pending the action of the legislature upon the subject. The spirit of these regulations, it is reported, is greatly at variance with that which pervaded the speech and tune through the Bill of the late Commissioner. Mr. McDougall's object was in the largest possible degree to develope the resources of the region now known to be auriferous. To this end he proposed to throw the whole open to the energy and enterprise of those who may be expected to flock into the Chaudiere district so soon as the snow shall leave the ground. He offered substantial encouragement to the hardy miners elswhere shown themselves to be indispensible, and whose sturdy independence forbids the acceptance of terms other than those directly beneficial to themselves as masters of their own labor. And pressure was applied to proprietors who have hitherto pursued the dog-in-the-manger policy, and whose unreasonableness at present constitutes the greatest hinderence to the progress of mining pursuits in the gold bearing districts of Lower Canada. Had Mr. McDougall's liberal ideas prevailed—and we are not yet prepared to think them rejected by the legislature—the province might have hoped to witness a material change in the aspect of the country in the vicinity of the Chaudiere.

The possibility is changed if what rumor says of the new regulations be correct. As the matter stands, we believe that two kinds of licences will be issued. One, conferring a right to explore, will be granted for three months, extending over one hundred acres, and transferable; the fee being one dollar. The other, giving the right to work, will be granted only to the proprietor of the land, for three months; the requirement being that he shall employ not less than five persons, paying for each a fee of one dollar. The plan, it will be seen, is not calculated to encourage new comers, but on the contrary will inevitably tend to retard the enterprise without which neither the proprietors nor the province may be expected to profit.

Of course these regulations ought not to be treated as representing Mr. Campbell's deliberate purposes. His opportunities for maturing measures have been but nominal; and for whatever may be done meanwhile in his name perhaps he ought not to be held fully responsible. However this may be—whether Mr. Campbell comes up to the requirements of the time in this matter of mining or not—we trust that the intelligence of Parliament will ensure the ultimate adoption of a policy at least as liberal as that which is in operation in other gold producing parts of the British empire.

UNION OF THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

(From the Toronto Leader.)

A practical movement has at length been made for the union of the maritime Provinces of British America. At present, they form three distinct Provinces: Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward's Island; Newfoundland not being considered a part of British America. It is not so classed in the Colonial office, we believe.

The Government of Nova Scotia has taken the initiative by introducing in the Legislature a resolution to appoint five delegates to confer with an equal number from New Brunswick and Prince Edward's Island to agree upon a basis of union. This resolution was carried without a division. If the other provinces also appoint delegates, and a basis of union be agreed upon, the ratification of the Imperial and Provincial Legislatures would be required. It does not appear that the consent of the Imperial Government to the scheme has been obtained; and the omission of this may possibly cause some objection, which may delay its consummation.

The proposal is in fact neither more nor less than for a reunion of Provinces which physical necessities rather that political causes first separated. In their infancy, some of these colonies were separate. The treaty of Utrecht, in 1713, which gave the first blow to the Colonial system of Colbert, deprived France of Acadie or Nova Scotia; while she retained Isle Royale or Cape Breton. What were the bounderies of Acadia was a question much contested. According to the French, Acadia was confined to the Presque' Isle now known as Nova Scotia: according to the English it included all New Brunswick and part of the State of Maine. Till within two years of the conquest of Canada, which cut the knot of the difficulty, the French continued masters of Cape Breton. At the conquest, this island as well as that of Prince Edward, was united to Nova Scotia. The latter was made a separate Province in 1770, in which position it has ever since remained. Fourteen years later, in 1784 Nova Scotia was divided into three colonies, of which New Brunswick was one and Cape Breton another. The latter was re-united to Nova Scotia in 1820; but New Brunswick has ever since remained separate.

These three various Provinces are all inhabited by a population sufficiently homogeneous to prevent any difficulty on the score of race. The population of the whole is about one-third that of Canada; a fact of considerable importance in view of the ultimate extension of the union of all the Provinces. At present, there are obstacles in the way of an union with Canada; physical obstacles of precisely the same nature as tended to the separation of New Brunswick at the time it took place. The facility of intercourse which railroads have given has abolished the cause of the original separation; and the re-union with its advantages can now be enjoyed, without any serious drawbacks being encountered. This seems to be the view of the matter taken by the Provincial Secretary of Nova Scotia. For want of this facility of communication with Canada, the un on cannot, at present, be extended to this Province. But of the promoters of the lesser union many look upon it only as the first step to the greater. Before the latter can be brought about, the Intercolonial railway must be built. The Provincial Secretary of Nova Scotia mentioned the deficit in the Canadian revenue as a further reason against an extended union. We must remove this objection; and then Canada will become eligible for the partnership.

