Stewart's, Nov 11th at 6.30 p. m., when all the neighbors on the Toronto line met to spen the evening and enjoyed an excellent fowl supper, supplied by the ladies. The tables were laden with the bounties of the season. The evening was spent in games and music till midnight. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess for their hospitality. It was decided to meet at the other homes during the winter, thus showing the neighborly spirit that prevails along the line.

A gentleman living on the east back line, had a nocturnal visitor last week. It was of the black and white striped variety. The visitor showed no inclination to depart and so the gentleman undertook to persuade the animal to say good-bye. Failing in this, his next effort was to remove the soul of the beast (if such it had). He removed it, but not rapidly enough, as any one in the neighborhood could testify.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr Shoop first pointed out the error. "Go to the weak or ailing nerves of these organs," said her each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve," When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell. Sold by all dealers,

THE LATE ALEXANDER STEWART.

The 1908 Deer Hunt.

The Advance man was attached this year to a hunting party consisting of the following members: Geo. Cairns, Geo. Stuart and Ye Editor of Flesherton; Hugh Hammond and Jasper Stuart of Kimberley; and Robt. Genoe, Eugenia. The location was on the same old ground on the Shawanaga river, north of Parry Sound, in Squire Stuart's camp, and that gentleman made the seventh member of the party. Game was very plentiful, although the party only succeeded in capturing eight deer, a bear and a fox. Never before have we seen the bush so overrun with hunters as it was in that locality this year, some fifty men hunting over a radius of two miles. Four moose were killed within five miles of our camp but our party did not come in contact with any of them. There are no accidents of any serious nature to chronicle.

The bear—a small one—was secured in his den by Mr. Hugh Hammond and Jack, one of the very best hunting dogs that ever went north, owned by Mr. Jasper Stuart of Kimberley. What Jack doesn't know about hunting is not known by any other dog and he never strays away.

Mr. Mitchell's party, from Flesherton, captured their full quota of deer and had three days to spare. They were located 3½ miles down the river from our camp and fraternal visits were paid by both parties. The game arrived home on Saturday last, when nineteen deer were put off at this station.

The Squire's camp is located about a quarter of a mile from the C. N. O. railway and made matters very convenient, giving us the daily papers whenever we cared to go to the station, half a mile away, for them. There are only two bona ffde settlers at this roint—the Squire and Mr. Thomas Fawcett. The latter owns 350 acres of well-timbered land, and is prospering. He has a family of seven children, two of whom have attended school in Parry Sound. There is a sawmill here that employs thirty or forty hands, and a large number of these were roaming the bush, shooting deer ahead of our dogs

The weather was ideal for hunting and preservation of game this year—not too warm, and not too cold for comfort. From the standdoint of physical benefit the hunt was perfection, as it always is. No man can roam the rocks, marshes and scrub of Parry Sound district for two weeks without deriving the greatest physical benefit and return feeling that the communion with rugged nature has strengthened both brain and brawn. The hunt of 1908 goes on record as a splendid success.

The Collingwood Enterprise-Messenger, newspaper, printing and publishing business has been taken over by the Enterprise-Printing Company, Limited. Mr W. A. Hogg is managing director, and Mr. G. Lunney, Secretary of the new Company.

Death came suddenly Thursday afternoon to William J. Lewis, one of the pioneer railway men of this province. He entered the service of the old Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway in 1870, as conductor of the first construction train on that old narrow gauge railway. He was the first passenger conductor, and when the Canadian Pacific Railway acquired the line he was the oldest railway man on the system. He was a resident of Owen Sound.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy
