A Joint Account

is a great convenience in handling the family funds. It is opened in the names of two members of the family, and both may make deposits or draw checks over their own individual signatures.

This form of account is particularly convenient for those who live some distance from town.

Rev. H. E. Wellwood drove to Orillia on Monday. Mrs. Wellwood will return with him.

Artemesia council met on Saturday. A report of the meeting will be given next week.

Miss Lenora Gaudin of Kimberley returned home this week after a visit with friends here.

The Cookstown Chief of Police has no handcuffs. Flesherton hasn't even a Chief of Police.

The open season for dear hunting in Flesherton is from January 1st to December 31st.

Ed. Bentham, accompanied by his friend, Frank Weatherspoon, of Toronto visited in town this week.

Fred Morley has moved his business to the shop vacated by F. A. Tucker, and has a good range of cloth on his shelves.

F. A. Baker cleans, repairs and presses suits. Take your overcoat to him to have cleaned up, and the velvet collar renewed.

On Monday Andrew Gilchrist fell off a plank in his mow, and as a result is nursing a broken arm, but is doing nicely.

Oh ! Oh !! Oh !!! The editor of the Meaford Express gets rid of this, "we had to laugh along with the rest when we SEEN what had happened."

Don't borrow your neighbor's copy of The Advance any more. Subscribe for it yourself, and do away with all trouble. It goes the balance of the year free.

The proprietor Gunn of St. George's Hotel, Thornbury, repudiates the story that he was fined for selling liquor. The Gunn "went off" after the report—rather the reverse of the ordinary.

Learned men tell us that in Latin the word "editor" means something "to eat." Generally the meaning is altogether different. It means to scratch around like blazes to get something to eat.

We are informed that a sad shooting accident occurred not ten miles from Flesherton last week, when several partridge lost their lives. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting.

Sundry sounds percolating from the northern wilderness tell of the success of the annual slaughter of deer. But the moose hunters are beyond the mail service—and best of all, beyond the reach of monthly "duns."

Collingwood is in trouble with its band. Perhaps they think they can keep a band like the big military bands, in that town. Forget it, and work up to a decent aggregation, rather than back down every year, Collingwood.

Talk about the last rose of summer! We believe we have it. In our garden is a fool plant that neuer knows when its day's work is done, but goes on blooming through snow, sleet, hail and rain, or any old weatheo condition.

We have received a copy of The Barrie "Saturday Morning." This is a clean, well edited newspaper, on fine stock and should meet with every success. Among the advertisers we notice the name of Bert Flesher, an old Flesherton boy who is doing well in that town.

We received F. T. Hill's and McFarland & Co's. changes of advt. on Tuesday night, too late for insertion this week. We have repeatedly stated that all changes must be in by Tuesday forenoon to insure insertion.

Mrs. Robinson's sentence has been commuted to ten years in the penitentiary. In view of the circumstances it was not thought wise to create a new precedent by granting a full pardon.

O. M. Seim, the founder of the Holstein Leader, will start a newspaper in Hepworth in the near future. The village used to boast a newspaper, but it died. The field is not to be called a promising one, but hope springs eternal in O. M's. breast. In fact it has to in almost any editor's breast. We wish him every success, but———

There were 600 new postoffices opened up in the north west this year. Some of the new postmasters are not onto their job yet. Last week we got four postal notes in one letter, but the postmaster (he was a postmistress) had forgotten to stamp them, so we had to wait a little longer before being wealthy once more.

The Canadian Club in Collingwood will pass away this winter. The Messenger says: Collingwood, however is not a literary town, there are a few educated people, and a smaller number of the cultured class. We are all too busy chasing the almighty dollar to devote any time to Canadian or any other kind of a Club.

The autumn breezes arouud The Advance office take the form of "drafts" from the bank—and as a fortification against these drafts only one thing is found to be effective. Many of our readers have this protection in their pockets still, as they will notice by glancing at the accounts we sent out last week. A word to the wise is sufficient.

