We have all been enjoying the beautiful autumn weather of the past nine days: The forests are now clothed in their royal autumn robes, and the artist and amateur poets are in their annual rapture of delight. But the ordinary man is too busily engaged digging potatoes and chinking up for the winter to pay much attention to the beauties of nature so lavishly spread. He takes 'em for granted.

Our readers this week will notice that the Toronto W. C. T. U. have taken up the case of Mrs. Robinson, who lies under sentence of death at North Bay, and whose peculiarly sad position was referred to in these columns last week. Every mother in the land as well as every humane person should comply with the request of these ladies and thus assist in preventing a legal in order to punish a civil crime.

A gentleman soberly informed The Advance the other day that the government had instructed the banks not to accept torn Dominion one and two dollar bills. This was such a palpable loss and hardship to the possessor of such bills, which frequently turn up, that we decided to set on foot some inquiry. The order only refers to bills where one quarter or more is missing. If the bill is all there and torn from end to end it will be redeemed by the government and the banks will not refuse it—neither will The Advance, which of course, is more important.

What the liquor traffic means to Canada is put very clearly and in startling figures by C. B. Keenleyside. His figures are taken from government reports and should therefore be correct. Last year the wheat crop was valued at $72,424,000 and the liquor bill was estimated at more than that. Mr. Keenleyside says: "If some sudden blight should pass over the fields, and every maturing head be blasted, it would cause such a panic in Canada as the country never saw before. That is what the liquor traffic does—and does every year. It destroys the cash value of the entire wheat crop of the plains. On the other hand, if by some new virtue in the sunbeams, or new element in the soil, the crop now ripening should yield just double its promise and 250,000,000 bushels be reaped, and an extra seventy-six millions of dollars should find their way into the banks to the credit of the producers, we would see such a new dawn of prosperity as would make all the past look dim beside it. The destruction of the liquor traffic would have just that effect."

Charles Kern, formerly of Hanover, who has been Canadian manager for the Peerless Cooker Co. is about to start a factory in Berlin to manufacture fireless cook stoves. The method of cooking is simply by putting the food into an air tight compartment. Iron radiators are placed, one in the bottom and one on top of the vessel containing the food, requiring absolutely no fuel or attention after the food is placed in. It will bake, boil, roast or stew. The stove has been perfected and new patents applied for by Mr. Kern, and the ex-Hanover man will go into the manufacturing business on his own hook. On Saturday last Mr. Kern put food into the stove checked as baggage at Berlin, and on arriving here in the early afternoon had dinner with his aged parents. The food had been cooked while in transit and was placed on the table here piping hot.—Hanover Post.

Postcard Petition

The Toronto District Women's Christian Temperance Union has instituted a postcard petition in behalf of Mrs. Anna Robinson, now under sentence of death at Sudbury. Acting under legal advice, we, with good reason, believe if this campaign succeeds, her life will be spared and her friends will have time in which to take further measures.

We make through the courtesy and generosity of the press a three-fold appeal

1. Will every editor who receives this appeal kindly publish it in his next issue.

2. Will every man and woman who reads this request comply with its demands?

3. Will you do it at once, for the unhappy victim has only six weeks to live.

Our request is, write a postal card as follows:

"I respectfully beg of you to recommend that the death sentence passed on Anna Robinson be commuted."

Sign your name and place of residence, address to the Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Ottawa, Canada. Do it now.

Mrs. Fred C. Ward, President; Mrs. Will Pugsley, Supt. Legislation and Petition.

Some of the Sydney, N.S.W., citizens have been discussing the reason why men do not go to church. One man declares that the tendency is for men not to go anywhere outside their own business. He declares that the average attendance of men at theatres is about 1 to 4 women; at concerts about 1 to 8 women; at ordinary social social functions 1 to 12 women. "Men hustle throughout the day, and prefer to rest at night, and at the end of the week's business rough and tumble require the whole of Sunday to pull themselves together, as it were." In his opinion, the length or shortness of the sermon has very little to do with the size of the congregation, but he would like to have better congregational singing. We do not know this brother at all, but we confess we have a good deal of respect for his judgment, at least if Australian conditions resemble ours in any appreciable degree.—Christian Guardian.
