A recent despatch says the African lions have turned on the Roosevelt party and chased them into town. This is a case of lion and lyin', with accent on the latter.

It is now an assured fact that the crops in this province will be fairly good, and this county will be up to the average with the exception of hay, which is short. The recent benificent rains have placed the grain on its feet and the straw has grown wonderfully during the past week. Grain in this immediate vicinity gives promise of being up to a full average.

The railway commission has ordered every railway in Canada to have the whole of it's right of way properly fenced in by Jan. 1, 1911. In the settled parts of the country this is all right, but surely it is not intended to apply to unsettled portions. The wire fences in wild districts are destructive on quadrupeds that roam the forests, and many a deer, and even moose, have met an untimely end by getting wound up in wire fences skirting the railway tracks. The railway commission should make a less sweeping order that would not include country where nothing crosses the lines but wild animals, of which there are hundreds of miles in Ontario alone.

The Grey Old Boys of Toronto have been with us during the past week, and on this occasion experienced one of the most successful excursions in the history of the Association, thanks to the energy of the President, Mr. J. W. Bates, and the Secretary, Mr. Jackson Little. This Association has been so successful in the past that they were in a quandary as to how they should spend their money, but solved the question satisfactorily this past winter. Formerly they were accustomed to giving a mid-winter entertainment, but it was felt that this did not just meet the requirements, so last winter they devoted one hundred dollars to deserving charities, some of the beneficiaries being the Owen Sound hospital, which benefitted to the extent of $25; the Grey House of Refuge, $10; the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, $10; the Home for Incurables $10, and the Western Sanitarium $10, besides others which brought it up to the hundred. All honour to the Grey Old Boys, and may they live long to "excurt" to the old home county. Their method of spending the surplus commends itself to all. May that surplus never grow less.

The Globe a week or so ago said it was rumored that the Ontario cabinet would create a new portfolio for Hon. I. B. Lucas, to be styled that of Minister of Public Utilities or something of that nature. Mr. Lucas has heard nothing of it. If such is to be the case it has not been hinted to him by his colleagues. Perhaps the information was inspired by the well-known fact that Hon. Mr. Lucas is so well qualified to fill such a portfolio. He has studied the question thoroughly and is a strong believer in the government ownership of certain utilities, such as the telephone system, for instance. We believe government ownership of telephones, telegraphs and the express business of this country is a necessity and will be demanded in the near future. These will have to be taken out of the hands of private corporations and any profits accruing therefrom placed in the public coffers, if the business of Canada is to reach its full fruition, and there would be no better man than Hon. Mr. Lucas to engineer such a reformation if it is to come. We hope there is something in it, even though the Hon. I. B. has been kept in the dark as to such a proposition.

During the thunder storm on Sunday a valuable mare belonging to the Bell Bros. of Cedarville was killed by lightning. We hear that $250 was paid for the animal.—Confederate.

During a thunderstorm about 3.30 o'clock Saturday afternoon the house of J. F. Stewart, near Corbetton, was struck by lightning. The chimney was shattered, holes made in the wood-work, and a dog lying downstairs was killed. Mrs. Stewart and children and Mrs. D. Stewart and children were in the house at the time, but they luckily all escaped with slight shocks.—Economist.

Albert Johnston, one of the three brothers committeed as lunatics from Mulmur some months ago, and who have since been in the Dufferin county jail at Orangeville, has been discharged by the authorities on the certificate of the jail surgeon, having been employed as a farm laborer by Archie Greer, reeve of the township. James, the eldest, and David, the youngest, are still confined, though it is likely that they also will shortly be released.

The recent electric storms have played some strange pranks. The house of David Porter, con. 6, Egremont, was struck. The electric fluid came through the roof and ceiling and made a hole in a paper Mrs. Porter was reading. Her limbs from her knees down were burned by the fluid and she was rendered unconscious, but fortunately she suffered no serious injury. Mr. Porter also suffered from the shock. The house of Mr. W. D. Stewart, on the 10th con. also had a narrow escape and was injured by lightning while the eldest son was rendered unconscious by the lightning which left its mark on his neck. A horse belonging to Mr. Arch. Bell, of Cedarville, was struck and Killed.

Hopper--Chard

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. Wm. Chard, 4th line, Artemesia, on the evening of July 14, when his daughter, Nellie, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Hopper of New Liskeard, formerly of the 8th line, Artemesia. The parties were unattended. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. F. Kipp in the presence of about 85 guests. The bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a most sumptuous wedding supper. After a short wedding trip the young couple will take up their residence at New Liskeard, where the well wishes of a large circle of friends will follow them.

In China, when a native is killed at a level crossing, the villagers barricade the track and block all trains until compensation has been paid. Canada is too highly civilized to tolerate such methods. Here, an action for damages is instituted in the courts, the case goes to trial, and the heir is awarded a large sum; there is an appeal and judgement is reversed; another appeal is made, which results in a new trial being ordered. About this stage in the proceedings the heir of the deceased, returning home at night after mortgaging his farm, gets run over at the same level crossing where his father was killed and there being no plaintiff nothing more is heard of the case. The following Sunday the neighbors contribute as usual to the funds for sending missionaries to China.—Toronto Star.

Priceville

The recent rains, although coming too late to benefit the meadows, have been of immense value to grain and root crops. The pastures which were bare, and brown, are now looking green again.

J. McArthur, merchant, has not been quite robust lately. Dr. Dixon accomanied him to the city, to consult some specialists, a few days ago. We hope no serious ailment will take place.

On Monday evening, the 12th, a little boy, son of Mr. D. Whyte, during the absence of his parents, rode a horse to the village, and when returning was thrown off and fractured his arm very badly. It was the next day before a a surgeon could be procured, and the arm was too much swollen to operate. His father took him to one of the Toronto hospitals.

Mrs. W. A. Parker of McVicar, was the guest of her brother, T. A. Ferguson last week.

Don McKinnon and Stanley Ferguson, of the O. S. C. I., are holidaying at their homes here.

Congratulations to the Misses Clara McClarey, Edna Ferguson, Margaret Tryon and Rebecca McMillan, who were successful at the entrance exams.

Miss Margaret McLeod attended the the wedding of her brother, Dr. J. A McLeod, in Meaford last week.

The Priceville Branch of the Women's Institute met at Mrs. D. Stewart's home on the north line, last week. Quite a number of the members from the village were present.
