The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church were disappointed at their garden party on Friday last, the Feversham football team not showing up, according to arrangement. This was not the ladies' fault, but appears to be a habit of the Feversham bunch, who disappointed the management of the July 1st celebration at Flesherton also. It is felt that the least they could have done was to have phoned over that they were not coming in time for the ladies to make other arrangements.

Rev. John McLaurin. of Dufferin St. Baptist church, Toronto, goes to India, as a missionary, in October.

John Campbell dead—Another of the early settlers in Proton township in the person of Mr. John Campbell, who after an illness of seven days, died at his home here, on July 26th, at the age of 90 years five months. Mr. Campbell was born on February 22nd 1819, at Tiree, Angoeleshire, Scotland. He was about thirty years of age when he came to Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. He moved to Proton about fifty-three years ago. Mr. Campbell was an industrous farmer, and well respected. But few of the early settlers of his day survive him. His wife predeceased him fifteen years ago. They had four sons and four daughters, but three of his daughters are dead. He leaves a number of grand children, also great grand children. Mr. Campbell was a Presbyterian and quite regularly attended Gaelic services in Priceville church up to about a year ago. The funeral, which took place to Priceville cemetery on Saturday, was largely attended. In the absence of his pastor the funeral services which were impressive, where conducted at the house and grave by Rev. Henry Berry.

Hay in general will be done for this season this week. Although the crop is not to be compared with the yield of 1908, yet the ample showers in the past month, have produced tons of extra fodder in the meadows, and as the weather conditions for spring crops are ideal, the outlook is exceedingly more hopeful than once anticipated.

Dundalk.

Dundalk's civic holiday, Friday, July 23rd, turned out a wet day and very little in the way of out-door pleasure could be indulged in. A dozen or so braved the elements and took in the excursion to Toronto and the Falls. The lawn bowlers started a game in the morning but the Scotch mist thickened before the finish and they had to seek shelter. It was a quiet day.

Mr. Wm. A. Seawright received the sad news by telegram on Sunday of the death of his brother Frank at Westfield, N. Y. Death was very sudden as a letter from Westfield written Friday and received Saturday night made no mention of any illness. W. A., Miss Seawright and Willie left Monday morning to attend the funeral. Deceased was 38 years old and leaves a widow to mourn his sudden demise.

The August Rod and Gun.

The holiday feeling pervading the land during the hottest month of the year is well represented in the August issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor at Woodstock, Ont. How the people in the Maritime Provinces, known by reason of the sea breezes as the "Kingdom of Cooldom," enjoy the beautiful summer weather is told in a profusely illustrated article. A delightful paper is "Still Hunting With a Camera"; while of equally absorbing interest is one on similar lines—"Shooting Wild Geese with a Kodak." To detail the list of good things would be to repeat the table of contents, but the article on Voracious Eaters, by Martin Hunter, is worth attention from all sportsmen. The King of Fur bearers is a story of a successful attempt at fox rearing for the sake of pelts. Blood hounds and Trailing will appeal to all dog lovers and Mr. Bartlett's paper on the Wolves follows up the interest created through the magazine in this important subject. This number should accompany every sportsman on his vacation for in its pages he will find much to make his leisure time pass pleasantly.

A failing tiny nerve—no larger than the finest silken thread—takes from the heart its impulse, its power, its regularity. The stomach also has its hidden, or inside nerve. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or failing Stomach, Heart or Kidneys. His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed straight for the cause of these ailments—these weak and faltering inside nerves. This, no doubt clearly explains why the Restorative has of late grown so rapidly in popularity. Druggists say that those who test the Restorative even for a few days soon become fully convinced of its wonderful merit. Anyway, don't drug the organ. Treating the cause of sickness is the only sensible and successful way. Sold by all dealers.

Walkerton

Some of the boarders at the Walker House had a lively time of it looking after their spare wearing apparel on Friday night last. Some person or persons, names not given, but supposed to be members of the Brussels football club went through the rooms appropriating sundry articles of wearing apparel, sweaters being most in demand. Finally one of the boarders laid a grievance before Mr. McNamara J. P. and a search warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Constable Russell for execution. When it was noised around that the Constable was coming the air grew thick with sweaters. They came through fanlights and partly open doors, and when he arrived he found the corridors full of them. They were duly restored to their owners, and no further action was taken.

