Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn, says: "Several years I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. I used it for some time and it cured me. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by W. E. Richardson.

The Soo rail mills have been closed down for repairs.

Burned at Walters Falls

A most distressing accident occurred at Walter's Falls on Monday morning of last week with the result that the victim passed away Thursday after suffering untold pain. Miss Lizzie McLean, while in attendance on her father, Mr. Wm. McLean, sr., who has been helplessly ill for some time, was seriously burned by a lamp, which set fire, in some unaccountable manner, to the curtains. In her effort to extinguish the flames, her night clothing caught fire, and before assistance reached her she was seriously burned about the body. Almost from head to foot she was burned. Dr. McCullough was called and found the injuries of a most serious nature. Everything was done to relieve her sufferings and a trained nurse brought from Toronto, to be in attendance, but the sufferer gradually sank until she passed away Thursday night. Deceased was about fifty years of age and leaves a number of brothers and sisters. Her brother, Mr. Wm. J. McLean, formerly Secretary of the Central Fair, Walter's Falls, had his hands severely burned in endeavoring to rescue his sister from the flames. The family is well known, and the sympathy of the community is with the bereaved ones.

Owen Sound Happenings

Clipped from local exchanges.

Judge Hatton imposed a sentence of two months' imprisonment with hard labor upon Linn Sutton, the vaudeville artist, who a few days ago pleaded guilty in the police court to having stolen a couple of coats.

Thomas Radcliff and Mrs. Barlow, who eloped together last week and were stopped at Toronto, appeared for the second time in the police court on Friday. Mrs. Barlow had remained obdurate from the previous day and again declared that it was her firm intention not to go back and live with her husband She thought that she could keep one child and her husband could look after the other, but Mr. Barlow did not favor this arrangement and said that he would take both the children. The magistrate found Thomas Radcliffe guilty of the theft of some of Mr. Barlow's personal belongings, despite the fact that Mrs. Barlow averred that Radcliffe had not known that the goods in question were in his trunk. The case was left over until Monday to see whether the husband and wife could not arrive at some amicable arrangement and on Monday Mrs. Barlow said that she was prepared to live with her husband. The charge of theft against her was then dropped, as was also the charge of abducting the children which was brought against Radcliffe. Magistrate Creasor informed Radcliffe that he would suspend sentence for the theft of which he had been convicted provided that he left for the old country at once. Radcliffe said that it was his intention to immediately clear out for England, and he left the court apparently very much relieved at the turn affairs had taken.

While playfully wrestling with ald. T. W. Thompson, Mr. R. J. Edgar had his arm broken. He was proving himself the best man when a weak place in the bone gave way. He is carrying his arm in a sling.

The Gale-Hatch evangelistic campaign closed on Monday evening and it is safe to say that these gentlemen have conducted the most sensible and sanest evangelistic effort ever put forth in this town.

John Connelly, an employee of the Canadian Heating & Ventilating Co's. works, was the victim of an accident. While bending over a barrel containing blackening he lit a match and the mixture, which has benzine as one of its ingredients, immediately flared up. Connelly was burned about the head and face and it was at first thought that his injuries were of a more serious character than proved to be the case. Although suffering much pain he is recovering rapidly.

John J., the 13-year-old son of Andrew Pryle of Dornoch, died in the hospital of appendicitis.

The bank barn belonging to Emerson Long of Sydenham, was burned. The loss exceeds $2500; insurance $1700.

It is a Wonder.

Chamberlain's Liniment is one of the most remarkable preparations yet produced for the rheumatic pains, and for lame back, sprains and bruises. The quick relief from pain which it affords in case of rheumatism is alone worth many times its cost. Price, 25 cents; large size 50 cents. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

W. A. ARMSTRONG

Singhampton

On Tuesday, December 2, St. Paul's Church which had been prettily decorated with an arch of evergreens dotted with roses, carnations and chrysanthemums for the occasion, was the scene of a very pretty wedding. The bride was Miss Emily Dafforn, daughter of the late F. Dafforn, of New Southgate, England, and the groom was Mr. Alfred C. Branch of Maple Valley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. M. I. Durnford, rector of Duntroon, and was witnessed by many friends of the bride and groom.

Miss L. Robinson played the Wedding March as the bride entered the church, and the choir sang:

"The voice that breathed o'er Eden,
The earliest wedding day,
The Primal marriage blessing,
It hath not passed away."

The bride, who was prettily gowned in a brown travelling suit, was unattended. The groom was supported by Mr. G. B. Moore of Maple Valley.

After the newly married couple had received the congratulations of their friends, the wedding party drove to the home of Mr. Gibson, Maple Valley, where a dainty wedding breakfast was partaken of.

At the conclusion of the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Branch drove to Dundalk and left on the afternoon train on a trip to England via St. John, N. B., whence they will return next spring.

Among those of the wedding party were Rev. Mr. Mercer, Mrs. Briggs and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Taylor, of Maple Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, town line; Rev. and Mrs. A. M. I. Durnford.

Mr. and Mrs. Branch are accompanied by the best wishes of their host of friends.