A meeting of citizens is called for Friday night in the town hall to discuss band matters. The boys are confident that they can keep the band together and have a successful season next summer, with the hearty support of the town people. Several persons wish to join, and there is a strong feeling against disbandment. Remember, it is a citizens' band and everybody has a voice at the meeting. Come out and elect a responsible management which will give the boys the proper support and encouragement. Everybody should make it a point to be present at 8 o'clock, that the meeting may not be delayed.

News of The Women's Institute

The Flesherton Branch of the Ontario Women's Institute will give a fowl supper in the upper flat of W. A. Armstrong's unoccupied store on Wednesdsy, Nov. 24. Supper from 6 to 8. A good programme will be rendered in the town hall, consisting of speeches, music, readings, etc. Keep the date open, Nov. 24.

The October meeting of the Vandeleur Branch of the Womeu's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Jacob Holley. In spite of the heavy rain storm a majority of the members were present. An excellent paper "How to Treat our Teachers" was given by Mrs. John Boland, Mrs. Rob. Holley gave a number of useful hints on "Table Manners." A report of the 3rd annual convention of Grey County Women's Institute was given by our delegates, Mrs. J. I. Graham aud Mrs. Wm. Hutchinson. They thought that Mrs. Pettigrew expressed the sentiment of the speakers of that convention when, in her address of welcome, referring to our motto "For Home and Country", she said the best way to benefit our home and our country is to put God first in everything we do. Mrs. Edward Holley, a member of the Meaford Branch, who was present, gave a short address on the benefit of the Institute and expressed her pleasure in meeting with us again. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ed. Baker.

Fenwick--Ellis.

On Wednesday, Oct. 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McNally, Paisley, Miss Jane Etta Ellis, of the township of Kettig, county of Leeds, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Henry Fenwick of Port Elgin. Rev. Wray Smith, of Paisley, ministered the duties of the occasion. The happy couple entered the parlor to the strains of music played by Mrs. (Rev.) Smith. They took their stand underneath an arch of evergreens, beautifully decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony, which took place at 7 p. m., a sumptuous repast was served to the group of relatives and friends, who were present to do honor to the occasion. The bride was beautifully attired in brown silk with waist of allover spot Brussels net, over Japanese silk, and hat to match. After an enjoyable evening spent together, the company departed to their homes, wishing the bride and bridegroom health, happiness and prosperity in their matrimonial venture.

With the Churches

Student Ashmore of McMaster University preached in the Baptist church on Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Orton of Dutton will preach next Sabbath.

Rev. A. P. Stanley of Maxwell will occupy the Methodist pulpit next Sabbath.

At a joint meeting of Flesherton, Eugenia and Proton Station congregations held in the Presbyterian church here, on Monday afternoon to moderate in a call to a minister, Rev. J. A. Ross, B. A. of Essex was unanimously chosen. Rev. J. A. Matheson of Priceville, interim moderator, presided. The stipend offered is $800, with free manse and four weeks holidays. Mr. T. R. McKenzie was appointed, with Mr. Matheson to present the call to the Presbytery at Orangeville on Tuesday. There was a very marked feeling in favour of Mr. Ross and the congregations earnestly hope that he may accept the very hearty call extended.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will hold a cake sale in the Misses Thompson and Jamieson's parlours, W. A. Armstrong's old jewellery store, on Saturday of thi week.

W. M. S. Convention.

The annual convention of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Owen Sound district, was held in the Methodist church, Dundalk, on Tuesday, November 2nd.

The morning session opened at 9.30, with Mrs. Thomas Cook, district organizer, in the chair. After the devotional exercises, led by Mrs. J. F. VanDusen, Mrs. W. H. Thurston was appointed secretary, the roll was called and the following from a distance responded to their names; Owen Sound, Rev. H. A. and Mrs. Fish, Mrs. J. C. Miller; Chatsworth, Mrs. S. H. Breese; Markdale, Mrs. A. Henry, Mrs. H. D. Irwin, Mrs. (Rev.) Young; Rocklyn, Mrs. W. Falls, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Seoul, Rev. J. R. Wilkinson; Flesherton, Mrs. G. Mitchell, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and Mrs. W. H. Thurston. Owing to the wet weather and bad state of the roads, the attendance was small. Mrs. (Rev.) Ferguson, on behalf of the Auxiliary and church, warmly welcomed the delegates, and in the absence of Mrs. (Dr.) Danard, Mrs. Thurston replied.

