Mr. Hollingsworth and son of Ravenna met with a bad loss on Wednesday of last week and had a close call for their own lives. During the wind storm they were driving along the town line, east of the 10th sideroad, when a tree was blown down killing the horse and breaking the dash of the buggy. We understand Mr. Hollingsworth's horse was a valuable one and is a severe loss at this time of the year.

Burnside—Rodger—On March 18th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rodger of Avonbank, near St. Marys, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding when their daughter Jean Alice was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Geo. R. Burnside of Feversham. The ceremony was performed at 6 30 o'clock by the Rev. R. Stewart. The bride was attired in white batiste trimmed with alover lace and insertion, and wore the groom's gift, an opal ring. Her going away dress was black pallette silk The gifts were beautiful and costly. After the ceremony the guests retired to the dining room, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was partaken of. The happy couple left on Tuesday for their home near Feversham. We join with their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.—St. Mary's Argus.

The old fashioned way of dosing a weak stomach, or stimulating the Heart or Kidneys is all wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. This is why his prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed entirely to the cause of these ailments, the weak inside or controlling nerves. It isn't so difficult, says Dr. Shoop, to strengthen a weak Stomach, Heart, or Kidneys, if one goes at it correctly. Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve. When these nerves fail, then these organs must surely falter. These vital truths are leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Test it a few days, and see! Improvement will surely follow. Sold by all dealers.

Proton Station

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Consley on Wednesday last, April 7th, when their second daughter, Miss Alice, was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Eddy of Toronto. Rev. G. C. Little of Flesherton tied the nuptial knot. The young couple will reside in Toronto. We wish them many years of happiness and prosperity.

Baird--Hislop

Hope House Farm, the home of Mrs. Hislop, sr., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, April 7, when her granddaughter, Minnie Genoe, was united in marriage to John Howett Baird, eldest son of Mr. Hugh Baird of Markdale. Rev. A. Sheppard tied the nuptial knot in the presence of about 50 guests, nearly all being relatives of the bride and groom. Miss Baird played the Wedding March as the bridal party entered the parlor and took their places under an arch of evergreens prettily decorated with red, white and blue Christmas bells, flags, etc. The bride was handsomely attired in pearl white silk, trimmed with over-lace and pearls and carried a boquet of white carnations, while the bridesmaid, Miss Lida Genoe, was prettily gowned in pink mulle and carried pink carnations. The groom was very ably supported by his brother, Mr. James Baird. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty wedding supper was served, after which the young people spent the evening with music and dancing, while others sought the retirement of the parlor and enjoyed the evening in a social way. The happy couple left the next morning to visit friends in Toronto, Hamilton, Stratford and Mount Forest. Many of their friends remained to see them off and to shower them with confetti and hearty good wishes. The bride's travelling suit was of brown ladies cloth and silk and hat to match. One of the amusing features of the supper was a cake in which was a ring, button and a five-cent piece. One of our promising young men got the ring, signifying that he will not remain long in single blessedness. The button was gotten by the hostess, showing that she never will marry. The silver piece was found by Mr. A. Hislop's little boy, John McFarland, who got the last piece on the plate, indicating riches. The presents to the bride were numerous and costly. The groom's present to the bride was a gold bracelet, to the bridesmaid a pearl crescent, and to the groomsman a ruby tie pin.

Rheumatic poisons are quickly and surely driven out of the blood with Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy—liquid or tablet form. Dr. Shoop's booklet on Rheumatism plainly & interestingly tells just how this is done. Park House Banquet

The Park House banquet on Friday evening last was not freely patronized by villagers, there being only about 75 people present altogether. Mine Host Davison put up a splendid supper, including oysters and ice cream, after which all retired to the parlor, where a nice little program was presided over by the handsome proprietor of the Durham Chronicle, W. Irwin. Mr. Irwin gave a short chairman's speech during the course of which he took occasion to say that he did not think the temperance cause was suffering from the three-fifths clause.

Mr. P. McCullough of Markdale gave a temperance address. He thought the prohibition question should be made a political matter. The people should support those who would support temperance any time and anywhere. If this were done there would soon be no bars. Good accommodation did not depend on the bars. In Detroit there were only about thirty hotels that carried a license to sell intoxicating liquor. The speaker laid great stress on the duty and possibilities of women as a factor in the anti-liquor campaign, and indicated that he was in favor of the franchise for women. Mr. McCullough's address was well received.

Mr. J. M. Davis of Vandeleur spoke for about ten minutes, also on temperance lines. He had been a temperance man ever since he was thirteen years of age In closing he advised the ladies to patronize the Park house when in town.

Rev. J. S. I. Wilson of Markdale was the last speaker, and as the evening was late he was obliged to curtail his address, which was entitled "Woman—God bless her." Those present were extremely sorry that Mr. Wilson was unable to give his address in its entirety. He said that woman's triumph began with the Virgin Mary. Her present position in christendom was due to the advent of Jesus Christ. It was said that the age of detestability in young men was from 17 to 21, but there was no such age in woman. Young women sometimes think they cannot do much, but they do not appreciate the influence they can wield against sin. He referred to the work of Joan of Arc, Frances Willard, and others. Down in the south the initials W.C.T.U. were interpreted as woman continually torment us. Her important sphere was as a home maker. He believed in saying well done, even if the biscuits were burned. Tell your wife she is pretty—even if it requires a stretch of the conscience to do it. The end justifies the means. The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world. The speaker closed by saying woman is a mystery still. She has been called the conundrum of the 20th century. Still, if we cannot guess her we will never give her up.

Mr. Lou Karstedt of Durham made a short address.

During the course of the evening music was supplied by Miss Rita Irwin of Durham, Messrs. Hugh McCrae, W. A. and Edwin Glass and F. Benton, Durham; Mr. Davison, the host; Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Ella Karstedt, and Miss Lilian Bunt, Flesherton.

Votes of thanks to chairman and talent brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

Small pox of a mild type has been discovered in various parts of Ontario lately and this week Durham was surprised to hear that there was a case near town, Mr. Stanley McNally, who contracted it at his school in Normanby. The case has been completely isolated of course, and nothing further has sprung from it, nor is likely to.—Durham Review.

Returns made at the close of the present fiscal year shows that before they have been two years in the country no less than 1,700 men and women were found to be undesirable citizens, and have been deported. Besides these there were 4,600 immigrants who were rejected upon first touching the country. Another interesting fact noted by the Department is the decrease in immigration from Japan. During the whole past year only 500 have come from that land, as compared with 7,452 during the preceding fiscal year.
