Both of the Durham hotel keepers have shut up shop. On Wednesday of last week government detectives swooped down on Mr. Hahn of the Hahn house and discovered plenty of intoxicants. We understand that Hahn had practically defied the authorities, announcing that if he was fined he would shut his house. And that is what he did. So soon as he found himself caught he turned out his regular boarders and locked the doors. Not only this, but he succeeded in getting the upper town hotel man to shut his doors as well, thus leaving Durham without any hotel accommodation for travellers whatever. If the temperance people of Durham have any good metal in their composition this act should bring it out.

Perhaps never before in the history of Ontario did a murder case attract so much attention, and such decided opinions on all sides as does the Hamilton affair now under consideration. The detectives and Mr. Blackstock have come in for strong abuse at the hands of those who have already decided the innocence of those whom the officials are probing. It is useless, however, to form or attempt to form any opinion until the inquest is ended. The authorities are perfetly justified in conducting the case as they have been doing, and should not be censured until the evidence is completed and all the facts brought out that it is possible to secure. That Florence Kinrade has to suffer is her great misfortune, and could not be avoided, no matter how utterly innocent she may be.

With a view to effectively protecting the black bass, maskinonge and speckled trout fishery, in the province of Ontario, an order in council has been passed prohibiting the sale and export of these fish for a period of five years from the 30th of May next. It is provided, however, that any person from a foreign country having an angler's permit may take back with him a lawful catch of two days' fishing.

Wm. Long of Louise has a team that cost him an even thousand dollars. There are some pretty good farm horses in that locality, but this team of Long's throws them all in the shade. One of those horses he bought at Wm. Armstrong's sale for $300, and the other he bought from Graham Bros. of Claremont at $700. They are so well matched that it would take an expert to tell one from the other. The youngest one is rising three years old, and weighs 1600 lbs.

Miss Ellen Craig of Wagram died from lockjaw, caused by running a rusty nail into her foot the week previous.

AFFAIR OF HONOUR

(From the Globe of May 17, 1861.)

The principal topic of conversation in Quebec yesterday was an affair of honour between Hon. Mr. Dessaulles, of the council, and Solicitor General Morin. The quarrel originated in a discussion conducted in the Minerve and the Pays. Mr. Morin learned that Mr Dessaulles had spoken of him in contemptuous terms and sent Mr. Dessaulles a letter as insulting as he could possibly frame it.

Mr. Dessaulles, challenged Morin, and on Saturday the parties left for Island Pond, with their seconds, Messrs. Kierzkowski and Ramsay, Secretary to the Seigniorial Commission. They met yesterday morning, but "nobody was hurt." It is reported that they could not agree about the weapons, and no shot was fired. The parties have not yet returned to Quebec.

We have, by the Montreal papers, an explanation of the reason the threatened duel between Messrs. Dessaulles and Morin didn't come off according to appointment. Mr Morin chose for his second, Mr. Ramsay, Mr. Dessaulles, Mr. Kierzkowski. Upon Mr. Ramsay, as acting for the challenged party, it is said the duty devolved of providing the inplements of war. When the disputants reached the spot whereon was to be waged the deadly conflict, Mr. Morin's second discovered that he had forgotten (?) the bullets. That want, however, was after a while supplied. All appeared ready, when greatly to the disappointment of the Solicitor General East, it was found one of the pistols could not be fired. The end of the matter was that the irate pair had to return to Quebec without drawing blood.

During the second year of the American war, Artemius Ward is stated by the old weekly Toronto Leader to have said; "Unless there's different management of the war right off, the American eagle will have to disguise himself as a Shanghai rooster and make tracks for Canada, while the Goddess of Liberty will have to go out doin' gen'ral housework at two dollars a week."

As Advertised.

I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and found it to be all claimed for it in the advertisements. Three of the familyhave used it with good results in summer complaint.—H. E. Howe, publisher of the Press, Highland, Wis. For sale by W. E. Richrrdson.

Horse Beat Grand Trunk.

Mr. S. C. Maltby, traveller of this town, was on the G. T. R. train leaving Lucknow Wednesday of last week and he and the other passengers were interested in the efforts of a horse on the track to keep out of the way of the locomotive. The horse which belongs to the Methodist minister at Lucknow ran away out of the station yard at that place and on the track just ahead of the train, which it kept ahead of past the next station, Ripley, managing to cross two bridges on the way and after it was caught and stabled did not appear much the worse for its long, eventful run of 10 or 12 miles.—Mt. Forest Representative.

Unequalled as a Cure for Croup.

"Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequalled as a cure for croup," says Harry Wilson, of Waynetown, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

A Rural High School

From The Durham Review.

We must congratulate the enterprising township of Artemesia and village of Flesherton on succeeding in forming a Continuation School District with Flesherton as its centre. This, it is claimed, is the first in the province and the enthusiasm with which it has been promoted and organized speaks well for the appreciation in which education is held in the district.

So far no fewer than six school sections have united, the numbers being 3, 5, 7, 9, 10 and 11. They are wasting no time having advertised for a teacher, offering one thousand dollars as an initial salary. T. Henry is chairman, and W. J. Bellamy secretary.

The advocacy of The Advance, from which this information is taken, has been one of the chief factors in securing the school. We wish them every success. They will have early difficulties in the way of building, equipment, etc., but these have, no doubt, been considered and are not insurmountable.

The eyes of many similar districts will be on them with a view to secure the same advantagee, especially since it will be remembered that our County Council increased the grant to these schools by 50 per cent. at its last session.