Robert Cornfield Dead

Mr. Robert Cornfield of Trafalgar, near Milton, passed away on Friday last after a lengthy illness of pernicious anaemia at the age of 48 years. The funeral took place to Milton cemetery on Friday last. Deceased was a brother of Mr. Joseph Cornfield of this place and Mr. James Cornfield of Portlaw, and was the second son of Mr. James Cornfield, sr., who is living with a daughter in Kansas. Until six years ago the deceased gentleman, who was born in this township, lived on the Centre Line, Artemesia, near Portlaw. At that time he removed to Toronto, where he remained a year, after which he purchased the farm near Milton. He leaves a wife, (nee Miss Lizzie Dinsmore of Chingacousy,) but no family.

Without A Rival.

No newspaper or magazine in this county pretends to rival the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. It is in a class entirely by itself. It is the greatest family and farm paper printed to-day. It is simply marvellous what value one gets during the year in that great weekly. A dollar invested for 1909 will be the best dollar you ever spent.

Who Will Be Next?

To the Editor of The Advance.

Dear Sir—I have received the enclosed letter from one of our former village boys, one that our village may be proud of, it in any degree helped to shape and initiate the noble character he has developed. I am not at liberty to give his name but can say I know the world is largely the better for his life and influence.

I hope this will start into life some helpful scheme for our village boys. Who will be the next to give aid and interest and life to it?

—M. K. Richardson.

Mr. M. K. Richardson,

Dear Friend:—You may be surprised to get a letter from me, but several weeks ago I noticed a letter in the Advance from one of the village boys, asking that the library be started again. I am not acquainted with the local conditions, but if there has been any move made, or likely to be made, in that or any other direction of a practical manner for the young people, I would be pleased to forward $25, also would prefer not to have my name known. I feel I owe a debt to the Village Fathers, and you particularly, for trying to surround me with up-lifting influences that I can never repay.

With best wishes to yourself and every member of your family, your friend,

THE LATE SAMUEL PEDLAR

By our Eugenia Correspondent

The death of Mr. Samuel Pedlar on Tuesday of last week was a great shock to this community. Although having reached the age of 76 years and nine months, he was still hale and hearty, and in all likelihood of being spared a few more years to his family. He had retired from active work on the farm, his son, Fred, taking control, but the fatal pneumonia set in and from the first there were slight hopes for his recovery. Although all earthly means were tried, on the morning of Dec 1st he passed peacefully to that long sleep where all pain is over. His children hastened to his bedside when notified of his serious illness, all being present but Joseph, who lives in Nebraska, his health not permitting him to take such a long journey. Deceased was a loving husband and father, a good and obliging neighbor, and he will be greatly missed in this community. He was an Englishman by birth, but came to Canada with his parents when quite a young lad. He had lived for over fifty years at Eugenia on the farm which he hewed out of the, at one time, wilderness, and with industry and care amassed a goodly amount of property. He served in the Municipal Council for eleven years, part of that time as Deputy Reeve; was a J. P., and a prominent and highly respected member of this community. He was a past master of Eugenia Grange lodge and still took an active part in anything connected with the order. In politics a Conservative, in religion a Methodist, although ministers of all denominations still found a welcome under his hospitable roof. He raised a family of thirteen children, all grown to maturity and all in good positions. His aged partner and the two youngest are at home—Miss Ella and Fred. His funeral—one of the largest ever seen at Salem—was held on Friday afternoon, six of his sons acting as pall bearers, twelve of his children being present at the funeral—John from Flesherton, Edwin of Singhampton, Wesley from Nebraska, Will of Salem, Charles of Nepawa, Man., Frank of McLean, Sask.; Luther of New York, Mrs. J. W. Hoath of Elsinore, Mrs. David Smith of Otterbourne, Man; Miss Sarah of Toronto, Fred and Ella at home. His bereaved widow keenly feels her loss, although it is well with their dear departed one. The Orangemen all marched from his late home in full regalia to Salem, where, with all the solemn rites connected with the order, they laid their oldest brother of Eugenia lodge to await the glorious resurection. Revs. Little and Kipp of Flesherton, and Laidlaw of Eugenia, conducted the service at his late home. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of this community. Their dear one is not dead, but gone to sleep, for the Lord his precious dust doth keep. Among friends from a distance were Mr. Edwin Glendenning of Mariposa, Mrs. James Warren of Whitby, Mr. J. W. Hoath of Elsinore, Mr. David Smith of Otterbourne and two children, Mrs. Luther Pedlar of Rochester, N. Y., and Mr. and Miss Dale from Mariposa.

Mr. Henry Tudor has got home after spending the summer at the Cataract.

Mr. George Gordon spent a few weeks visiting friends at Shelburne.

Mr. W. H. Fenwick of Toronto is visiting friends at Eugenia at present.

For the Willis Piano, such as Carreno, Hamburg, Kubelik, Peppercorn, Sir Frederick Bridge, Otie, Chen. We honestly believe that the Willis Cabinet Grand Piano is the very best high grade piano made to-day in the entire dominion of Canada, positively without exception. Emile Sauer, the world's greatest pianist, said upon his recent visit to Montreal, the Willis Piano has a lovely tone, I am surprised and delighted with it. You have a piano to be proud of. Those are his exact words. Sauer knows pianos better than any man in the world to-day. The Willis is a piano with a Soul as beautiful and pure as its body of superb strength and gracefulness. The Willis Cabinet Grand was used by the Sheffield Choir while touring eastern Canada. These pianos can be seen at my store at any time.
