Makes Broiling Easy

It is much more convenient to do your broiling by lifting this Key Plate, than to lift the cover or use the broiler door. You have more room and get the meat directly over the coals.

Notice the Low Warming Closet, a special feature of this year's "Peerless Peninsular" Ranges.

Daylight Oven, Adjustable Damper, Removable Grate Bars, Thermometer in oven—are only a few of the conveniences you should ask about.

Step in at any time and go over the "Peerless Peninsular" Ranges. Glad to explain their improvements to you. 72

A Reeve Gone Wrong

A bank robbery, which, while it did not turn out serious, inasmuch as the money was quickly recovered, but which is a very sad affairs as it was found to have been committed by the Reeve of the village of Tiverton, near Port Elgin, created a big sensation around the Western bank of that village a few days ago. Alex. McKinnon deliberately took a roll of bills amounting to $1800 from the counter and walked out of the bank—in broad daylight. McKinnon, who is reeve of the village, is a druggist, and his place of business is located close to the bank. On the day that the robbery was committed, McKinnon had gone to the bank to get a ten-dollar cheque cashed. There was a big roll of bills on the counter, and after the clerk had cashed the cheque he went to the back part of the office to get something out of the safe, leaving the roll of bills on the counter. When he came back the money was gone. He at once rushed to the door, and saw McKinnon going into his own store. Then he called the manager and together they tried to get into McKinnon's store but found the door locked. Calling the village constable, they forced an entrance, and found McKinnon upstairs. He denied all knowledge of the robbery, and consented that his shop should be searched. Soon part of the money was found, and then McKinnon made a clean confession of the whole business, and told them where the remainder of the money, amounting in all to $1800, was to be found. He was then allowed his liberty, and it seems that he immediately drove away and has not since been heard of. A warrant has been issued for his arrest. McKinnon was a man of good habits, highly esteemed in the neighborhood, clever, fine looking and a general favorite. It is certainly a sad story, for, in a moment of temptation he yielded, only to blight his prospects for life.—O. S. Sun.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Stacher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

A new designed locomotive (No. 2625) made its first trip over this branch of the C. P. R. a few days ago. It is claimed that it has a much larger hauling capacity through using but one half the fuel used by the old style. The C.P.R. have begun the manufacture of the new model in Montreal, and say that it will replace the old ones as quickly as they can be produced. The locomotive is larger and the running gear of the engine is different from the old style,
