There was a thump and an out-house fell to earth. Hallowe'en had arrived and the boys had done their worst. A rear like Niagara told that an urchin had been struck, as the owner of the building heaved rocks into a flock of fleeing youth. The man never knew who he hit until his own boy limped into the house. Then the eyes of the parent were opened, and he proceeded to do what the father did with the fatted calf in the prodigal son—kill him.—Times.

FARM PROFITS

May be largely increased by knowing the exact condition of the farmer's market, and by learning of the best method in farm practice. This is precisely the sort of information the Farmers' Weekly Sun gives in every issue. It has no equal as a Farmer's Business Paper. Good farmers rely on it. For price see our clubbing offer.
