A recent hail storm that passed over the Kimberley valley did hundreds of dollars worth of damage to the apple and grain crops. There is scarcely an apple left in some orchards that had not a piece or pieces taken out of it. Some of the orchards are practically ruined for saleable fruit this year and the loss will be heavy. The leaves were also riddled as though a myriad of rifle bullets had been fired through them. Old residents there say it was the worst storm they have ever witnessed.

Abraham Flynn continues to improve at the Toronto General Hospital, and his entire recovery is practically assured. This young man owes his life to a strong constitution and clean living. The doctors who operated on him did not expect to see him come out alive from under the opiate and operating knife, and he has surprised them.

The Grey Old Boys' excursion from Toronto was another great success in every way. The day was fine and eleven coaches brought up between 900 and 1000 visitors who dropped off at the various points throughout the county. Next year the Association purposes running their excursion to Durham as well as to Owen Sound.

Reporting the 12th of July celebration in Markdale the Clarksburg Reflector has these nice things to say of old 244: "The largest lodge in the procession was No, 244, Proton Station, which was some 75 strong. This is some 15 or 20 below the average on account of some of the brethren attending celebrations in other towns. They were all handsomely attired, marched well and they certainly were a credit to their Worthy Master, Mr. Herbert Corbett, who perhaps was the youngest W. M. in the procession, being scarcely 21 years of age when he assumed that responsible position three years ago. He is a son of Reeve Corbett of Proton."

Mr. Wellington Badgerow of this township died on Sunday evening at his home at Saugeen Junction, where he recently moved from the fourth line. Mr. Badgerow has been in failing health with something like Bright's disease for the past few years, but the end was not thought to be so near. On Thursday he took to his bed and sank rapidly until Sunday evening, when the dread summons came. The deceased gentleman was only 39 years of age and was born in this township. He leaves behind a young wife and two small children. The interment took place in Flesherton cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Among the Grey Old Boys who dropped off here on Saturday were the following: J. W. Bates, the energetic President of the Association; Dr. E. K. Richardson, Dr. Fred Murray and wife, Jas. Fields, A. Carter and two children, Miss Annie Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Thorp Wright and Miss Emma Wright, Miss May Damude, Mr. and Mrs. Acheson and child, Fred Ryder, Wm. McKee, John Phillips, C. Leavens, W. Campbell, Mrs. John Whitten, Robt. Taylor, D. Blair, G. E. and J. A. McPherson, R. J. Blackburn, W. A. King, J. E. Montgomery, J. Gilbert, Miss E. Henderson, Miss Ina Beattie, Miss S. Turner, Miss M. Clark, Mrs. Fred LeGard, E. J. Stoner and wife, C. Melia and wife, Miss Ida Ruiledge, Miss M. Hemphill, Wm. Taylor, R. J. Brodie, Mrs. Oliver, R. H. King, J. Ball, R. Phillips and wife, Frank Phillips and wife, and R. D. Purvis.

Last Thursday the Flesherton Institute accepted an invitation from the Maxwell Women's Institute, and about twenty-five members drove out to the home of Mr. Joseph Gamey. The weather was not all that could be desired, in fact it was decidedly damp, some even went so far as to say there was a downpour of rain. The programme was provided by the visiting Branch, and in the absence of Mrs. Best the chair was taken by the secretary. Mrs. R. Moore read a paper on "Table Manners and Courtesy in the Home". Mrs. R. H. Wright gave a solo, and Myrtle Thurston a reading. Mrs. J. Runstadtler read a paper "Compare the Seeds Sown in the Garden with Those Sown in the Home." Mrs. (Rev.) A. P. Stanley favored the audience with a reading. A sumptuous supper was served on the lawn, which was done ample justice to by the fifty people who sat down. When all were in a happy frame of mind a photograph was taken of the group. A vote of thanks was tendered all around, and particularly to the host and hostess. The drive home was much enjoyed until—well, it DID rain in the evening.

Nothing in the way of a cough is quite so annoying as a tickling, teasing, wheezing, bronchial Cough. The quickest relief comes perhaps from a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And besides, it is so thoroughly harmless that mothers give it with perfect safety even to the youngest babes. The tender leaves of a simple mountain shrub, give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its remarkable curative effect. It is truly a most certain and trustworthy prescription. Sold by all dealers.

An Orangeville despatch says: William MacNamara, a young Mono farmer, was to-day convicted before Judge McCarthy of an aggravated assault on George McDonald of the same township, and sentenced to the Central Prison for six months. The men were in town on April 24th last and had been drinking during the day. It being Saturday, and the hotels closing the bars sharp at 7, MacNamara procured some whiskey on a medical certificate by feigning illness. It was stated that the complainant, an Orangeman, and the prisoner, a Roman Catholic, got into a fight over religious questions, and McDonald was badly used up. About half past ten o'clock he started to walk home, a distance of five miles. Shortly afterwards MacNamara was started off by the night watchman with his horse and rig in the same direction. The complainant, it is alleged, was overtaken by the accused and further beaten, and had his leg broken, and was left on the road in a drizzling snowstorm and might have perished but was found about midnight by a chance wayfarer and rushed up town, where his injuries received attention. MacNamara, although protesting his innocence of the midnight attack, paid $175 as compensation. McDonald, who came into court today on crutches, was satisfied to drop all proceedings, but the Crown was unwilling, so the case was pressed and sentence imposed.

Sproule & Co's Announcement

Opened this week at Sproule, Higginbotham & Co's, Flesherton, new cherries, tomatoes, gooseberries and currants, selling like hot cakes and at lowest prices. Also fresh bananas arriving daily. The celebrated "Buster Brown" lemons, which have nearly doubled in price within the past few weeks, nevertheless this week will sell at the old price, which makes them exceedingly cheap. Have just opened another shipment of those celebrated Late Valencia "Golden Flower," seedless oranges, the best and most luscious oranges grown or imported, selling at 30, 40 and 50c per doz. It will pay you to give them a trial.

They are also headquarters for pig feed, chicken, fowl and animal feed. Now that hogs are selling at $7.65 per 100 lbs., eggs 19c doz., chickens 20c per lb., and butter 19c per lb., it pays well to look carefully after the keeping and feeding of hogs, fowl and milking cows, hence Sproule, Higginbotham & Co., ever mindful of the requirements and interests of their customers, keep constantly on hand the best chicken and fowl feed, composed of a mixture of clean wheat, buckwheat, peas, barley and a small sprinkling of oats. Feeding with this and a small sprinkling of Herbageum will make hens lay more eggs, and chickens grow better and fatten quicker than with any other feed on the market. Also on hand a good stock of Ontario bran, shorts, chop, oats, peas and barley, and finest quality of Manitoba and blended flour and all selling at lowest remunerative prices.
