CENTRE GREY DOMINION ALLIANCE

From the standpoint of attendance, enthusiasm and hopefulness, the convention on Thursday last goes down to history as probably the most successful yet held under the auspices of the Centre Grey Prohibition Alliance.

The convention was opened in the Marsh Hall, Markdale, at 1.30 p.m., Rev. Dr. Caldwell, the President, occupying the chair. Owing to the unavoidable absence through illness of Mr. T.R. McKenzie, the Secretary, Mr. Thomas Wilson of Walters Falls was appointed Secretary pro tem. There was a splendid attendance of interested and determined men and women. After the appointment of the nominating committee, Mr. Joseph Gibson of Ingersoll, the distinguished president of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, gave a thirty-minute address showing the fallacy of the cry that Local Option hurts business, and appealing for a vote in every municipality where it is possible to bring one on next January. Representatives from Markdale and Holland spoke hopefully of the prospects in these municipalities.

At the evening session the spacious hall was well filled. The report of the nominating committee was presented by Rev. J. S. I. Wilson and was unanimously adopted. The following is the report: President, Rev. H. E. W. Kemp of Walters Falls; 1st Vice President, Rev. G. C. Little, Flesherton; 2nd Vice President, W. G. Pickell, Markdale; 3rd Vice President, Wm. Breese, Chatsworth; 4th Vice President, Robert McKnight, Ravenna; Secretary, T. R. McKenzie, Port Law; Treasurer, W. H. Thurston, Flesherton. Conveners in the various municipalities—Thornbury, Eleazer Raymond, Thornbury; Collingwood, Rev. J. Phimister, Singhampton; Osprey, A. N. Brownridge, Maxwell; Artemesia, J. I. Graham, Vandeleur; Markdale, R. J. McKennit, Markdale; Euphrasia, Peter Smith, Harkaway; Holland, J. N. Perdue, Massie; Chatsworth, Rev. F. Matheson, Chatsworth; Sullivan, appointment left with the President.

The President-elect was then introduced by the retiring president.

Rev. Kemp upon assuming office, thanked the convention for the honor conferred and signified his readiness to devote as much time and energy as possible to the office to which he had been appointed.

Rev. Kipp, who was largely instrumental in carrying local option in Sydenham, spoke briefly on "How to win in a local option contest." Thorough organization and a system of education were emphasized. He deprecated the practice of indulging in unkind criticism of opponents.

Mrs. Thomas Cook, the talented President of the Markdale W. C. T. U., was introduced and assured the convention of the hearty support of the organization she had the honor to represent.

Mr. Gibson, the speaker of the evening, was then called upon. He began by declaring that the true principle in life is the application of the Golden Rule to all human conduct. "How long," he asked, "would the man behind the bar sell to the man in front of the bar if he followed the Golden Rule? and yet he is your agent, you put him there." The license system was in operation in Markdale to-day because a majority had voted to retain it. He loved his native land, because he hated the liquor traffic. In Great Britain as much money was spent for strong drink in seven months as the whole revenue of the nation amounted to in twelve months—no wonder there was poverty. He was opposed to the license system because the whole thing was bad. The Methodist Conference had declared that to license the liquor trafic was sin Any Methodist who thought otherwise claimed to have more brains than the whole Church. "I would like to have a look at that man," said the speaker; "I would like to have a photograph of him." Other Churches—the Roman Catholic, Anglican and Presbyterian—had all made similar pronouncements. Although Alderman, Reeve and Mayor of his own town many times over, he had never yet voted for license. If the men had not conscience enough to banish the bar, they should let the women have the ballot. He repudiated the argument that this will unsex the woman. Inside of five years the different political parties will be tumbling over one another in their efforts to show that they have always believed that women should have the franchise.

The speaker drew a graphic picture showing how the bar comes between the workshop and the home. Nine-tenths of the bars in Toronto are congested with working men after working hours at night.

Referring to the success of Local Option Mr. Gibson said that one year ago seven municipalities tried a repeal vote, and the repeal carried in only one. In these municipalities the by-law had been carried by a majority of 337 and was sustained by a combined majority of 991. Last January in 27 municipalities where the by-law had originally been carried by a majority of 3064 it was sustained by a majority of 4866. 700 parishes in Quebec are dry. 400 municipalities in Ontario are under Local option. 40 licenses will be cut off in Toronto next month, ⅞ of the American Republic is under some form of Prohibitory Legislation. The grandest National Policy is not the policy that protects the clothes around the boy, but the one that protects the boy inside the clothes. The question of public accommodation was referred to as a difficult but not an insurmountable one. Mr. Gibson concluded an address bristling with trenchant truth, delivered in his own inimitable style with a strong appeal for a clean body which is the temple of God.

On motion of Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, seconded by Rev. Alex. Shepherd, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker of the evening for his masterly address and his helpful counsel throughout the convention.

The National Anthem and benediction brought to a close a convention that will live long in the memories of those who were present.

Five Insane In One Family.

Shelburne, April 15.—As the result of information laid by Jas. Johnston, a well-known and wealthy farmer of Mulmur township, near Lavender, five members of his own family are now lying in the jail here, charged with threatening to injure the person and property of the informant. They are: Mrs. Tod Jane Johnston, his wife; Mary Jane Johnston, daughter; David Johnston, son; Albert Edward Johnston, son; and Jas. Johnston, son.

About one o'clock Wednesday afternoon three constables, Messrs. Wm. Laverty, Joseph White, and George Waltam, left Shelburne to arrest the five, arriving at the farm at 4.30 o'clock. They encountered many difficulties in arresting them, and it was only after a struggle that Tod Jane Johnston, the informant's wife, was handcuffed. Three men were necessary to hold her down while being handcuffed, and it was evident from the start that she was quite insane.

On the arrival of the constables at the farm they found the two women in a nude state and it was with considerable difficulty that they found enough in the house to dress them before bringing them to town.

Not quite as much difficulty was encountered with the other members of the family, but several attempts were made by the son on the journey to town to escape.

Owing to the difficulty in arresting them they had not started on the return trip until 5.30 o'clock, and the very bad condition of the road, kept them on the road to Shelburne until nine.

A large crowd of spectators was on the streets and their arrival was soon made known by the loud yells and shrieks from the old lady, Mrs. Tod Jane Johnston, who is well on to 80 years of age.

They were committed to the Orangeville jail by James Williamson, J. P. of Whitefield, and Reeve Greer, of Perm, and were removed to the Orangeville jail Thursday morning, where they will remain until the necessary papers are received for their committment to an asylum

A strange thing about the insane Johnston family according to County Constable Lafferty, who brought them to the jail. Although their father, James Johnston, was formerly a school teacher the family is illiterate. Constable Lafferty says one of the boys told him that none of them had been past the first book in the Public School. James Johnston, their father, is a well-to-do farmer, and is well thought of in Mulmur township.

The case of a whole family being incarcerated as insane is the talk of Orangeville, and in fact of the whole of Dufferin county. The Johnstons come from a short distance of the home of George Stewart, who committed murder a few months ago in an insane frenzy. They lived on the road on which Stewart lived, but in another township.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by W. E. Richardson.