Nothing in the way of a Cough is quite so annoying as a tickling, teasing, wheezing, bronchial Cough. The quickest relief comes perhaps from a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And besides, it is so thoroughly harmless that mothers give it with perfect safety even to the younge st babes. The tender leaves of a simple mountain shrub, give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its remarkable curative effect. A few days' test will tell. Sold by all dealers.

Loves his Gaoler

It is somwhat unsual for a gaoler to be regarded by a prisoner as an ideal taskmaster, tut there are exceptions to every rule. In the opinion of an elderly man named James Beattie, the official who acts as gaoler at Owen Sound is one of the best men in the world to work for. James appeared in the police court on Monday morning of last week having just left prison after serving a six months' term for vagrancy. Beattie had been sent down at his own request, as he refused to go to the House of Refuge. He has been in the habit of doing this sort of thing for several years, and he came before magistrate Creasor for the purpose of asking that he be entitled the privilege of spending another six months in gaol. Chief McAuley informed the magistrate of Beattie's desire, and the Magistrate remarked:—"You want six months, do you, James? Alright away you go." Beattie was grateful and thanked the Magistrate for his kindness He waited until he received the necessary order for his incarceration and, unaccompanied by the police, made tracks for the gaol. Prior to the appearance of the Magistrate, Beattie informed Chief McAuley that he would rather work for Mr. John Miller, gaoler, than any man in the world. Beattie is a very respectable looking man. He is without relatives, and is more than content when under the regime of the gaol officials, who treat him kindly.

A divorce bill to prevent the guilty party in a divorce marrying again in Canada was introduced in the Senate by Senator Cloran, last Friday.

The District Around Us

Alex Ross, the Cargill liveryman, had a young man named John Anderson up for horse stealing, and the case was tried by Judge Klein on Monday, with the result that the prisoner was discharged. Anderson, it seems had been working for Ross, and on Wednesday last, in Ross' absence had hitched up a horse to drive a traveller to Walkerton. He put the horse in the Queen's hotel stable between 5 and 6 o'clock that night, returned about 8, and drove the traveller up to the station. Then he got pretty full of whisky, and went driving around town. Mr. Frank Rennie found the horse tied to a telegraph post about half past ten, and knowing that the horse belonged to Ross, untied the animal and put it in the Queen's stable Anderson came along next morning, paid the bill, and drove off, but instead of going back to Cargill, seems to have gone out into Bentick. That afternoon Ross came to Walkerton and laid an information against Anderson for stealing the horse. He was arrested by Constable Russell, and when brought before the magistrate, pleaded guilty, and was sent up for trial before the Judge. The Judge however did not think that the evidence bore out a charge of theft and let the prisoner go, with the admonition not to get drunk again.—Walkerton Telescope.

Eddie Morrison, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Morrison, who live in Vicker's Block, was the hero of an escapade on Monday, which was a remarkable one for his youthful years. The parents are deaf mutes and their family consists of two boys, the eldest about eight years of age. On Monday afternoon Eddie wanted to go to Boyd street school with his brother and made some threat of going away on the train if he was not allowed to go to school. No notice was apparently taken of his request and during the afternoon he disappeared. He was soon missed and a search instituted but no trace of him was found and it was thought by the afflicted parents that he must have been drowned. On Tuesday it was learned that he had been discovered on a freight train at Orangeville by Conductor Wilson, who sood ascertained from the lad that he was from Owen Sound and communicated with the police here and Wednesday morning Mrs. Morrison went down to Orangeville and recovered her lost child with whom she arrived home on the 1 p. m. express.—O. S. Advertiser.

A singular and painful accident happened some time last week to the nine months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCann, Seymour street. On Sunday morning while bathing the child, Mrs. McCann noticed a white thread protruding from the back and concluding that a needle was embeded in the flesh, immediately summoned Dr. Drummond, who advised that the little patient be removed to Collingwood hospital. The child was taken to the hospital on Monday morning and the needle removed by Dr. Drummond and Dr. McFaul, of Collingwood. How the accident occurred or the length of time the needle had been in the body is a matter of conjecture as the baby had not appeared to be unusually fretful. At present the child is resting easily and should no complications ensue a speedy recovery is expected.—Mirror.

Misrepresentations generally recoil upon the head of the perpetrator. Kenneth McKenzie of Kincardine has learned this at considerable cost. He rented a farm when the snow was on the ground to one T. E. Walker, stating that it was well watered and free from weeds. It turned out, however, that the place was full of wild oats, and that early in the season all the water dried up, there not being even enough for domestic purposes. Walker's crop didn't amount to anything and he lost money on his cattle because there was no water. To make things worse McKenzie had seized his cattle for rent, so he asked damages all around. The case was tried without a jury, and the Judge salted KcKenzie to the tune of $600 and costs. However, in rendering judgment he ordered a stay of proceedings for 30 days in order to give the defendant time to appeal, if he so desires

Lafayette Dales, who figures as a former citizen of Owen Sound because of having lived here about five years ago, was found guilty of the crime of murder on Saturday last at Ogalala Nebraska, and sentenced to life imprisonment. His partner, a woman named Mrs. Smith, whom Dales asserts actually fired the shot which killed Volley Mann, was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of thirty nine years.—O. S. Advertiser.

Herbert Lawrence, of Toronto, son of John Lawrence, of Egremont township, came home last Tuesday for a short holiday, and was assisting one of his brothers in felling some trees, when a branch of one struck him, inflicting such severe injuries that he died in less than an hour.

Have you a pain—of any kind, anywhere? Stop just a minute and think! It matters not whether it be womanly pains, head pains, or any kind of a pain, one of Dr Shoop's little Pink Pain Tablets will surely stop it in 10 minutes. Formula plainly printed on the 25c. box. Sold by all dealers.
