When the Hair Falls

Stop it! And why not? Falling hair is a disease, a regular disease; and Ayer's Hair Vigor, as made from our new improved formula, quickly and completely destroys that disease. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly, and all dandruff disappears.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Ayer's Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says

The little book in each package gives the formula of our new Hair Vigor, tells why each ingredient is used, and explains many other interesting things. After reading you will know why this new hair preparation does its work so well.

Owen Sound Agricultural Society is up against a deficit this year. It would appear that they have been biting off more than they could chew in the matter of costly special attractions. The show will probably be made a two day event instead of three as in the past. The tendency appears to be for fairs of big towns like Owen Sound and Collingwood to go behind financially. Every town may not have a National Exhibition it would seem.

Perfectly conscious, but oblivious to all pain, Mr. Felix Bohro of Formosa, joked with the doctors as the knife went into his system at the hospital here on Monday. It was the first time Stovaine, the new anaesthetic, had been tried in this section, and the removal of a serious internal growth caused the aged German about as much pain as a hair-cut would in a barber-shop. The new anaesthetic is injected into the spinal cord and deadens the nerves without otherwise inconveniencing the patient. Unlike chloroform, ether or cocaine there is no deterring after-effects, and the patient passes through the operation perfectly conscious and seeing everything. Dr. H. H. Sinclair, who performed the operation, is highly satisfied with his first experiment with stovaine —Walkerton Bruce Times.

When the office of Indian agent at Cape Croker was likely to be vacant the Wiarton Echo stated the job with perquisites was worth $1000 per year. That item was copied by different papers in the riding, and then John Tolmie, M.P., had trouble on his hands. It was read by lots of people who thought that the job looked good. There were those in Southampton, Port Elgin and Kincardine who had no objections about receiving that amount per year and at the same time enjoy the breezes from the Georgian Bay during the dog days in August, so they got busy and Mr. Tolmie was bombarded with applications. When the same people however, learned that the salary was only $500 per year, with very few extras, they began to drop out one after another very quickly. While the Cape is splendid to preserve health $500 does not look large enough to become the official representative of the Dominion on this reserve.—Ex.

Mr. Thomas Walter of Walter's Falls was the victim of what proved to be a fatal accident last Thursday. Mr. Walter had gone to the barn to attend to his stock as usual on Thursday night. Stepping up to one of the horses to straighten the blanket, the animal struck out with both feet, one hoof striking him on the stomach. His daughter, who happened to be with him, ran for help and aid was immediately procured. Though everything possible was done to assist recovery, the injuries were too severe and ensued on Saturday. Mr. Walter was well known and Mrs. Walter and her son and kaughter have the most heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in their sad bereavement. Deceased was about forty-two years of age.—Times.

It is all very well, when you have nothing to do but kill time, to talk about keeping the boys on the farm, but you might as well spend your time spitting at a crack. Boys will stay on a farm as well as anywhere as long as they receive decent treatment at home. The boy who is yanked out of bed by the hair, kicked out to milk and cuffed in to breakfast, as a preliminary to being popped through in the field all day, is not likely to be consumed by his love for the glories of agriculture—nor for his sire. Give the boy a fair show and he'll stay with you till the cows come home. If you are so mean he can't stay at home, don't you go to your neighbors with a hypocritical snuffle and tell about your boy's ingratitude after you have raised him.—Erin Advocate.

A pitiable sight was presented to the Collingwood police magistrate on Monday morning when five little children, the oldest about ten years of age, belonging to a man named Dawson, were gathered in the council chamber in order that the Children's Aid Society might get legal control of them. They were covered with filth and what they termed clothes was little more than a few old rags. The father of the children was present, while the mother was reported to be a patient in the insane ward of the G. & M. Hospital. The representatives of the Children's Aid Society presented the case for the children and convinced the court that they were being neglected. The order was given transferring the little ones to the Society's care, when the father who has heretofore permitted his offspring to go without food or clothing pleaded for another chance. He, however, received a negative answer. Later in the day the little ones were treated to a bath and furnished with new, clean clothes, and in the afternoon sent to the Home at Barrie, where they will be distributed about the country as soon as homes can be found for them.—Bulletin.

