CURRENT CROP REPORT

An average yield of Fall wheat is indicated, although the straw is short. Spring grains are now heading and growth is satisfactory. Roots and canning crops are in healthy condition. Corn was planted under favorable conditions and is a good stand. Cutting of alfalfa is general throughout the Province; while of good quality the yield is expected to be below average. Pasturage continues excellent. Damage from wind and drought necesssitated considerable replanting of tobacco but a good stand has developed.
