Miss Lillian Bunt spent last week with friends in Woodbridge. She also wrote on her primary examination in Toronto.

Dr. Murray spent last week in Toronto. He had a rather unpleasant trip down, it being 2 a.m. when his train arrived in the city.

Mr. F. W. Nicholson has sold his farm on the 4th line to Mr. James Pedlar. He does not give up possession until next fall, however.

Mr. Joseph Sherwood of Collingwood, who, with Mrs. Sherwood, was visiting friends in this vicinity, paid The Advance a friendly call on Wednesday of last week.

Norris Bros. have remodelled their first floor and made it into a cosy, neat lodge room. This room is occupied by the A.O.U.W. and Scarlet Chapter L.O.L. as a lodge room. The improvements include enlargement, new floor, painting, etc.

An esteemed clerical friend writing a personal letter to The Advance last week, created an extra halo on the editor's blushing face, by the following remark: "You are producing one of the finest weekly sheets in western Ontario and deserve praise." Such an opinion from the aforesaid gentleman carries weight and we feel grateful accordingly.

At a congregational meeting after prayermeeting in the Methodist church Thursday evening of last week the following society representatives were elected: Isaac Sinclair, F. G. Karstedt, R. J. Sproule, M. K. Richardson and Thomas Blakeley. The district meeting will be held in Flesherton about the last week in May.

The seven-year-old son of Mr. John Porteous, jr., Rockvale Mills, met with a serious accident on Saturday. While leading a calf the little fellow's foot became entangled in the rope and he was dragged a distance of ten or fifteen rods. His leg was broken at the hip and he was otherwise bruised. Dr. Carter is in attendance.

Dealers are buying up all the spare horses in this district for shipment to the Northwest. At least four car loads have been purchased within a radius of a few miles. This means that we are threatened with a horse famine in this section. With the continual westward drain horse raising ought to become a profitable business for our farmers.

There will be a member's meeting in the Baptist chapel on Wednesday, 23rd inst, at 6 30 p.m. Business re assistant pastor. Members are urged to be present. The pastor, Rev. J. V. Laughland, will deliver the next of the special discourses on "The teaching of Jesus," on Wednesday, 23rd inst., at 7.30 p.m. The subject will be, "Entrance to the kingdom of God." All Bible students are invited to these meetings. The subject for next Sunday will be "Can we know we are saved?"

A large number of fruit packers have been fined under the Fruit Marks Act for illegal packing of apples, and too large a percentage of them hail from this county. Among the names of those found guilty are, W. Grierson, Thornbury; Lemon Bros., Owen Sound (three charges); J. M. Steele, Clarksburg; Charles Hunt, Thornbury; and W. H. Whitesides, Ravenna. The fruit packers of this county show up very badly in this matter, comprising about one-sixth of the total number fined. The lesson, let us hope, will bear No. 1 fruit.

The Durham Furniture Co. has disturbed the financial equilibrium in this district, so far as the stovewood end of it is concerned. It is more profitable to draw the logs to the mill than to cut them up into stovewood, and as a consequence comparatively little wood is coming into town this winter, and very little is being cut, so that there bids fair to be something approaching a wood famine here next fall. The wise citizen will put in coal and not rely on what he may not be able to secure at any reasonable price when most needed.

Notes of the Women's Institute.

The Vandeleur branch will hold their annual social on Friday, March 4th. A good program is being prepared. Tea served from 7 o'clock. Admission 25c a couple, 15c single, 10c for children. Will be held in the school house.

The meeting of Vandeleur branch for this month was held at the home of Mrs. J. J. McGee. It was well attended, there being 24 members and four visitors present. Mrs. Wright gave a paper on "Interior decoration of the home." Cheerfulness and sunshine make a home attractive. We should develop our natural taste, remembering that the decoration shows the personality of the inmates. It is well to combine simplicity with utility. A paper was read by Mrs. A. Johnston, on "Winter evenings in the country." Where there is a large family the evenings may be profitably spent with music, reading helpful books, wood-carving, snow-shoeing, and skating. In concluding Mrs. Johnston said that she thought if all neighborhoods were as well provided with societies as is Vandeleur, there would be no lack for entertainment on winter evenings. The Institute purposes holding a social in the Vandeleur school house on Friday evening, March 4th. The program will be given by the members of the Institute and others. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jos. Buchanan.