Since the annexation of Brooke to Owen Sound there has from time to time been discussion as to what was to become of the township of Sarawak. With Brooke out, Sarawak, which was always a small township is very small; and it has been suggested that it should be joined to Keppel. Another suggestion was that a part of Keppel should be transferred to Sarawak; but what the ratepayers of Keppel think of this proposal is plainly shown by the following resolution, passed at the nomination meeting the 27th December last, and which has just been handed to us:—"We, the ratepayers of the township of Keepel in public meeting assembled, decidedly object to any part of the township of Keppel being annexed to the township of Sarawak; but if the township of Sarawak wishes to join the township of Keppel, we will be willing to receive them on most favorable terms."—Sun.

Jerry Hillock has decided he cannot stop the Owen Sound express, although he he has steered many a schooner to a sure course. In coming home from Orangeville on Thursday night with one Robert Boyle's horses he drove up the railway about Orangeville Junction. Before he had gone far the Owen Sound express came along and gave the cutter such a heave as to reduce it to kindling wood and throw Jerry high and safe onto a convenient soft snow bank. The horse escaped any serious injury beyond one or two scratches. It was a close call sure enough.—Grand Valley Star.

A despatch from Ayton says: Before W. H. Ryan. J. P., for South Grey, Martin Bolger of Proton township, pleaded guilty of keeping liquor for sale and was fined $40 and costs. It was his second offence. Proton is a local option township. His wife, Ann Bolger, also pleaded guilty to obstructing officers in a search of the hotel and was fined $100 and costs. The raid was made on the 12th by Provincial Inspector Ayearst, and two officers. When they entered the bar Mrs Bolger seized a bottle of whiskey and threw its contents on the floor.

Very curious things happen in old London, that could not be believed unless vouched for. Two club men recently disguised themselves as workmen and to win a bet tore up a crowded portion of Picadilly. They arrived on the spot they had selected about eleven o'clock at night, threw down their picks and axes, took off their coats, roped off a certain space, and proceeded to tear up the street. A small crowd collected, the bobby waved the people off, directed traffic so that the men should not be interfered with, and they worked away. At midnight they put on their coats, shouldered their axes and walked away, while the crowd dispersed. Needless to say the perpetrators of the joke have never been discovered.

The Times "Devil" is locked up, though not on account of any misdemeanor on his part. The facts are these: Geo. Hewitt, Willis' hired man, evidently tired of quarantine and struck into town on Monday afternoon, but was headed off by the town constable. Instead of going back to the country he went over to see an old friend of his, Robert Bryce. The authorities learned the facts and the Bryce house was quarantined on Tuesday afternoon, and the Times office is minus His Highness until the quarantine is lifted.—Walkerton Telescope.

Harry Rounding sold a 4-year-old colt for $400 at Grand Valley. And yet they say the automobile is supplanting the horse.

Black Handers have demanded $500 from a Montreal publisher. Foolishness! Where would a newspaper man get all that money?

The government is taking power under a new immigration bill to deport men men suspected of belonging to the Black Hand or other criminal organizations.

A circular has been sent out to Municipal Clerks by the Deputy-Registrar General that in future a charge of 25c. must be collected by the Division Registrar for issuing a burial permit, as such registration will not be paid for by the Municipality as heretofore.

Since Owen Sound took to itself the village of Brook there has not been much of the original little township of Sarawak left on the map. It is proposed to merge the remnants into the larger municipality of Keppel.

Charles T. Long, a well-known newspaper man, died recently in India. He was born at Collingwood in 1862.

A resident of a nearby township not long since thought he would save on sugar by getting a barrel from Eaton. The cost here is $5.15 while Eaton's price was $5. When the sugar reached the purchaser there was a freight charge of 50c and postage and charges for order came to 5c. A child can work out the loss.—Ex.

Robert J. Brown, 40 years of age, has mysteriously disappeared from his fruit farm in the Okanagan Valley, B. C. He was formerly a teacher and his home was near Markdale. His family have no idea of his whereabouts but do not think he has met with foul play. He left home to visit a near-by town, and did not return.
