THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA

Established 1873 — 51 Branches

For Your Children's Education

Start a special Savings Account at once with the Standard Bank, and keep adding small amounts to it regularly. You will never miss the money.

Then, when the child is old enough your deposits, with the Compound Interest which we add quarterly, will provide a fund large enough to give a thorough education.

It's a good plan. Think it over. 61

A man died last week in Vancouver as the result of over excitement at a baseball match. When the Proton team plays the return match here there ought to be a harvest for the undertakers

The night train on Monday was five hours late, owing to a break-down of an Ideal snowplow, near Mono Road. The machine was being taken down as an exhibit at the Toronto exhibition.

Miss Hale, a former member of Creemore public school staff, has been engaged to teach school at Feversham at a salary of $500. Miss Hale was quite successful with the entrance class of twenty she sent up from Shelburne this year, fourteen of them having passed.

Mr. Will Caesar, who has been agent at this station for some time, has been promoted to the Alliston agency. Mr. Sid Rands of Proton Station has been appointed to take Mr. Caesar's place here. The exchange is expected to take place this week.

Mr. Thos. Scott, returning officer for Centre Grey, received his government cheque last week covering the expenses of the election. The total cost amounted to $1241.60. This was just $180.71 less than the cost of the North Grey election.

Mrs. Geo. Higginbotham of Winnipeg is visiting her father, Mr. R. J. Sproule, and is accompanied by her youngest son. It is seventeen years since Mrs Higginbotham went West as a young bride. She sees many changes in that time and many faces are missing here.

The Bell Telephone Company are erecting a trunk line between Flesherton and Collingwood by way of Kolapore and Ravenna. The congestion on the line by way of Owen Sound and Meaford has rendered this necessary. A gang of some fifteen men began work on this end on Friday last.

A Successful College—The Elliott Business College of Toronto is well known as one of the largest and best commercial schools in Canada. All intending to secure a business education are invited to write to the college for a handsome catalogue. The Fall Term opens on Sept. 1st next. Hundreds of students go out from this college each year to good positions.

Mr. D. Madill, Ceylon, wishes us to advertise the fact that he sold a binder by telephone to Fred McKeown of Duncan this summer. Another agent has advertised a similar transaction but failed to give the name of purchaser. Dave gives the name and claims to be a lap ahead for this reason. He can talk over the telephone as well as the agents in neighboring towns and his hearing is still good. That was not affected by the railway wreck last year.

On Tuesday the Women's Institute met at the home of one of its most enthusiastic members, Mrs. Lafayette Badgerow, Fourth Line. The Institute turned out twenty-five strong, besides children, and after the business was disposed of Mrs. W. Moore gave an excellent paper on "Salads". Much regret was felt that, owing to a death in the family, Mrs. McKenzie was not able to be present. Mrs. Badgerow served a dainty supper, after which all drove home, feeling that a very enjoyable afternoon had been spent.

Dr. Murray once had a homestead near Milestone, Sask. Over two years ago he abandoned the farm and applied to the Dominion Government for a rebate for work done on the place. As time went on a lot of red tape was unwound with the aid of innumerable letters to and fro, but there surely are some knots to be untied yet. He should have received $37.50 for the labor expended in breaking five acres of sod and in digging a well, yet after digging as they thought, to the bottom of the matter the government dug out of its treasury the sum of $8.00, and supposedly have ended the affair. Doc. thinks differently and will try to find the missing $29.50.

The Advance received a very interesting circular letter from a Toronto firm, which deals in bar fixtures, last week. It tells us exactly how many men would be put out of employment if the liquor trade were abolished. It also gives some interesting facts as to the doings of the "temperance fanatics," etc. This circular tacitly admits that local option decreases the consumption of intoxicating liquors. Yet we are assured, that it has increased the consumption of whiskey, etc., in Flesherton. Which are we to believe? The one who is connected with the wholesale manufacture of liquors, or one who is opposed to local option? As it appears to us, the best thing to do is to continue the local option despite the thousands that will be put out of business when liquor ceases to be made. The circular referred to above has this to say: "Not since the early eighties has temperance fanaticism developed such zeal and strength as now." Surely this looks all right to those who wish to see this "fanaticism" develope with still greater "zeal and strength."

Deaths

Died—At Flesherton, on Wednesday, Aug. 26th, Everill, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Sparrow.

Mrs. Thos. Coleman of Markdale died on Friday last after a lengthy illness of tuberculosis. She leaves her husband and six children.

Mrs Bell, a sister of Councillor T. R. McKenzie, died at her home in West Toronto on Sunday. The remains were brought to Owen Sound for interment on Tuesday.

License Inspector Halbert of Markdale is the recipient of much sympathy among his many friends owing to the death of his only son, Wilfred, which sad event occurred on Wednesday of last week of typhoid. To make the affair doubly sad, the young man had only been married about two weeks to an estimable young woman from Orangeville. It is only about a year since Mr. Halbert's wife died, leaving him with one son and a married daughter. The funeral of the young man took place to Markdale cemetery on Friday last. A number from Flesherton went up to show their respect to deceased, who was a young man of sterling character. His age was 29 years.

The average man in the United States is computed to have smoked 2216 cigarettes last year, over six apiece for every day in the year. There is a multitude of non-smokers.

Mrs. Shering, a Toronto woman, fell on the floor in an epileptic fit on Tuesday of last week at her home. She was badly bitten on the face by a pet dog, which on examination was found to have rabies. She was sent to the Pasteur Institute at New York for treatment, the only way to save her life.

The dead letter office at Ottawa is being flooded with letters bearing only half a tercentenary stamp. The stamp being twice the size of an ordinary two-cent sticker, and having the two heads thereon, some people cannot see why they should not cut one head off and use the stamps by the halves, making two cents cover two letters. These mutilated stamps are bringing in letters daily from all over the Dominion. One royal head seems to mean one postage stamp to a good many people. The two have led lots astray.

Mr. James Haverson, representing the hotel keepers, has made a proposition to Mr. F. G. Hodgins, representing the town of Orillia, that the appeal of the local option case be dropped, and that both parties agree to the vote being taken again next January. There is some question as to the legibility of such a vote but Mr. Haverson undertakes for his clients to abide by the decision of the ratepayers. It is not probable that Mr. Haverson's proposition will be accepted.
