Priceville Fall Fair

While it was cold and disagreeable on Thursday and Friday last, yet it was not quite enough so to do the Artemesia Agricultural Society much harm. The exhibits were away ahead of any former year, both in quantity and quality, which speaks well for this popular fair. The hall was filled to it's utmost capacity with a great variety of ladies' work, fine arts, farm produce, etc. The exhibits of poultry, pigs and cattle were rather few in number, while horses and sheep were there in abundance. Considering the weather, the attendance was all that could be expected, and it was no small crowd at that. The proceeds from the show and concert were about $212. This shows up well in comparison with last year.

The speaking in the afternoon was a pleasing feature. The genial John McArthur did the duties of chairman in an affable, jolly manner. He introduced Dr. Sproule, Conservative candidate for East Grey, who addressed the crowd. Then followed Mr. H. H. Miller, Liberal candidate for Centre Grey, and Mr. R. J. Ball, his Conservative opponent. The speeches were all of a happy, glad-I'm-here, glad-you're-all-here style, and but little of a political nature was heard.

Mr. Hector McDonald brightened the proceedings with his bagpipes, and the Jaffray sisters gave an exhibition of Highland dancing.

The concert in the evening was well attended and was thoroughly enjoyed. The house was crowded till there was room for no more. Donald MacGregor, Scottish baritone, Eddie Piggott, comedian, Jaffray sisters, Highland dancers, and Hector McDonald, piper, all helped to make this concert the best ever.

Among the newspapers represented at the show were: Shelburne Free Press, by R L. Mortimer; Durham Chronicle, by W. Irwin; Durham Review, by C. W. Ramage; and Flesherton Advance, by A. S. Thurston.

A dispute was held over the farmers' trot. Otto Konold, the winner, passed Ben McKinnon on the inside of the track, throwing him out of place. Mr. McKinnon protested but the judges decided that the circumstances did not warrant the throwing out of Mr. Konold, or the running of the race over again.

The special prize of $5.00, given by S. McIntyre, for the best looking baby was made a first prize, the Society giving $2.00 and Mr. Wm Irwin $1.00 as second and third prizes respectively. There were six entries of the prettiest babies one could desire to see. Messrs. W. G. Pickett and C. Ramage were the men chosen to say which were the handsomest ones of the bunch. Of course, all could not be satisfied. There were prizes for but three. At any rate the decision was made and three mothers delighted—still the babies showed no interest in the proceedings.

So numerous were entries this year that the hard-worked secretary had to fall back on old entry tags and last year's prize tickets to fill the bill. The supply of these will keep pace with the growth of the show in future.

Following is the list of prize-winners:
