After six weeks of darkness over one half the town, owing to the burning out of a large transformer, Mr. Deagle of the power company said on Monday evening "Let there be light," and there was light. One of our subscribers doesn't like some of the things he reads in this paper. Neither do we. But he is at liberty to pick out what he doesn't like and leave it for someone who is less fastidious. Does he know what they call a man who sits down at a first-class hotel dinner, and beginning at the first item on the bill of fare, tries to eat every dish mentioned thereupon? The newspaper presents a varied bill of fare every week, but there is no law compelling you to devour every portion of it. Just put aside what you don't relish and say nothing about it, and don't swear at the editor. It's both wicked and foolish.

Abraham Flynn, the young man who was taken to Toronto a couple of weeks ago, suffering from appendicitis, passed away in the General Hospital there on Thursday morning of last week, at the age of 17 years. It was confidently thought he would recover from the operation, he had got along so well, but inflammation set in and within a few hours he was no more. The remains were brought home, and the funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery from the Baptist chapel on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. L. F. Kipp. Abraham was a steady, hard working boy, and a good boy to his mother, to whom a great deal of sympathy is extended in her sorrow.

Richardson, to be joined by Mr. George Richardson of Toronto. This party will take the Shirley M. to Thornbury and navigate among the islands of the east shore of the Georgian Bay. The Editor of The Advance will join his two brothers—Dr. F. A. Thurston of Chicago and A. D. Thurston, Toronto, in a canoe trip in Parry Sound district. With all this exodus business will go on the same as ever, for the fortnight they are away. They will probably not be missed—only at meal time.

Muskoka Excursion on Saturday

Saturday next the Sun Press Club's great excursion goes to Muskoka lakes over the C.P.R. and it will be the greatest and best holiday outing of the year. Return fare from Flesherton is $2.10, and a round trip of the lakes may be had for $1.00 additional. Don't miss this great chance of seeing the land of lakes and islands—the Killarney of America.

The Dirty Tongue

The Roman Catholics are making a great crusade against the frequent use of foul and filthy talk. Archbishop McEvay of Toronto, who is well known for his dauntless courage in attacking in plain speaking against the evils of the time, says:—"The crying sin of our fair country in cursing and swearing. It is heard everywhere, in the factory, in the store, as well as on the street. Any man with a spark of manhood should avoid it. The man who says he cannot break himself off the habit is both cowardly to himself and untruthful. One has only to mingle with the groups of young men and boys crowding on public thoroughfares to realize how far the filthy tongue is becoming a national evil. We do not believe that the onus of stemming the torrent of profanity should be left entirely to preachers, although they can do much by their influence and getting with the boys, showing an active interest in their games and sports, etc., to make the habit unpopular. With parents rests a responsibility they should not shirk, and while recognizing the danger of encouraging the too free use of the law, a few salutary examples made of foul mouthed talkers on the public streets would have a wholesome effect.

Two Railway News Items

Wm. Kirkpatrick, general freight agent of the C.P.R., was in town on Wednesday, says the Examiner, looking up the prospects for business should his company enter Barrie. He was taken in hand by Mayor Vair and given every assistance towards securing the information desired. If C.P.R. connection is given to Barrie it will probably be on the line to be constructed from Collingwood to Orillia. Replying to a question from Mr. Kirkpatrick, the Mayor said the town would not offer the C.P.R. any inducements to enter Barrie. Inducements were offered to manufactories that would make the business for the road.

The Tiverton Watchman says: Two C.P.R. engineers from Montreal were in the village last week on their way over the proposed extension of the Proton branch of the C.P.R. from Walkerton to Inverhuron. They were favorably impressed with this section of the country. They examined the ravine north of the village and found that access to the lake could be obtained with a low grade. They drove to Inverhuron, taking levels along the way and thoroughly examined the harbor. After anxiously waiting for over a quarter of a century the people are becoming confident that they will have a direct line to Toronto over the C.P.R in the near future.

A company has been formed to mine the zinc deposits recently discovered near Wiarton.

A certain girl had a proposal of marriage and asked a week to think it over. She went to all her married sisters. One who used to be a belle had three children, did all her own work and had not been to the theatre or out riding since she was married. Another, whose husband was a promising young man at the time she was married, was supporting him. A third didn't dare say life was her own when her husband was around, and a fourth was divorced. After visiting them and hearing their woes the heroine of the tale went home, got pen, ink and paper and wrote an answer to the young man. You may think it was refusing him, but it wasn't. She said she would be ready in a month.

The following countries and colonies have entered in an agreement to work to put down the white slave traffic:—Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Brazil, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Norway, Sweeden, Portugal, Russia, Spain, Switzerland, Bahamas, Barbadoes, British Guiana, Canada, Ceylon, Australia, Gambia, Gold Coast, Malta, Newfoundland, Northern Nigeria, Southern Rhodesia, Trinidad, Windward Islands. Each government is to appoint an officer who will have a strict watch kept, particularly at railway stations and ports, to prevent women or girls being taken away for immoral purposes, and to keep other countries informed of suspected persons coming.

The subject of home work for public school children is being discussed again, some medical men having advised that it should be abolished. It was done away with in Stratford public schools a few years ago, says the Beacon, except in the classes in the third and fourth readers, and in these a limit was made. There is no reason to believe that the schools have suffered in efficiency since, and it would probably be just as well if there were no home work at all. Children need time for play and to develope physically. If five hours of good hard study is put in at school it is enough for almost any child of the age at which public school is attended. There may be exceptions, such as where a child is much above the average in a class, and is strong physically it may in such a case be desirable to let that child have an opportunity of overtaking the work. The training of the mind is but a part of education. The body and the soul need to be looked after as well. If there is too great mental exertion it affects the health of the body and in turn reacts upon the mind.