Obituary

KERR

The death occurred at Zion City, Ill., on Feb. 4th, 1910, of Miss Amy E. Kerr, only sister of Mr. W. J. Kerr, real estate broker of New Westminster, B.C. Miss Kerr had been ill but a short time previous to her unexpected death. Her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Smith, still survives. She was born at Heathcote, Ont., on May 10, 1883, and for some time lived in Flesherton, with her mother. In 1902 she moved to Zion City, and continued to be a resident of that place, where she was beloved and honored by all with whom she has an acquaintance. Her brother, Mr. W. J. Kerr, paid the last tribute of respect to her remains by being present at the obsequies which took place on Feb. 8th, inst.

RUNDLE

A particularly sad death occured on Saturday last when Rhea Mildred, the youngest daughter of Mr. W. F. Rundle, Dundalk, died in the Owen Sound hospital. She had only been ill for a short time and was taken to the hospital Thursday and operated on for apendicitis. She had been making satisfactory progress towards recovery but on Saturday took a turn for the worse and passed away that afternoon at the threshold of young womanhood, being only eighteen years of age. She was a sister of Miss Vida Rundle, who was in the Flesherton postoffice last year, and was well known and highly esteemed among the young people here, whose sympathy goes out to the bereaved family in their hour of trial. The funeral took place at Dundalk on Monday afternoon.

WARDROBE

Mr. George Wardrobe, an ex-resident of Artemesia, passed from this life on Thursday of last week at his residence, Toronto, aged 65 years. Mr. Wardrobe was a native of Yorkshire, England. He came to Canada about 30 years ago and settled with his family on the T. & S. R. about 2½ miles north of Flesherton. He only remained there a year or so, however, when the family moved to a farm on the east back line. Just previous to Mrs. Wardrobe's death, some eight years ago, the family took up their residence in Flesherton, where they remained several years or until their removal to Toronto three years ago. The remains were brought to Flesherton on Saturday and the funeral took place from the residence of Mr. Andrew Bentham to Flesherton cemetery. The deceased gentleman was of kindly disposition, a member of the Methodist church, and was highly respected by everybody. He leaves behind a family of three sons and one daughter—Helen, Alfred, Thomas and Arthur—all residents of Toronto, to whom much sympathy is extended.

Herbert E. Johnson Dead

The Twin City Reporter of Kennewick, Washington, of Jan. 26, announces the death of an old Eugenia boy, Mr. Herbert E. Johnson, of fever. The Reporter pays Mr. Johnson high tribute and reports the death at considerable length, showing the esteem in which the deceased gentleman was held out in his western home. The Reporter says:

Herbert E. Johnson was born in Eugenia Falls, Ontario, Canada, Feb. 7, 1878. He came to the Middle West when 17 years of age, where he lived until four years ago, when he came to Washington from Portal, North Dakota. He came to Kennewick three and a half years ago and with S. M. Lockerby opened the First International Bank of which he has been cashier since.

He is survived by a mother and younger brother, of Toronto, Canada, and a brother, C. A. Johnson, who was with him at the time of his death. Since coming to Kennewick Mr. Johnston has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Lockerby where he was welcomed and loved not as a friend, but as a son and brother.

Through his active and progressive business life, his striking personality and congenial nature Mr. Johnson made many friends since coming to Kennewick and his place both in business and private life will be hard to fill. He always took an active interest in the faternal orders to which he belonged and had been Master of Exchequer in the K. of P. Lodge since its institution here."

A Collingwood man named Miller was severely bitten by his St. Bernard dog. He was playing in his home with a cocker spaniel when the St. Bernard, without warning, pounced upon him and bit him about the arms, inflicting several wounds before he was fought off by Miller's brother. The St. Bernard is a large, powerful brute, but was never known to be other than quiet and harmless. Miller got the animal in New York some few weeks ago. The animal is not supposed to be affected with rabies, the cause of its attack being assigned to jealousy. Miller is now under the physician's care and in the meantime the dog is tied up.

Owen Sound proposes to sell their old town hall and site for $50,000, build a new one on a back street, for $25,000 and nett $25,000.

Otto Rands of Shelburne fell on the slippery sidewalk and cut his head rather badly.

Friday was donation day in license Inspector Beckett's Department. He sent forty sealed bottles and a jug of whisky to the General Hospital, and sixty-five bottles of G. and W. to the House of Refuge.
