George Best Dead

Mr. George Best, one of the very few remaining first settlers of Artemesia township, passed away Tuesday about the noon hour, after an extended illness, at the ripe age of 84 years. The deceased gentleman was born in Limerick county, Ireland, and came to this country when a young man. He was married at Streetsville to a Miss Duncan, who predeceased him some years ago. Together they settled on the west back line, three miles south of Flesherton, about 58 years since, where they prospered and raised a family of seven children—three sons and four daughters, viz.: Mrs. Robert Taylor, Tyrone; James, Proton Station, ex-Councillor; Robert, who now occupies a seat at the Council board; John, on the homestead; Mrs. Wm. Hacking, Woodstock, N.B.; Mrs. Duncan Stewart, Depot Harbor; and Mrs. Alex. Stewart, Teeswater. Fourteen years ago Mr. Best married Mrs. Blakely and came to reside in Flesherton, leaving the homestead with his son, John. His widow survives him. The remains will be interred in Flesherton cemetery to-day (Thursday) at 2 p m.

Whewell-Stafford

The residence of Mrs. Charles Stafford, 4th line, Artemesia, was the scene of a very interesting event on Thursday last when her youngest daughter, Miss Hannah, was united in marriage to Mr. Lewis A. Whewell of Arcola, Assa., in the presence of immediate relatives only. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. F. Kipp, assisted by Rev. Mr. VanSickle. The bride wore a handsome white silk dress trimmed with lace and insertion. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch, the groomsman got a tie pin and the organist a gold brooch. The bridesmaid was Miss Elia Cripps of Thornbury and the groom was assisted by Mr. Chas. Stafford, brother of the bride. The happy bride is well and very favorably known in this section, she having taught several schools in this vicinity. She was for some years Clerk of the Baptist church in this place and took a deep interest in the church's welfare, where her sunny presence will be sadly missed. Mr. Whewell is also a native of Artemesia and is one of its most creditable productions. The young couple will take up their residence at Griffin, Sask., on their farm. Many hearty good wishes go with them to their western home, where may long life and prosperity go hand in hand. They visited with friends for a few days previous to starting on their long western journey.

A new series of stamps commemorative of the Quebec Tercentenary celebrations is to be issued shortly.

The New Railway.

The new C. P. R. branch to Walkerton was opened as far as Hanover last week. Two trains are run each way per day. Connection is made with all trains on this line at Saugeen Junction, but there is a wait from 8.10 a. m. to 11.45 a. m. and from 4.35 to 8.25 p. m., which makes it useless for passenger service from here to Priceville or Durham. As an evidence of the unsatisfactory service, a person desiring to go to Durham would leave Flesherton in the morning, travel three miles, and wait three hours at the junction. They would leave Durham on the return journey at 3.40 p. p., get to the junction at 4.35, and be compelled to wait there for another three hours—six hours of waiting for trains in one day, with a stop at Durham of about three hours! This is accomodation with vengeance. If desiring to go to Hanover the stop would be about two hours. There is no station at the junction and is not likely to be one built this summer. Passengers may pick wild daisies and mustard in the fields by way of pastime.

The direct distance from Flesherton station to Priceville by the gravel road is 3½ miles, by the railway it is a fraction over eight miles, and it takes four hours to make that eight miles!

Echoes of the First

Owing to the very limited time at our disposal last week we were unable to give as full a report of the demonstration on July as the circumstances called for. We add this week a few more facts and figures regarding the day. We were within the mark in saying that the receipts would amount to about $550, as the following figures, supplied by the treasurer, will show:

Gate receipts.....	$370.00
Concert.....	164.00
Booths.....	18.00
Total.....	$552.65
Total, including entries..	592.15

There was a third prize given for best rig in the trades procession and this was taken by Mark Wilson.

Before dismissing this year's excellent day of sports we wish to pay a tribute to the citizens who so nobly seconded the efforts of the committee in working for the honor of the day. Outsiders will scarcely stop to think of the amount of time, energy and thought devoted to a day of this kind, and the result this year, as in the past, would have done honor to any city. Nor will we leave the subject without devoting a word of praise to the committee itself, which worked harmoniously and energetically with so grand a result. The splendid outcome of this year's demonstration makes it possible to give something bigger and better next year.

The French government will be represented at the Quebec celebrations by two important war ships, the Leon Gambetta and the Admiral Aube.
