Thousands of bacteria are present in fresh, pure milk, and myriads of bacteria enjoy life in good cream. This is the effect of a statement made recently by Dr. Sheard, City Medical Health Officer of Toronto. Now we understand why some milkmen water the milk. To drown the microbes.

The smoke and heat in this district is becoming serious. For nearly six weeks no rain has fallen here to speak of and wells and streams are fast drying up. Friday night last a little rain fell, merely sufficient to lay the dust. Fortunately the drought came at a season of the year when it is not so serious, all the harvest having been gathered and root crops fairly well matured. Forest fires throughout the province make the air we breathe most unpleasant. Fortunately there are no serious fires in this county, still there are enough to make the atmosphere decidedly disagreeable. If this smoke had only come in the mosquito season!

Mr. Rudd Matthews, auctioneer of Markdale, called on The Advance last week and inserted his card for the coming year. He also made arrangements with us whereby we can make dates of sales for him. We also have similar arrangements with two other auctioneers—Mr. McPhail and Mr. Kaitting of Osprey. Call at this office and make your dates with either of the above gentlemen. They cover the country and are all above average as auctioneers. If you have a phone or can borrow one, call up The Advance office and we will do the rest.

Mr. M. K. Richarson and party returned home on Saturday after an extended and most enjoyable trip through England, Scotland and as far as Paris. Mr. Lucas also visited old Ireland. The voyage over was exceedingly pleasant but not so enjoyable on the return journey, several of the party being called upon to pay tribute to old Neptune. Mr. Lucas declares he saw a sea serpent on the trip home. As he is a temperance man of course we believe the statement unqualifiedly.

Bills were issued last week for Priceville fall fair which will take place Thursday and Friday of next week. This show is improving year by year and doubtless will take another jump ahead this year. The railwaw is giving single fare rates to those whom it can serve. The special attractions are the Jaffray sisters, Highland dancers; Donald McGregor, baritone singer, Fddie Piggot, Comedian, and Hector McDonald, piper. This talent will all be seen at the concert in the evening, the Jaffray sisters and Piper McDonald on the grounds as well.

East Grey fall fair takes place on Thursday and Friday of this week. The directors have been working hard to make this year's show a success, and anticipate a large crowd of people. Considerable repairing has been done around the grounds in the way of building new sheep pens, re-roofing, etc. A good afternoon of sport is also assured for the second day and the concert in the evening will be the best that money can procure. Come to town and spend Friday with us—also remain for the concert in the evening. See bills for all particulars. Plan of hall at Boyd's store.

It was a large and genial gathering of chicken fanciers that met in the Presbyterian church last Wednesday evening. The Ladies' Aid of the church undertook to satisfy the appetites of every fancier in this part of the country, and well they did their part. There was chicken small and large, chicken fried and boiled, and monstrous chicken pies—an abundance of every style. There was more than chicken, too—pies, cakes and everything one could desire. After every one was satisfied a choice program was given in the auditorium of the church. There were songs, solos, instrumental selections, and speeches by the clergy of the town. The fowl supper raised about $32.00 for the church.

A letter from Mr. F. T. Carr of Stoughton, Sask., says: "Harvest is about over here. Threshing now. Yield very medium, mostly light crop and very considerably frozen, deteriorating the grade of wheat, grading largely No. 3, 4 and 5 Northern. Pity 'tis, 'tis true that this country is so liable to summer frosts. No. 3 Northern brings 75c per bushel at the farmer's wagon, here. This same wheat, free from frost, ought to produce 35 bushels per acre instead of the average 15 bushels as it is and No. 1 Northern is worth $1.10 per bushel. So you can see the depreciation of our crop proceeds this year."

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause rather then the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the heart, and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by all dealers.

The wholesome, harmless green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub, give Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its curative properties. Tickling or dry coughs quickly and safely yield to this highly effective cough medicine. Dr. Shoop assures mothers that they can with safety give it to even very young babes. No opium, no chloroform—absolutely nothing harsh or harmful. It calms the distressing cough, and heals the sensitive membranes. Accept no other. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Sold by all dealers.

The Advance is sorry to announce the death of Mr. J. W. Frost, barrister, of Owen Sound, which event took place at the New Liskard hospital on Sunday, Sept. 13. The remains were interred at Owen Sound Wednesday of last week. Mr. Frost was 71 years of age. He had gone north to inspect some mining properties in which he was interested, and took ill of entritis. He was taken to New Liskeard hospital, where he died. Mr. Frost was well and favorably known here, having visited Flesherton for years in the capacity of solicitor. His family have the sympathy of many friends in this vicinity.

A sad case occured at this station during the past week. Friday evening last a traveller got off the train and after inquiry was shown to McLaughlin's hotel, where he asked to be shown to his room at once. He gave his name as John S. Fischer. Saturday morning he did not get up, and remained in bed until Monday, being waited on by Mr. McLaughlin. A doctor was then called in who found the man suffering from anaemia and general debility. He was at that time unable to converse in anything but monosyllables. An effort was made to find his friends in which considerable difficulty was experienced, but after some time an uncle was located in Berlin. This gentleman came up on Tuesday. The sick man continued to grow worse until Wednesday morning when death ensued. He was 52 years of age. Deceased was a machinist and was on his way to Harriston, where a sister resides, but failed to make the proper connection at Orangeville junction, and came on here. About a year ago his wife died and it is said he has since been very despondent. He leaves two young children in charge of relatives. The remains were taken to Hespeler for interment.