We had a very interesting conversation with Mr. Duncan Marshall, M. P. P., the other day, on the subject of prairie ploughing. Mr. Marshall says the Americans will come over, take up or buy a section or two of land, put their steam ploughs to work, and have the whole thing turned over in the course of a few weeks. A fair day's work for a steam plough is from 25 to 36 acres a day, but in one instance one plough made 64 acres in a day of 24 hours. In many instances the plough is kept going from 4 o'clock in the morning till ten at night, and occasionally they keep the plough going all night.

On Wednesday night, July 21st, about eleven o'clock, a severe thunder storm passed over the vicinity of Nesta. The house of Mr. Harry Cannon was struck by lightning, a chimney being shattered and the electricity following the eavetrough into the cistern, melting the pipe. The occupants of the house were unaware of the accident until the next morning when they could not account for the fact that the fire would not burn. When Mr. Cannon went outside he found the ground covered with brick and was not long in seeing the reason he could get no fire for breakfast. About $40 worth of damage was done which is small when we consider the cause of the accident.—Telescope.

No man is wholly free from sin, but so many lesser evils are tolerated that a man should hesitate long before becoming a dead beat. Criminals are despised and abhorred, but to the dead-beat all that is coming, as well as the contempt of his fellow-men. There is something at once so mean and so little in taking advantage of the confidence which comes with friendship that the hand of every man is turned against a dead-beat as soon as his reputation is well established. The dead-beat may fondly imagine he is living easy and making money without work, and of course he takes no account of the confidence he violates and the hardships he inflicts on others. But, that aside, he really has a harder time than the man who is honest and fair. He is compelled to move a good deal and peace of mind he knows not. Like other types of crooks he doesn't prosper, and the finish is more unpleasant than the beginning.

The writer had a very interesting conversation the other day, with Mr. Duncan Marshall, M. P. P., on the subject of the Mormons, who settled in Alberta. Mr. Marshall knows this Mormon settlement well, and is personally acquainted with many of the leading men. He says that they do not practice polygamy in Canada. Some of the old fellows have three or four wives, but they only bring one to Canada, and so far as the young people are concerned, they do not take to polygamy at all. They are shrewd, sharp Yankees, and for the most part are making money fast. They have given up the business of growing sugar beets and are confining their attention for the most part to growing wheat. Politically they are divided some of them are Tories and others Grits, but the majority of them vote with the government. Mr. Marshall regards them as being among the very best class of settlers we have in the west.—Walkerton Telescope.

Postmasters have received from the P. O. Department a warning to the public that any enclosure of writing in any package of third or fourth class matter renders the sender liable to a fine of from ten to forty dollars.

A remarkable and unusual instance of good common sense and sound judgment reaches us from the little town of Kearney, in which the hotel keepers there refused to sell any whiskey on the occasion of the late big 12th of July celebration there, and only handled beer and soft drinks. That the two hotelkeepers in question, Messrs. Frank Prunty and D. Dault, resisted the temptation to largely increase their profits in order to ensure an orderly celebration, is all the more creditable and praiseworthy when it is known that both gentlemen are Catholics. What other town in Ontario, under license, can show a similar instance of forbearance?—Burks Falls Arrow.

The thunder and lightning storm that passed over this village last Friday night was one of the most severe in many years, although no very serious damage is reported. One flash shattered a tree and gate post in the neighborhood of the public school and also demolished a flag staff at Geo. Mitchell's in the same neighborhood. This is the fourth flag staff Mr. Mitchell has had struck by lightning in a short time. It is also reported that a couple of young cattle were killed near Ravenna.—Clarksburg Review.

A fatal accident occurred Wednesday evening of last week on the farm of Samuel Tweedy, a short distance north of Shelburne. Mr. Tweedy was operating a hay fork. He was drawing back the fork to reload and when the fork struck the block it slipped the hook and fell to the ground, striking Mr. Tweedy on the forehead, killing him instantly. Mr. Tweedy was a prosperous young farmer of the section, and the terrible accident has cast a gloom over the whole community.

Our esteemed friend. Robert Gillies, pulled off that old joke of his again, sweeping the list in the entrance examinations. Fifty-nine—his entire class—passed, fifteen taking honors.—Port Hope Guide.
