10th Line, Osprey.

A very sad accident occurred here about six o'clock on Saturday evening when a load of logs, driven by little Charlie Cook, a 12-year-old boy in the employ of Mr. S. Galloway, upset over the side of a culvert just near Mr. Loughheed's gate, crushing the poor boy fearfully and killing him instantly. Much sorrow is expressed for the sad accident, as Charlie was a fine little fellow and well liked by all who knew him.

Mrs. R. Brackenbury, sr., is seriously ill at present but under the care of Dr. Ryckman of Maxwell we expect to see her well again soon.

Much sympathy is felt in this part for the bereaved family and friends of the late Mr. Samuel Arnott, sr., of Wareham. Mr. Arnott was well and favorably known in this neighborhood.

Read the pain formula on the box of Pink Pain Tablets. Then ask your Doctor if there is a better one. Pain means congestion, blood pressure somewhere. Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets check head pains, womanly pains, pain anywhere. Try one, and see! 20 or 25c. Sold by all dealers.

East Mountain

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. James Harbottle in the loss of their two youngest children, which occurred on Wednesday of last week. The cause of their death was enteritis. On Friday the funeral took place to Salem followed by a large number of friends. When the hand of death comes and takes one, it is very hard, but when it claims two it makes a double sorrow. But we have he assurance that they are happy, and where there is neither pain or sorrow.

Snow will very soon be a thing of the past, and we will once more be looking at the beauties of spring. In the course of a few days farmers will be on the land at work again.

This week's items

Notwithstanding the fact that the roads were so bad on Saturday, April 3, a very large number of people showed their sympathy with the bereaved family and friends of the late Mr. Samuel Arnott, sr., who passed away on Thursday, April 1st, after a painful illness of about 3 weeks. The funeral left the house at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of April 5 and proceeded to Mount Zion church, where Rev. Mr. Stanley preached the funeral sermon, based on the words, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." Among the many relatives of the Arnott family who were present at the funeral were: Mr. James Arnott, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Earley and Miss McClure, of Brampton; Mr. James McClure of Georgetown; Mr. Wm. J. Arnott of Churchville, and Mr. John Arnott of Bolton.

The spring sunshine and balmy zephyrs are bringing along with them the longing for the time when the mud will be dried up, when our young men and maidens will be able to let loose some of the pent-up energy which has been accumulating since the skating ceased to be.

The question of paramount interest at the present time is, What game shall we play this spring and summer? Shall it be baseball or football? Another suggestion is, basketball for the juveniles. Sports, get busy. Talk! Act! And for those of us who have not the blessed privilege of listening to your animated discussions on the merits of the respective games we would suggest that you make use of the press to communicate the results of your deliberations to us more remote and unfortunate individnals.

Proton Station

After an illness of three or four weeks Mrs. Ed. Rutherford passed away at her home here on Friday last, at the age of 52 yrs. J. E. Large, EUGENIA.

M. B. Flynn, proprietor of the Ayton Advance, died on March 24. The Durham Review says: The deceased was in his 43rd year, and for nine or ten years has published the Ayton Advance which he founded, and in connection with that he worked up a good business as a land and sales agent. He proved himself a capable ready writer and reflected the life of his village and his township creditably. About two years ago he was appointed Treasurer of the township, and had his life been spared there can be no doubt he could have rendered good service for many years. Previous to entering the publishing business he taught school, and was reckoned an efficient teacher. In addition to his acquired ability, he had all ready wit of his countrymen and was of a kindly, genial nature that made many friends. He will be deeply mourned in his own home circle, and by many who learned to like him through his paper intercourse.

It was not long ago that Grand Valley was stirred up over a butter deal. A day or two ago a dealer was suspicious about one lot, and on investigating found the lb. bricks contained a fair amount of flour. When can people be honest?—Star.