Encouraging reports were read from Owen Sound, Chatsworth, Rocklyn, Markdale, Flesherton and Dundalk auxiliaries, and from Chatsworth, Walters Falls and Flesherton bands. Mrs. W. A. Armstrong conducted a round table conference, on "how to increase our membership" and many practical suggestions were offered. An excellent paper on Mission Methods in the Sabbath school, prepared by Mrs. T. Love, Bradford, a member of the Markdale auxiliary, was read by Mrs. Fish.

After the devotional exercises, which opened the afternoon session, Mrs. S. H. Breese, an enthusiastic Mission band worker, read an excellently prepared paper on that phase of the W. M. S. work. Miss Rena Sharpe sang a solo very acceptably.

Mrs. (Rev.) Young conducted a conference of workers and answered questions. Mrs. Thurston gave an address on Individual Responsibility. A resolution of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Packham, the recent organizer, whose only child was taken from her by death, since the last convention. Much regret was felt at the absence of Mrs. Rev. Kemp, Walter's Falls, who is Mission Band Cor-Sec., for the Toronto Conference Branch.

The evening session opened with Rev. J. Ferguson in the chair, Rev. J. R. Wilkinson conducting the devotional exercises. Miss C. Rowe delighted the audience with a beautifully rendered solo, and Rev. H. Fish gave the address of the evening. The Dundalk choir assisted with the music.

Bars, Churches, Banks

Toronto is the only city of its size on the continent that has more churches than barrooms. Here the churches easily outnumber the bars.

The other day we spoke of the striking sight presented on Saturday evening, when one could see bars closed and dark, and, next door, savings banks ablaze with lights and busy with customers coming and going. The open bank and the closed bar are significant of the changing opinions of the age.

A stranger in the city remarked with surprise the other day upon the frequency with which he saw branch banks on important corners. In his home town all these sites would be occupied by saloons. Not only have we in Toronto more churches than bars, but we have more banks than bars. Out through the residential districts, where the hotels are not wanted and bars not permitted, new branch banks are being opened nearly every week, for the convenience of local traders. The habit of keeping a bank account and paying bills by check is much on the increase, and it is a highly desireable change.—Toronto Star.

Children's Aid Meeting

Mr. M. K. Richardson spoke at a Children's Aid meeting in Owen Sound on Wednesday of last week. In reference to this The Advertiser says:

In many countries the care of the children is a very important feature of all philanthropic work as there is no question which bears so closely on the future of the country. Since the introduction of the Children's Protective Act by Hon. J. M. Gibson (now Lieutenant Governor) sixteen yesrs ago, 2,000 children have been cared for, and Mr. Richardson related instances which came under his own notice in a territory which covers the counties of: Grey (outside of Owen Sound), Bruce, Simcoe, Dufferin, and the districts of Muskoka and Parry Sound. In March last he drove 20 miles in Parry Sound and found five children, four of them girls, the eldest only 13 years with an old woman over 80 years of age, living in a house without a door, without necessary clothing, and subsisting on porridge made from chop stuff; one girl with a broken arm which had been for two weeks without surgical attention. The whole family became wards of the Society, and he related having visited one of the girls and she was doing well and was highly prized by her foster mother. Mr. Richardson gave a humorous turn to his subject by describing what ideal children some people want for adoption—with all of the virtues and none of the vices of mankind as well as an attractive personality. He also showed that there is another class of applicants, by telling of a lady who asked for a child that no person else would want because of some deformity. She said she wanted to do it for her Master's sake, and became greatly attached to the little fellow she secured.

An Influence for Good

In every home possessing a copy of "The Soul's Awakening" the picture will have an inspiring influence. One never tires of looking tat it. It has something in it that appeals to the soul, and from which one cannot turn away. Parents should see that this picture finds a place in their homes. The family will be the better of it. The publishers of the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal certainly deserve credit for placing such a beautiful picture within the reach of all. It is 19x24 inches ready for framing, and is given absolutely free to every person subscribing to that great weekly, the best on the continent and only one dollar a year. No time should be lost in ordering that paper and making sure of a copy of the picture. It is certainly a charming subject for any home.