The three Lower Provinces once united, the remainder of the work would be easy. It would be so much easier for Canada to deal with one Province than three. For federal purposes, the whole of the provinces would make three; one to consist of the the maritime provinces, another of Lower and the third of Upper Canada. By giving and taking a little, it would be easy so to arrange the division as to give to each about an equal population. There would remain the question of what ought to be done with Newfoundland. With a view to that future which is to give birth to a distinct British American nationality, it would be desirable to include Newfoundland, on account of its commanding, to a certain extent, the entrance to the St. Lawrence. At present, for reasons not stated, but which are obvious enough, it is kept out of the account. This is of no importance. When the time for arranging the final union of Cabotia, as the united maritime provinces would probably be called, with Canada comes, it will be soon enough to decide the other question of what should be done with Newfoundland.

TEETH. TEETH.

Dr. NEELANDS,

SURGEON-DENTIST, of Port Hope, (late of Toronto), will be at Jewett's New Hotel, Lindsay (next Room to Dr. Martin's) the first Tuesday of every month, and remain one week, to perform all operations connected with his profession.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

Dr. Neelands is now inserting Teeth on the combined Gold and Rubber Plate, requiring only one-third of the plate generally used, and superior in comfort, strength and durability; thus doing away with the unnecessary amount of bulky and uncomfortable Rubber Plate, and making the Teeth as near as possible to the utility of the natural ones.

EXTRACTING TEETH.

Great improvements have been made in instruments for extracting teeth. Being supplied with a large number of beautiful Forceps adapted to the shape of every tooth, teeth may be extracted without the suffering or danger to which the patient has heretofore been subjected.

FILLING OF TEETH.

Especial attention is given to the Filling of Teeth, to restore them as near as possible to their former strength, durability and usefulness.

REGULATING TEETH.

Particular attention is given to the Regula of Children's Teeth.

WISTAR'S BALSAM
—OF—
WILD CHERRY

has been used for nearly

HALF A CENTURY,

with the most astonishing success in curing

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of

THE THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, including even

CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known; so great is the good it has performed, and so great is the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

[Certificate from L. J. Racine, Esq., of the Minerva.]

MONTREAL, L.C., Oct. 20, 1858.

S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston,—

Gentlemen:—Having experienced the most gratifying results from the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I am induced to express he great confidence which I have in its efficacy. For nine months I was cruelly afflicted with a severe and obstinate cough, accompanied with acute pain in the side, which did not leave me, summer or winter. In October the symptoms increased alarmingly, and so reduced was I that I could walk but a few steps without resting to recover from the pain and fatigue which so slight an exertion occasioned. At this juncture I commensed taking the Balsam, from which I found immediate relief, and after having used four bottles I was completely restored to health. I have also used the Balsam in my family and administered it to my children with the happiest results. I am sure that such Canadians as use the Balsam can but speak in its favor. It is a preparation which has only to be tried to be acknowledged as the remedy par excellence.

Your obedient servant, L. J. RACINE.

A CURE FOR WHOOPING COUGH.

ST. HYACINTHE, C.E. Aug 21, 1856.

Messrs. SETH W. FOWLE & Co.

Gentlemen:—Several months since a little daughter of mine, ten years of age, was taken with Whooping Cough in a very aggravated form, and nothing we could do for her seemed in any way to relieve her suffering. We at length decided to try a bottle of your Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In three hours after she had commenced using it, she was greatly relieved, and in less than three days was entirely cured, and is now well, I have since recommended the Balsam to many of my neighbors, who have used it, and in no case have I known it fail of affecting a speedy cure.

You are at liberty to make any use of the above you may think proper. If it shall induce anybody to use your Balsam I shall be glad, for I have great confidence in it.

Yours, P. GUITTE, Proprietor of the "Courier de St. Hyacinthe."
