Mrs. W. A. Armstrong has a cute little charge in a wee red poll that has built its nest in a hanging basket on her porch. The trusting little bird has its brood hatched and growing nicely.

This is a week of examinations in the Flesherton public school. Monday and Tuesday the usual promotion exams were held, and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the entrance exams are on with Mr. Rowe of Markdale in charge.

Mr. Wellington Badgerow has rented his farm and will start a boarding house and small grocery at Saugeen Junction. He expects to be in position to cater to the public about July 1. He will hold an auction sale, which is announced elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGirr and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Douglass of Meaford spent a day last week with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell. Mr. McGirr has just returned from a four-months' trip through several of the southern States.

The return journey from Seattle will be by way of the C. P. R. via Winnipeg. Mrs. Armstrong expects to be absent about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie Duncan met with a painful loss last Thursday, when their son, Harold, aged 15 years, was taken from them after an illness extending over some time. The funeral on Saturday afternoon was a very large one. The remains were taken to the Presbyterian church, where an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Little, after which interment took place in Flesherton cemetery. Councillor Duncan and family are the recipients of much sympathy in the loss of their son, who was a bright little fellow and bore his suffering with great fortitude.

Thursday next will be the great day of the year in Flesherton, when people from all parts of the county will bump up against each other and say howdy. The morning train from Walkerton will run up to this station from the junction and is expected to bring a lot of Durham, Hanover and Priceville guests. For the benefit of these a football tournament has been arranged for the forehoon, the clubs taking part being Kimberley, Markdale, Feversham and Eugenia. The prize is $15, and a nominal entrance fee of 10 cents will be charged. Don't fail to come out and participate in this big day of sport.

Rev. Ivison and Mrs. Wilson of Markdale called on friends here Tuesday to bid farewell, previous to his removal next week to Huntsville.

Mr. Ern. Armstrong, Cobalt, who was a delegate to the Toronto conference, took a couple of days off last week to visit his mother and friends here.

Mr. W. H. Bunt met with a nasty accident Monday evening, when a piece of glass from a broken transom fell on him, striking him on a fleshy part of the arm and cutting a gash that required four stitches to close it.

Several people have asked us where Owen Sound North church is, where Dr. Caldwell is stationed. It is the old Brooke church, which, since incorporation with Owen Sound, has been styled Owen Sound North.

Mr. W. Clayton, Flesherton's boot and shoe man, who attended conference from here, is spending a well deserved holiday on the beautiful shores of Lake Simcoe. May he come home rejuvenated and in good condition to "last" a long time yet.

The Woodstock College Evangelistic band will hold services next Sunday as follows: 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., in the town hall, Flesherton. 3. p.m., Rockvale, Mr. Trembert speaking. 4 p. m., Ceylon hall, the quartette in charge. Every night next week in the Baptist church in the village.

The Methodist Epworth League, about 30 strong, visited the Markdale League Monday evening. The Flesherton young people supplied the program and Markdale the eatables. There was also a peanut proverb contest, and altogether the evening was most enjoyably and instructively spent.

Mr. Alex. Cameron advertised some stray cattle in The Advance last week. The paper had not been out 24 hours until Mr. Cameron was notified of their whereabouts and he wants us to make a note of it so that others will know where to come when they have anything to advertise.

The eclipse of the sun on Thursday evening last as it neared the horizon was a very pretty sight indeed and many villagers viewed the phenomenon. About one half of the sun's disc was covered by the moon. The air and sky were clear and the eclipse was viewed under the most favorable circumstances.

Anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath, July 4th, 1909. Rev. Dr. McLaren of Rocklyn will preach at both morning and evening services, at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. A free will offering is asked for at both services, as there will be no festival on the week following. All are cordially invited.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held in the town hall on Tuesday, 19th, at 2.30 o'clock sharp, when a paper will be given by Mrs. Runstadtler. Subject: "Compare the seeds sown in the field with those sown in the home." All ladies cordially invited to attend and any one wishing to join will be accepted, as this is the beginning of the year.

The new coat of arms for Ontario heads a government advertisement in another column. The Harriston Review explains the new emblem thus: "It is of very handsome design and entitles us to a seat in the Herald's College in the Old Country. To those who never saw such, and they are many and numerous, it may be mentioned that the beastie walking along the top is a bear while the horned cattle standing on their hind legs are respectively a deer and a moose—not a mouse, Scotty. The inscription is Latin and means "We are the Whole Tip and More Too."

A sad death occurred on the west back line, two miles from Markdale, on Monday morning, when Harry Smyth, aged 39, and the sole support of an aged mother, was suddenly called away. Mr. Smith had been ailing for some time but even the physician did not think his case serious. He harrowed all day Saturday and was in Markdale Saturday evening. Sunday he took suddenly ill while driving to see his affianced and passed away Monday morning. It is thought death was caused by a growth in the liver. The mother, who is left alone, is 80 years of age. The funeral took place to Glenelg R. C. cemetery on Wednesday. A brother of Mr. Smith kept a livery in Flesherton a few years ago.

A dozen members of Prince Arthur lodge attended a Masonic service in Markdale Sunday morning, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, who preached an excellent sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Mr. Henry Tucker, Ceylon, met with an accident on Friday morning that might easily have cost him his life, in fact it is scarcely yet known how it will result. Mr. Tucker was driving a small load of hay on a wagon box across the railway track, when the jolting of the wagon threw him off in front. One wheel ran over his breast and another cut his head. He is also believed to be injured internally as well as suffering a scalp wound and injury to back and side. He was picked unconscious and carried to his home, where he now lies. Mr. Tucker is an elderly gentleman, which makes the accident all the more serious and regrettable. We believe, however, he has shown evidence of improvement and we trust he will soon recover.

The Woodstock band of five young men who are holding night meetings here under the auspices of the Baptist church are having splendid success, the meetings being largely attended and the keenest interest evinced. The singing of the quartet is a very attractive feature, while the speaking is earnest and effective. They tell the old story in a more than usually convincing way, and the benefit derived by their coming here will be something that our people should be thankful for, regardless of creed or calling. It is rarely indeed that such a combination of rich young manhood is heard in one place. These young men are rich in the enthusiasm of youth and in the endowment of gifts that are likely to make them a power in the future work of their chosen church. They have been received here with great good will and wishes for God speed in the work they have in hand. The town hall was well filled on Sunday morning and packed at night, while the meetings this week are crowded.

Flesherton A. O. U. W. lodge, together with their friends, picnicked at Eugenia on Friday afternoon last and had a jolly good time. Priceville and Markdale lodges were to have joined them in the festivities but failed to materialize. Major Craig of Fergus, M. P. P. for East Wellington and school inspector in the same division, also Grand Foreman of the order, gave an interesting address on the peculiar and special advantages of belonging to this order. He had been a member for 25 years. D. D. G. M. Henry of Orangeville also spoke along the same line. Bro. R. Best occupied the chair. Flesherton band supplied the musical portion of the program and the ladies supplied a bountiful lot of choice eatables. Baseball practice and football match in the evening between a scrub Flesherton team and a Eugenia team resulted in 1-0 in favor of the latter. Only two of Flesherton's regular players were on the team. We do not know the composition of the Eugenia team. This game completed quite an enjoyable afternoon. It was a pity that the neighboring courts did not see fit to attend as they missed a treat. Mr. Craig is a host when it comes to talking. He is the man who worsted Hon. A. M. Gibson in East Wellington, turning a Reform majority of 1000 into a Conservative majority of about 200. That in itself is enough to make him an interesting gentleman to meet.
