the church lawn by local talent. The choir sang a chorus. Miss Saunders gave two well selected readings which won hearty applause. Miss Saunders is well known to Proton audiences and is always welcomed. Miss I. Parks sang a solo which was well received. Misses Binnie and Watson were on hand to show how splendidly Dundalk talent could acquit itself, and delighted the audience with a choice duet. Mr. A. D. Porter faced the crowd twice and delivered solos. He was heartily encored and responded each time with a comic selection. He was described by some as "taking the cake." J. E. Richards of Dundalk was called on for a selection and was greeted with cheers. He got up and gave his reading as though he meant it. Miss M. Binnie gave a duly appreciated solo and Miss E. Neilson sang several solos, which received hearty applause. The Flesherton Citizens' Band was present and supplied music during the evening. This was their second appearance there and they increased the favorable impression left last year. Many are the compliments heaped upon Bandmaster Tucker on the result of his teaching. Rev. G. C. Little, pastor of the church, occupied the chair and officiated in a genial and pleasing manner. The proceeds amounted to $48.00.
