The District Around Us

Events as Chronicled in Our Exchanges

At the request of the Simcoe County Council, the killing of deer in the county for the next three years has been prohibited.

Erin Village council has passed an early closing by-law, by which the stores will close at 6 o'clock on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights, except on nights before holidays.

A naturalist asserts that if the earth were birdless man could not inhabit it for more than uine years. All the sprays and poisons in the world would be quite inadequate to keep down the insects, which would eat up everything.

The C. P. R. are going to lay 12 miles of heavy steel rails west from Orangeville Jct. This will bring it past the curves and grades above Grand Valley and will enable the Company to run engines up this line when required.—Star.

Constable Thos. Mullarkey, of Conn, went to Hamilton in charge of Thos. Chapman, a Barnardo boy about fifteen years of age, who had been with Mr. James Blyth, of Monck, and who had become mentally deranged so that he had to be committed to the asylum.

A broken wheel on a freight car caused the derailment of eight cars of an extra C. P. R. freight at Cardwell Tank, at an early hour on Saturday morning. No one was injured, but, as there is an embankment at that point, considerable damage was done to the rolling stock. The auxiliary train from West Toronto cleared up the line.

Mr. John McCartney, of the 7th line, St. Vincent, met with an accident on Tuesday afternoon which will in all probability result in his losing the use of his left eye. He was in the act of untying a cow in the stable in order to feed her when she suddenly tossed her head, causing one of her horns to hit Mr. McCartney in the eye, injuring the ball very seriously. Dr. Bennett, who dressed the injury, has very little hope of saving the eye.—Meaford Mirror.

An order-in-Council has been passed revoking permits which have been granted to settlers in Ontario to kill two deer each year during the open season for their own use. They have been granted the permit on payment of twenty-five cents in previous years. It has been found that the privilege has been abused in the unorganized districts, and in future settlers will be in the same position as hunters, and will be required to take out a license.

W. S. Ellis had a nice little run of luck on Saturday morning. Five years ago Mr. Ellis purchased a particularly choice lot of wheat and had it elevated into a large hopper in his elevator. When he shipped it out he was astonished to find that he was over 100 bushels short and the loss remained a complete mystery until Saturday, when with the help of a long auger, Mr. Ellis tapped the resting place of the long lost wheat between the hopper and the walls of the bin. Over $100 worth of choice grain responded to the auger. It was like finding money.—Alliston Herald.

Repeated efforts to find the body of the late Captain McInnis have so far proved unsuccessful. Despite this fact, however, the search will be continued. Mr. John McMullen, residing at the Clay Banks, who was standing at his barn door when the fatality took place, and who claims to have seen the tug Primrose as the engineer turned her round for the purpose of trying to rescue the drowning man, was sure that he would be able to locate the exact spot where Captain McInnis sank to his death, but when Mr. McMullen was taken out on the tug he was unabl to say positively just where the boat was when she turned.—Mirror.

A very sad accident happened near Camilla, seven miles north of Orangeville, Saturday about noon, whereby William Forsyth, prosperous farmer of Mono township, lost his life. A small outbuilding in Glenoe public school section had been damaged by wind, and Mr. Forsyth, who is a public school trustee, went to inspect it. The building fell over and broke Mr. Forsyth's neck. He was found about 2 o'clock by William McKim, another trustee, but death had been instantaneous. Deceased was very highly respected and leaves a wife and five children. Coroner Henry viewed the remains and decided an inquest was not necessary.

Stewart McDonald Douglas, a traveller for the Scarboro Publishing company, 36 South James street, Hamilton, was found dead in bed in the St. Alban's hotel, Wiarton, about 2 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon. The deceased came to town a few days ago from Owen Sound in a helplessly drunken condition. Wednesday morning he was seen about the streets and about 10 o'clock, according to Mr. Gladstone of the St. Alban's, he retired to a bedroom upstairs. This was the last seen of him until early in the afternoon, when one of the hotel officials, in passing the bedroom door, saw Douglas lying on the bed and from his appearance suspected all was not well. Upon investigating he found that the man was dead, the body being still warm. Coroner Fisher was hurriedly summoned, and upon examination expressed the opinion that Douglas had suffocated, as his head was bent forward and a high stand up collar was pressing hard against his neck.

A pitiful case of juvenile insanity was to be seen at the G. T. R. station last Thursday morning, when County Constable Thos. Mullarkey, of Conn, left for Hamilton Asylum in charge of an English orphan lad, named Thos. Chapman, who had been working for James Blyth, of the 10th of West Luther.—Rep.

While Isaac Berry, a prominent farmer in Keppel, and his wife, were away visiting on Sunday their house caught fire, and the three small children who were left at home ran down the road. They fortunately met John Leonard, a neighbor, who went up on the roof, and with a bucket fought the fire and saved the house. He was the only man who passthat way that day, and his timely arrival saved a few hundred dollars for Mr. Berry.

The old fashioned way of dosing a weak stomach, or stimulating the Heart or Kidneys is all wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. This is why his prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed entirely to the cause of these ailments, the weak inside or controlling nerves. It isn't so difficult, says Dr. Shoop, to strengthen a weak Stomach, Heart, or Kidneys, if one goes at it correctly. Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve. When these nerves fail, then these organs must surely falter. These vital truths are leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's restorative. Test it a few days, and see! Improvement will surely follow. Sold by all dealers.

An Old Landmark Gone

At Melancthon Station this week one of the old landmarks is being removed. It consists of the driving barn and stable which is the relic of the old Toronto Grey & Bruce Railway hotel. At the time the hotel was built it was the largest and most up-to-date hotel between Toronto and Owen Sound. The hotels in Orangeville and Brampton could not equal it. The hotel and outbuildings covered nearly an acre of ground. In the building was a large general store in which were kept dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, hardware, undertaker's supplies, clocks and jewelery also a wholesale liquor store which supplied the country hotels for miles around. Geo. Young's blacksmith shop and a number of residences were close to the hotel. The late James Sawden conducted a general carpentering and wagon making business and was the only undertaker between Orangeville and Flesherton. James Brown, township clerk and postmaster of Melancthon, and present owner of the site on which stood the former village, is the only survivor of those present at the raising of the building being removed. The old building is owned by Mr. Brown and is being removed up to the corner, where it will be rebuilt and utilized as a stable and store house by W. J. Campbell, merchant. Wm. Morey, manufacturer of the once celebrated "Morey Bitters", was the original projector and builder of the old hotel but he only continued in business about two years. He then sold out to James Sloan who conducted an extensive business for several years during the time the Toronto Grey and Bruce railway was built. The hotel was the meeting place for the Melancthon council and 12th of July celebrations and many a lively and exciting scene took place on this memorable spot whose history dates back nearly half a century. The old hotel and buildings in connection were the first frame structures erected in that part of the township. Thomas Graham was the contractor of the hotel, store and outbuildings. Time changes all things and this week the last relic of Melancthon's pristine grandeur passes into oblivion. We might add Henry Halipay Walker of Shelburne was chief clerk for Mr. Morey and Mr. Sloan. The burning of the old hotel, which was occupied by Jas. Dick as a general store during the Patron days in Dufferin, is an event of present history and will be remembered by all.—Shelburne Free Press.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by W. E. Richardson.
