Feversham

Miss Pedlar of Rock Mills is visiting with Mrs. Leitch for a time.

Miss Russel of Rock Mills is the guest of Mrs M. Leitch at the Temperance House, Feversham at present.

The young men of this city are busily engaged fitting up the agricultural hall as a skating rink.

Well, Bob, Bert says you are champion of Feversham string band. We all take our hats off to you. Hope you will favour us with a few selections in the near future.

Norman is very sorry about that high-chair, but thinks there are others who need it more.

Mr. John Paul conducted the funeral of the late Mrs. James Sinclair on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Sinclair died at her home near Singhampton after a long illness of complication of diseases.

Mr. Albert Paul and wife arrived home last week from Moose Jaw, Sask.

10th Line, Osprey.

The beautiful snow is here again and the merry jingle of the sleigh bells is heard on all sides.

The Providence people intend holding their annual supper on Friday evening, Dec. 31st, New Year's eve, and a first-class supper and program will be given. Don't forget the date.

Miss Gertie Dand of Feversham spent Sunday at her parental home, on the 12th line.

We understand that the Feversham people intend giving a concert in the near future, the proceeds to go to building sidewalks. This is a move in the right direction.

Mr. Ed. Hawton has bought the Leitch farm near Duntroon for about seven thousand dollars and will move down there in the spring. His brother Ern has bought the farm near Feversham—now he has the cage.

Our butcher in Feversham will have to attend to business better, as the trade must be supplied. Business before pleasure should be his motto; but, of course he may have thought he was attending to biz. Eh, Ben?

Don't forget the auction sale at Mr. Plummer's on the 4th line of Collingwood on Dec. 21. L. W. Kaitting is the auctioneer.

Geo. is looking lonely these days. Bachelor Hall is not what it is cracked up to be.

Long Bros., blacksmiths and woodworkers, of Feversham, are doing a rushing business, having installed a gasoline plant and woodworking machinery. The country needs more such enterprising young business men.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davidson and family of Rob Roy have moved to their farm on the 10th line We welcome them to our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Colquett spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaitting in Feversham.

Wedding Bells

LOUGHEED—PALLISTER—On Wednesday, Dec. 8, a wedding took place at the Maxwell parsonage, when Rev. A. P. Stanley joined in marriage Miss Mary Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm, James Lougheed, 8th line Osprey, to Thornton Brown, son of Mr. George Pallister of Maxwell. The bride was attired in a beautiful suit of navy blue ladies cloth, with white satin yoke and undersleeves, finished with white fancy satin braid. Her exquisite cream lace hat with plume and black velvet edged brim, completed the costume. Attending her was Miss E. C. Pallister, sister of the groom, who was in navy blue and wore the groom's gift, a gold lily and heart set with brilliants. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. John Lougheed, who also wore the groom's gift, a pair of gold cuff links. Following the ceremony the wedding party drove to the bride's home, where many friends and a sumptuous wedding dinner awaited them. The groom's gift to the bride was a stylish fur coat, with sable trimmings. The bride's remembrance to the groom was a gold locket.

Mr. and Mrs. Pallister will take up their residence on the place known as the Kerton farm, about a mile west of Maxwell on the gravel. Best wishes follow the young couple.

Clarksburg public library will be reopened. Collingwood township council will give a grant of $25 and the police village will subscribe another $25, which, with membership fees, it is thought will put the library on its feet again.

A Word to Subscribers

For the past year the staff of this paper have been endeavouring to supply a paper that would be an honour to the place and extra value as a purveyor of district news to all our subscribers. How well we have succeeded may be gauged by the fact that during the past year over two hundred subscribers have been added to our list, and they're still coming—it's more like multiplication than addition.

During the past two weeks we have been sending out accounts to those in arrears and these have met with so hearty a response that we are forced to believe that our efforts have been appreciated by even those who have neglected their subscriptions. In many cases the remittances were accompanied by warm words of commendation and congratulation. For all such we feel heartily grateful.

Prompt renewals this year will be thankfully received, and if all will attend to this we would be in a position to add further to our plant and to the value of The Advance as a local newspaper.

Vandeleur.

Messrs. S. Gilbert and E. Baker visited friends at Priceville recently.

Mr. Chas Holley has returned home looking hale and hearty after spending the past three years in various parts of the west.

Mrs. Geo. Warling, who has been laid up with a severe attack of bronchitis, is, we are glad to say, recovering.

Mr. M. Beard has moved his mill to Mr. Minnis' bush on the east back line, where he has secured a contract for cutting lumber.

Mr. John Bowler of Manitou, Man., a former resident of this place, is renewing acquaintances in this vicinity.

Mrs. S. Gilbert attended the annual convention of the O. W. I. at Guelph last week as delegate from the Vandeleur branch.

Mrs. Harris and daughter, Eva, of Wodehouse, were visitors at Mr. W. Buchanan's over Sunday.

The Methodist Sabbath school purpose holding their annual entertainment on the evening of Dec. 22nd. A good time may be expected.

Eugenia.

News at present is rather scarce.

Winter seems to have set in. The storm king proclaimed his presenee in good style the past week.

Miss Cora Williams is home from Markdale and is taking a holiday at Eugenia with her parents before leaving for the city.

Miss Jean Graham has gone to spend the winter in Uncle Sam's domains.

Mr. Bert Graham is home from the coast, where he has spent the past couple of years. He looks as if that part of the Dominion agreed with him. His many friends here were pleased to welcome him home.

The Presbyterian church here has been supplied for the past few Sabbaths with very clever young students from Knox College.

There are prospects at present of the old saw mill being started again this winter, as Messrs. Fred Field and Robert Haney are renting it from the Georgian Bay Power Co., and setting the old Beaver at work again.

Mr. W. H. Fenwick of Toronto is visiting his friends at Eugenia for a few days.

Mr. Robert Wallace came up from the city to spend a few days with his father at Eugenia.

Miss Della Magee of Vandeleur was the guest of Mrs. Large for a few days.

Mr. Large is making some handsome decorations in his already well furnished store. It is well worth a trip to Eugenia to see them and all the handsome goods for the Christmas shoppers.

Don't miss the Sabbath school entertainment on the 21st. A good program is being prepared with a Christmas tree loaded with presents. Tea served in the basement of the Presbyterian church. All are cordially invited.
